Pecan Creek Elementary Student Performs in TCDA All-State Honor Choir

Denton ISD had a single student selected to the honor choir this year. Former Pecan Creek Elementary student Hannah Thomas, now a sixth grader at Myers Middle School, was Denton ISD's lone representative. Hannah is the daughter of Paul and Virginia Thomas, the choir director at Strickland Middle School.

This summer, the Texas Choral Directors Association (TCDA) hosted their annual state convention in San Antonio. Prior to the convention, elementary choir students from across the state apply and submit an audition to be selected for the all-state honor choir.

Out of the countless applications and audition tapes received, 164 students were selected to the prestigious all-state honor choir. Those selected students rehearse over three days, then the group performed on the last day of the convention at the famed Lila Cockrell Theatre.

Dr. Victor Lozada was her choir director at Pecan Creek Elementary. Dr. Lozada is now an instructor at TWU.

Amanda Bomar was her principal at Pecan Creek Elementary, and Trey Peden is her current principal at Myers Middle School.
