Student Life

Prom Closing Assembly

Rotary Student of the Month- Bryar Konruff

As Vice President of the National Honor Society, Bryar models excellence and actively volunteers her time to support local businesses and nonprofit organizations. She is involved in school activities and athletics, balancing her many commitments with purpose. What sets Bryar apart is not just what she accomplishes, but how she does it, with integrity, humility, and dedication to others. She regularly goes above and beyond, never seeking recognition, but instead focusing on lifting those around her.

Bryar embodies the core values of Rotary: service, integrity, leadership, and fellowship. Her compassion is authentic, her work ethic is inspiring, and her impact is meaningful. She is not only an outstanding student, but a remarkable leader whose actions reflect a sincere commitment to bettering her community and the lives of others.
