Re: Board Report

Date: 11/12/2025

Goal 1: Engagement

- Thank you again to the Chelsea District Library for supporting our Chapter-a-Day Challenge. We had a great virtual author visit with Lauren Tarish (I Survived)—a wonderful school wide celebration.
- We celebrated Halloween as a school community with Halloween stations which brought fun and excitement to our school.
- Parent teacher conferences are being held the first two weeks of November. These are a wonderful opportunity to connect with families.
- Veterans Day celebrations occurred on Tuesday, November 11th. Students took time to honor veterans and place flags in the front of South.
- Mrs. Bradley has the Book Fair set up! We are having fun welcoming that opportunity in the building.
- Third grade has an upcoming field trip planned to visit the Henry Ford museum on Thursday, November 20th.

Goal 2: Portrait of a Graduate (P.O.G.)

- The elementary innovation team made significant gains toward our district P.O.G. goals this year.
- We are excited to roll out report card changes highlighting student reflections on their P.O.G. strengths.
- Staff engaged in a meaningful PD on literacy, which focused on book clubs and strategies for independent reading.

Goal 3: Health & Safety

- We welcomed new paraprofessional Amanda Scheller to support students!

Respectfully,

Katie Spisich, South Meadows Elementary Principal
Chelsea School District
