

EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

AE
(LOCAL)

The Board holds the welfare of the students as its guiding principle of the District . The Board, as elected representatives of the people, shall provide the type and kind of educational program desired by the residents of the District, as expressed by them in duly called elections, communications to the Board, and various other means that make clear the wishes of the majority of the people.

The Board believes that each individual student living within the boundaries of the District should be accepted into the educational program, unless otherwise excluded by official action, and that students should be provided with a stimulating environment and opportunities for learning experiences designed to promote skills and behavior that make students acceptable, happy, creditable, and well-adjusted citizens of the democracy.

In the practical application of this philosophy, opportunities shall be provided within the educational program for each individual to develop to the fullest of his or her capabilities, the following:

1. The fundamental skills.
2. The ability to communicate ideas.
3. Knowledge and understanding of the student's own natural environment.
4. Moral and ethical values.
5. Physical, mental, and emotional health.
6. Understanding and appreciation of the American heritage.
7. Skills for effective participation in the democratic processes.
8. Appreciation of the student's own role in the family and in civic groups.
9. Economic competence as a consumer.
10. Saleable skills and vocational competence.
11. Appreciation of the arts.
12. Wise use of leisure time.
13. Development of intellectual skills.
14. The ability to think effectively and to make decisions based upon logic.
15. Zeal for continuous learning, quest and inquiry, and self-improvement.

Mission Statement

~~The District's mission is to educate all students by ensuring access to superior education through inspired leadership among parents, teachers, administrators, and staff, allowing students to achieve their full potential to participate in future social, economic, and educational opportunities in their community.~~

We equip every student with the knowledge and skills to pursue meaningful opportunities – boldly shaping futures filled with purpose, possibility, and impact.
