25-26 Strategic Plan Initiative

Increase the percentage of TEOG statements received from 36% (Fall '24) to 45% by Fall 2025.

TEOG: Texas Educational Opportunity Grant:

a need-based grant program for Texas resident students who are enrolled in a public two-year college. To be eligible, a student must meet general requirements such as having financial need, being enrolled at least half-time in an associate's degree or certificate program for their first 30 hours, and not having a felony conviction.
