LET'S GET REAL

Abilene Teacher's Federal Credit Union sponsored a Reality Fair that all of our Government/Economics students went through on October 29. Students walked through real financial situations with a representative from ATFCU.

PINK OUT

The WHS cheerleaders sold Pink Out shirts throughout the month of October. They were able to donate $1,500 to DeeDee Baker, $1,500 to Louis Rangel, and $900 to Cancer Network Services through the sell of shirts.

The Purple Dog Company also sold shirts to raise money for DeeDee Baker. They will donate $1,500 to DeeDee from the sell of their shirts.

STUCO HOLIDAY FUNDRAISER

Student Council took cash donations from students for one week in order to purchase Thanksgiving boxes and coats for those in our community in need. Students donated $4,300 which will purchase 25 coats for elementary students and 16 families will be assisted with food for Thanksgiving.

VETERAN'S DAY

Wylie High School is hosting a Veteran's Day brunch for all of the WHS families who serve or have served in our military on November 11.

SHREK LIVE!

JUST DEBATE IT

Wylie High School debate competed in the Region 14 5A congressional debate tournament on Wednesday. Caleb Speights, Brendan Hurt, and Marianna Deynzer placed 1st, 2nd, and 3rd respectively, and will go on to compete at the 5A State Championships in January. Also placing were Josh Larum (5th place) and Cerys White (7th).

WORLD OF WORK

The Career Prep classes will be attending WOW (World of Work) Youth Expo at the Abilene Convention Center on Wednesday, November 13. This event is organized by Jennifer Wilson from Workforce Solutions here in Abilene. Mrs. Wilson is on the high school campus every Tuesday working with our students. The purpose is to expose, educate, and engage high school students with employers and organizations as well as post-secondary schools in the region. The event features workforce readiness activities such as mock interviews, resume writing, budgeting, etc.

3RD ANNUAL BULLDOG CHRISTMAS MARKET

The Purple Dog Company will be hosting the 3rd Annual Bulldog Christmas Market on Thursday, December 5. Each year this event introduces students to entrepreneurship and the power of community. Our jazz band, choir, and other student talent will provide the music for the night, while our classes will create student booths.
