The Naval Academy select a small number of influencer's for this unique opportunity to showcase the academy in hopes of creating opportunity for students across teh nation. The competition for academy attendance is fierce and this would provide a unique opportunity for the students of TRSD. I believe the academy is interested in my attendacne due to my interest and understanding of the value of the military branches as a viable option for some students. The Navy in particular has showcased their enlisted side to my through an educator workshop a few years back and want to create opportunities for our students at the highest level in their branch. They have invited a board member as well who can help shape the lives of TRSD students with this opportunity.

No cost to the district as all expenses are paid by the military. Furthermore, as mentioned above the opportunity for our students will be tremendous if we can get a few students to attend the various academies will set them up for tremendous success. Lastly, Rich and I will have a more intimate knowledge of the process and the preparation for academy attendance to help TRSD students interested.
