Legislative Update

Accompanying this report is a memo issued by Sylvia Watson from the Indiana State Library. The memo is about HEA 1412 which makes some changes to the library laws. This bill was signed by the Governor on March 8.

PLA Conference

As of this writing I have arrived in Philadelphia and am preparing to attend the PLA Conference. A major winter storm has been forecast for the next several days, so many people have had their flights canceled and are weighing alternatives or whether to attend, including our staff. I'm already here however, so some highlights I plan to attend are listed as follows, with a more comprehensive report to follow later:

- Opening Session with Sally Yates on Wednesday
- Success on a Massive Scale: Library Cards for all Students
- Great Expectations: Customer Service and the Future of Libraries
- Libraries Taking the Lane: Using Bikes to Connect Communities
