Facts of this Matter:

Zionsville Community Schools appreciates our partnership with the Zionsville Education Foundation (ZEF). ZEF provides funding for many classroom experiences and teacher resources throughout the year that may otherwise not be possible without their involvement.

In recognition of the positive impact that the Zionsville Education Foundation has on our children, our teachers, and the success of both, the Board would like to consider a $10,000 donation to help support the mission of ZEF and projects directly benefiting our schools.

Funds intended for this donation are not state or property tax supported. The funds for this donation will come from our Extended Services Fund.

Objective POSITIVES related to this item or approach:

If approved, this donation will continue to help ZEF as they support our students and teachers with innovative projects in the classroom and beyond.

Objective NEGATIVES related to this item or approach:

None.

Financial Implications, if any:

The total cost of this donation is $10,000 and will be paid from funds available in the Extended Services Fund.

Opinion/Recommendation:

It is recommended that the Board authorize the donation of $10,000 to the Zionsville Education Foundation.

Suggested Wording for a Motion, if any:

I move to approve the donation of $10,000 to the Zionsville Education Foundation.
