ANTICIPATED
DATE FOR ACTION: May 22, 2006

Background Information:

- Update 77 is one of several significant policy manual changes received from TASB (Texas Association of School Boards) each year.
- This is the second of two updates that have resulted from the 2005 Legislative session.

Administrative Considerations:

- Policies to be considered for adoption are on the following pages.
- Update 77 reflects TASB's interpretation of Keller ISD local policy into the new statutes or guidelines.
- Proposed updates to policies are on the following pages with a brief explanation. Also, included are the current policies for comparison.

Included in this update are policies for the Board to delete and to adopt. TASB makes recommendations for content, format and usefulness of policies. We generally follow their recommendations but have reserved the right to adjust as the district determines the best response.
