On April 25th, the Ben Bolt-Palito Blanco Music Department had their end of the year Spring Concert. The sixth grade beginner band did an amazing job by performing three concert pieces. Awards were given out to beginner students that excelled on their instruments. The concert then went on to feature our seventh and eighth grade band which performed four concert pieces. Awards were given to the seventh and eighth grade band members that showed leadership and musicianship in their sections. The High School band portion of the concert was also a success. Awards were given to High School students that have shown leadership and dedication to the Ben Bolt Palito Blanco music program. The Jr. High and High School Mariachi groups finished the concerts with a great performance that showed off their talents. Band Booster parents were also given a certificate of appreciation for their contributions to the music department and the students.
