Eagle Pass High School & the College Board are pleased to recognize the following students as part of the National Hispanic Recognition Program.

The NHRP was initiated in 1983 to identify outstanding Hispanic/Latino high school students. Every year, the NHRP recognizes about 5,000 of the 250,000 Hispanic/Latino juniors who take the test.

In addition to their PSAT scores, the program requires a 3.0 GPA.

The mission of National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) is to recognize and honor the academically talented students of the United States.

- To promote a wider and deeper respect for learning in general and for exceptionally talented individuals in particular
- To shine a spotlight on brilliant students and encourage the pursuit of academic excellence at all levels of education
- To stimulate increased support from organizations that wish to sponsor scholarships for outstanding scholastic talent

Eagle Pass ISD and Eagle Pass High School proudly recognizes:

Mariana Aguilar - daughter of Anabel Aguilar
Sebastian Galvan- Son of Lorenzo and Marisela Galvan
Adolfo Lozano - son of Adolfo and Veronica Lozano
Jacob Wright- son of Jacob and Claudia Wright
Natalia Cantu - daughter of Cesar and Nelly Cantu

Natalia Cantu was also recognized by the College Board as a Commended Student in the National Merit Scholarship Program. Commended students placed among the top 5 percent of more than 1.6 million students who entered the 2019 competition by taking the 2017 PSAT/NMSQT (Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test).

Congratulations to these students and their parents!
