

A wide-angle photograph of a modern school library or study area. The room features a polished, light-colored floor. In the foreground, there are two red patterned sofas facing each other with a light-colored coffee table between them. To the left, there are several tables with yellow and red chairs. In the background, there are bookshelves, a long counter with book bins, and a computer workstation area with several computers. Large windows with blinds are visible on the right side of the room. The ceiling has recessed lighting and dark structural beams.
