6. Public Comments

Courtney Wood – as president of Craig Education Association. They are concerned with staff retention. They say we will continue to lose staff if they are under-appreciated. They are willing to form committees or whatever necessary to work together. I am willing to meet with any of you to discuss issues.

Pat Rogan – Heard thru rumor-mill that there are quite a few people leaving and would like to know that percentage. (Mr. Brookshire tells him he can address that issue via email) We need to address the issue before things continue to spiral down.

7. Reports

a. Board Members.

Sam Bass – just returned from Spring Break, quarter ended Friday, track has begun.

Trish Conatser – Thank yous to the students and staff for getting things going again. Thanks to staff for participating in the trauma in-service. Encourage teachers to ask about professional development. Update to initiate exit interviews is that we have to pass that back to administration due to legal limitations.

b. Principals

Jackie Hanson – Elementary and middle schools will be state testing the next two weeks.

Elementary first and then middle school. Thank you to Mrs. Glore and Ms. Peavey for assisting.

Mollie Harings – 145 completed enrollments for the 22-23 school year so far.

c. Maintenance Director – Nothing to add.

d. Superintendent – High school biomass project update – steel prices on the rise because of the war in Ukraine. Made the purchase of the biomass boiler with the board approved funds before the prices continue to rise.

Next Wednesday we have a work session with the City of Craig to discuss budget at 7 pm.

8. Old Business
