

Dear Board of Education,

Thank-you for the donation in honor of my dad's memory. It is fitting since my dad valued education. He worked day and went to school at night for nearly seventeen years to earn both his bachelor's degree and master's degree in business administration while raising three children. A heartfelt thank-you for your kind expression of sympathy.

Sincerely,

Amy Ragnarase