If the district terminates such line of service that received a device subsidy before the end of the chosen term, then the district agrees to refund to T-Mobile a pro-rated portion of the device subsidy for the terminated lines of service after the cancelled date. As an example and for illustration purpose, the district received an $90 device subsidy for 6 devices for a 12 month term and the district decides to terminate all 6 lines after 9 months, then the district would be obligated to reimburse T-Mobile a total of ($90 x 6 devices = $540 ÷ 12 months = $45 x 3 months = $135). You are permitted to suspend billing up to 60 days at no cost every 12 months. However, the suspended months do not count toward the 12-month commitment. T-Mobile will be shipping the directly to you. Billing begins when the devices are shipped. From the date of this e-mail acceptance, we would expect these to be shipped within 7-10 business days if we ship them directly to you and support you virtually.
