STATE OF TEXAS

An education is one of the most important tools we must ensure our children have as we prepare them to take on their world and become the next leaders of our state and nation. Across the state of Texas, human resources professionals play an essential role in ensuring young Texans receive the highest quality of education possible.

It is well known that skilled teachers and school staff are essential elements for an educational atmosphere that is rich in achievement. Human resources professionals are at the forefront of creating these advantageous surroundings for students by implementing effective practices for hiring quality staff to teach young Texans and expertly serving the needs of students, teachers and administrators.

At this time, I encourage all Texans to join me in recognizing all of our devoted human resources professionals for the contributions they have made to our educational system that continues to evolve and present new challenges.

Therefore, I, Greg Abbott, Governor of Texas, do hereby proclaim October 10, 2018, to be

In official recognition whereof,
I hereby affix my signature this the 30th day of August, 2018.
