

2007-2008 School Calendar

November 13, 2007

SUMMARY:

This item requests approval to revise the 2007-2008 school calendar by changing the Staff Development day from February 11 to February 18, 2008. A recent change by the Texas Education Agency was made to move all testing from February to March in 2008, thus eliminating the need to have the Staff Development Day prior to a week of testing. Moving the Staff Development day to February would allow our students to be dismissed in observance of President's Day on February 18, 2008.
