

Terrell Independent School District

Executive Summary Report

Date	District Guiding Pillar
November 18, 2024	Goal 1: Student Achievement: Accelerate student learning to dramatically increase the number of students who perform on or above grade level.

Agenda Item: Consider Approval of the THS Fine Arts Trip to London, England

Summary:

Terrell High School Fine Arts trip to London is a comprehensive experience that meets the District Improvement Plan's goal of providing engaging and enriching courses and opportunities in the arts. Students attending the trip will be able to see a Shakespearean play at the original Globe Theatre and participate in theater workshops. In addition, they will visit the University of Oxford and other culturally significant locations such as a tour of the Houses of Parliament, Buckingham Palace, and the Tower Bridge. These experiences will not only expose students to diverse and artistic expressions but also provide opportunities for cultural and historical learning. Overall, the Terrell Fine Arts trip aligns with the district plan of ensuring students receive high-quality arts education. The trip will take place within the first two weeks of June 2026. and exact dates will be communicated once they are solidified. The dates will be chosen best on the best flight rates six months prior to departure.
