

RECOGNITION OF STUDENTS, STAFF AND COMMUNITY

POLICY ISSUE/SITUATION

Tonight, the District recognizes the following individuals for their outstanding achievement and contribution to the Beaverton School District and the community. The following recognitions exemplify the Pillar of Excellence.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

WE Expect Excellence: Flag of Learning and Liberty – Dan Ivie

In honor of his 39 years of dedication to the children of the Beaverton School District, Dan Ivie is being awarded the Flag of Learning and Liberty, which symbolizes the fundamental interdependency of public education and the democratic way of life enjoyed in the United States of America.

Dan began his career in 1976 as a Science teacher at Aloha High School. He taught at Aloha High School until 1994 when he moved to Westview High School where he currently teaches.

“Dan truly is all about the kids. In 39 years as a teacher, coach, mentor and advocate he has become a staple of the Westview community and we wish him well in his retirement. Westview will not be the same without him,” says Westview High School Principal, Jon Franco.

The Flag of Liberty & Learning has become an important reminder to all communities that education serves as a driving force in advancing freedom and liberty in our democratic society. Congratulations, Dan!

WE Expect Excellence: Pamplin Media Group Amazing Kids – Coral Lara Rizo

Coral Lara Rizo, a junior at Aloha High School, has been named one of Pamplin Media’s 2016 Amazing Kids. The Amazing Kids edition honors young people doing incredible work to improve their communities.

Coral has volunteered her Saturdays for four years to help Spanish-speaking families obtain clothes through the Assistance League of Greater Portland’s Operation School Bell.

“Coral jumped in from the very beginning and was a savior,” says Tish Shinn, Assistance League volunteer. “What Coral does for everyone in the room is put everyone at ease, including the volunteers.”

Congratulations, Coral, and good luck in all of your future endeavors!

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the School Board recognize Daniel Ivie and Coral Lara Rizo for their contributions to student success.

District Goal: WE empower all students to achieve post-high school success.

The Beaverton School District recognizes the diversity and worth of all individuals and groups. It is the policy of the Beaverton School District that there will be no discrimination or harassment of individuals or groups based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, marital status, age, veterans' status, genetic information or disability in any educational programs, activities or employment.
