3.2 Licensee's Responsibilities. Licensee shall implement reasonable security measures to protect such trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information, and copyrighted material. Licensee shall devote its best efforts to ensure that all Licensee's personnel protect the Skyward Products and Materials as confidential and proprietary information and the trade secrets of Skyward to any other person, firm, organization, or employee that does not need (consistent with Licensee's right of use hereunder) to obtain access to the Skyward Products and Materials. The duties and obligations of Licensee hereunder shall remain in full force and effect for so long as Licensee continues to control, possess, or use the Skyward Products and Materials. Licensee shall promptly notify Skyward and return the Skyward Products and Materials, and any permitted back-up copies thereof upon the termination of this Agreement or the limited license granted herein for any reason, or the abandonment or other termination of Licensee's control, possession or use of the Skyward Products and Materials.

3.3.1 Reproduction of Materials. Licensee may reproduce the Materials for authorized use by personnel of Licensee as required to operate the Skyward Products, provided that Licensee includes in those reproductions all Skyward notices of ownership and proprietary rights thereto. Said reproductions of the Materials shall be subject to the same restrictions on use and disclosure as the original provided by Skyward hereunder.

3.3.2 Filming. Licensee may film or record one or more training or support sessions performed by Skyward personnel, with the prior written consent of Skyward. In the event Skyward grants such written consent, Licensee agrees that Licensee, its members, officers, and employees will treat such recordings as confidential and proprietary information of Skyward and that Licensee will comply with the requirements of Section 3.2 above with respect to any such recordings. Such back-up copies are for use by the Licensee only and the sole purpose and intent of such back-up copies are to allow the Licensee to have a back-up of the Skyward Products and Materials licensed to Licensee by Skyward. All copies made for back-up purposes in accordance with this Section must be labeled as such and must contain all Skyward notices of ownership and proprietary rights thereto.

3.4 Audit Rights. During the term of this Agreement and for a period of two (2) years following the termination or expiration of this Agreement, upon written notice to Licensee, Skyward may audit Licensee's database and/or computing devices to determine Licensee's compliance with this Agreement and payment of all applicable license fees due Skyward, if any, for the Skyward Products. If such audit reveals that Licensee knowingly underpaid the license fees due Skyward under the terms of this Agreement, then Licensee shall promptly pay to Skyward any such unpaid amounts.

4.0 Indemnification and Source Code Escrow.

4.1 Ownership. Skyward warrants and represents that it has full right, power and authority to license the Skyward Products and Materials to Licensee subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. 4.2 Infringement Claim. Notwithstanding the express limitation of liability contained in Section 5.2 below, at Skyward sole expense, Skyward shall defend and hold harmless Licensee from and against any and all claims, actions, and liabilities brought by any third party alleging that the Skyward Products and/or Materials infringe upon a trade secret, or a registered patent or copyright in the United States and Skyward shall pay all costs and damages arising out of any such claim. To qualify for such defense and payment, Licensee must give Skyward prompt written notice of such claim and allow Skyward to control or institute all defenses to a such claim, including settlement of all such claims, in litigation or otherwise, provided no such settlement adversely affects Licensee's ability to exercise the rights granted in this Agreement, unless Licensee consents thereto.

4.3 Remedy. Licensee agrees that if the Skyward Products and/or Materials become, or in the opinion of Skyward is likely to become, the subject of a trade secret, patent, or copyright infringement claim, Licensee shall permit Skyward at Skyward's option and expense, to: (a) promptly procure for Licensee the right to continue to use the Skyward Products and/or Materials; or (b) replace the Skyward Products and/or Materials with an alternative that functions substantially the same as the product which becomes or is likely to become the subject of such a claim; or (c) modify the Skyward Products and/or Materials in a manner which causes it to function substantially the same as it had prior to modification.

4.4 Source Code Escrow. If requested by Licensee, Skyward will add Licensee as a beneficiary of Skyward's escrow services agreement with Iron Mountain Intellectual Property Management, Inc., at Licensee's sole expense. The beneficiary enrollment form for Licensee will contain the following release conditions: (a) if Skyward discontinues support for the then current version of the Skyward Products; (b) if Skyward executes an assignment for the benefit of creditors or becomes subject to bankruptcy or receivership proceedings; or (c) upon the occurrence of any other release condition specified in the escrow agreement between Skyward and Iron Mountain Intellectual Property Management, Inc. In the event the source code is released to Licensee, such source code shall continue to be subject to the terms, conditions, and restrictions contained in this Agreement and Licensee's rights to use such source code shall be the same as Licensee's rights to use the Skyward Products under the terms of this Agreement.

5.0 Limited Warranty and Limitation of Liability.

5.1 Limited Warranty. Skyward warrants to Licensee that the Skyward Products, when used in accordance with the user documentation furnished by Skyward, will be free of defects in materials and workmanship and will perform, in all material respects, substantially in accordance with Skyward's current published specifications. Except for the foregoing, no warranties, express or implied, are provided by Skyward. This limited warranty extends only to Licensee as the original licensee. Licensee's sole and exclusive remedy and the entire liability of Skyward under this limited warranty will be, at Skyward's option, repair or replacement of the Skyward Products. In no event does Skyward warrant that the Skyward Products will be error free or that Licensee will be able to operate the Skyward Products without temporary problems or interruptions. This limited warranty does not apply if Licensee has failed to pay the Initial Fees and Annual Fees due under the terms of this Agreement or if the Skyward Product: (i) is in the form of a back-up copy created by Licensee in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (ii) has been altered in any way, except by Skyward, (iii) has not been installed, operated, repaired, or maintained in accordance with instructions and specifications supplied by Skyward, or (iv) has been subjected to abnormal physical or electrical stress, misuse, negligence, or accident. 5.2 Limitation of Liability. The liability of Skyward to Licensee for any claim whatsoever related to this Agreement, including any cause of action arising in contract, tort, or strict liability, shall not exceed the total amount of all payments made under this Agreement by Licensee to Skyward with respect to the Skyward Products (excluding the cost of any hardware purchased by Skyward and transferred to Licensee) during the 365 days preceding the cause of action. IN NO EVENT WILL SKYWARD BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST REVENUE, PROFIT, OR DATA, OR FOR SPECIAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES HOWEVER CAUSED AND REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE SOFTWARE EVEN IF SKYWARD HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. Skyward shall not be held liable for any claims or demands brought against Licensee by any other party unless Licensee has properly notified Skyward as to such damages, claims, or demands, and Licensee has taken action to minimize such damages, claims, or demands. The Licensee further agrees that unless Licensee has purchased disaster recovery services from Skyward, Skyward will not be liable for any claim or action whatsoever or damages, regardless of type, resulting from the Licensee's failure to properly save or back up all data and information inputted by Licensee.

6.0 Term and Termination.

6.1 Term. The term of this Agreement shall commence on the installation date identified in the Proposal and shall continue until terminated as provided herein.

6.2 Termination by Licensee.

6.2.1 Voluntary Termination. Licensee may terminate this Agreement by providing Skyward with not less than one hundred twenty (120) days advance written notice. Provided however, Licensee acknowledges that all Annual Fees are non-refundable and will not be prorated or refunded to Licensee in the event Licensee terminates this Agreement under this Section 6.2.1.

6.2.2 Termination Upon Skyward Default. Licensee may terminate this Agreement in the event Skyward fails to perform any material obligation under this Agreement and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice of such breach from Licensee.

6.2.3 Termination Upon Non Appropriation . Skyward acknowledges that this Agreement is a commitment of Licensee's current revenues and that payment obligations of Licensee created by this Agreement are conditioned upon the availability of funds that are duly appropriated and allocated for the payment of goods and services under this Agreement. If such funds are not appropriated and allocated by Licensee's governing board, then this Agreement may be terminated by Licensee at the end of the fiscal period for which funds are appropriated and allocated. Licensee shall provide Skyward with prompt written notice of any such non-appropriation event.

6.3 Termination by Skyward. The occurrence of any one or more of the following shall be deemed an "Licensee Default": (a) any attempted sale, sublicense, transfer or assignment of all or any part of the Skyward Products and/or Materials without the prior written consent of Skyward; (b) any attempt to decompile, disassemble, or otherwise reverse engineer all or any part of the Skyward Products and/or Materials, or assist another in so doing; (c) any breach of Skyward's confidential and proprietary rights, trade secrets, or copyrights in the Skyward Products and/or Materials; or (d) Licensee fails to perform any other material obligation under this Agreement, including but not limited to a failure to pay the Annual Fees or any other amounts when due under the terms of this Agreement and any Proposal and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice from Skyward. Upon the occurrence of a Licensee Default, Skyward shall have the right to immediately terminate this Agreement.

6.4 Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement for any reason, Skyward: (a) shall have no further obligation to provide Licensee with upgrades, patches, new releases, or any other Skyward Services with respect to the Skyward Products for which payment has not been made; and (b) may limit Licensee's access to the Skyward Products for which payment has not been made to a read only version allowing Licensee to view its data and run reports only for a period of not more than twelve (12) months thereafter.

6.5 Injunctive Relief. In the event of a Licensee Default described in Section 6.3(a)-(c) above, in addition to the right to terminate in Section 6.3 above, Skyward will be entitled, without proof of damages, to immediate injunctive relief (including but not limited to, a temporary restraining order, temporary injunction and permanent injunction, all without bond), restraining Licensee from any further use of the Skyward Products and Materials and requiring that all copies (including any permitted back-up copies) be immediately returned to Skyward. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this Section will not be construed to limit Skyward's rights to pursue any other remedy or relief available under this Agreement or otherwise available. Licensee further agrees that Skyward's pursuit of any remedy under this Agreement or otherwise available will not constitute an election of remedies by Skyward.

7.0 Professional Services.

7.1 Software Support. So long as Licensee continues to pay the Annual Fees, Skyward will provide Licensee with technical support and software maintenance with respect to the Skyward Products, subject to the terms and conditions described on Schedule A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

7.2 Professional Services. In the event Licensee requests implementation services, training services, data conversion services, network or data management services, or other project management and professional services from Skyward during the term of this Agreement and Skyward agrees in writing to provide such services, then the terms and conditions of Skyward's provision of such services to Licensee shall be in accordance with the terms and conditions described on Schedule B, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Provided however, Skyward agrees that such data shall not include any personally identifiable information of any of Licensee's students and/or employees and Skyward shall otherwise comply with all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement with respect to Licensee's data.

7.4 Non-Solicitation. The parties agree that their respective employees are a valuable asset to their respective organizations and are difficult to replace. Accordingly, beginning on the Effective Date and continuing for a period of one (1) calendar year thereafter, neither party shall solicit, whether directly or indirectly, the employment of any of the other party's employees without the prior written consent of the other party. If a party violates this Section 7.4, the parties agree that the violating party shall pay to the other party the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00) for each violation, not to exceed a total sum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) as liquidated damages. The parties further agree that precise monetary damages for a party's violation of this Section 7.4 would be difficult to ascertain and that the foregoing sum represents a fair and conservative approximation of cost of recruitment, hiring and training that would be incurred by the other party.

8.0 Interpretation and Construction.

8.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Wisconsin, without regard to any conflict of laws provisions or rules of construction concerning the draftsmanship hereof. This Agreement contains the entire understanding and full and complete agreement of the parties, and supersedes and replaces any prior understandings and agreements among the parties, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be altered, amended or modified only in writing, signed by both of the parties hereto. Headings included in this Agreement are for convenience only and are not intended to limit

Any attempted assignment or delegation without Skyward's prior written consent will be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the transfer of all or substantially all of the Skyward's capital stock or assets to a third party through a sale, merger or other transaction or proceeding shall not be deemed an assignment under the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding on the parties and their respective successors, affiliates, legal representatives and permitted assigns

8.3 Severability. If any court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall have no effect on the other provisions hereof, which shall remain valid, binding and enforceable and in full force and effect, and such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be construed in a manner so as to give the maximum valid and enforceable effect of the intent of the parties expressed herein.

8.4 Waiver. No waiver of a breach of any term of this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and duly executed by the waiving party. No such waiver will constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term of this Agreement. No failure on the part of a party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any of its rights hereunder will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise by a party of any right preclude any other exercise by a party of any right preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. No course of dealing between the parties will be deemed effective to modify, amend or discharge any part of this Agreement or the rights or obligations of any party hereunder.

8.5 Force Majeure. Except for the obligation to make payments, neither party will be liable for any failure or delay in its performance under this Agreement due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to, acts of war, acts of God, acts of terrorism, earthquake, flood, embargo, riot, sabotage, labor shortage or dispute, governmental act, provided that the delayed part: (a) gives the other party prompt notice of such cause, and (b) uses commercially reasonable efforts to promptly correct such failure or delay in performance.

Any notice required or permitted to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be valid only if in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given (a) when personally delivered, (b) when transmitted by fax if confirmation of receipt is printed out on the sending fax machine, or (c) three business days after being mailed by certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the party receiving notice at the address listed in the opening paragraph of this Agreement, unless that party otherwise notifies the other party in accordance with this Section of a change of address.

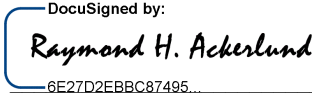

8.7 Survival. The provisions contained in Sections 3, 4, 5, and 6, this Section, and any other provisions of this Agreement which by their very nature are intended to survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement and will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto.

8.8 Counterparts and Signatures. The undersigned warrant and represent that they have the legal authority to execute and deliver this Agreement on behalf of the parties hereto. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed will be deemed to be an original and all of which when taken together will constitute one Agreement. The parties agree that original signatures of a party transmitted by facsimile or in portable document format (pdf) or electronic signatures affixed to this Agreement shall be as valid as an original signature of such party to this Agreement. If this document is executed by electronic signature, both parties agree that their electronic signature is legally binding and shall have the same validity and meaning as a handwritten signature and neither party will contest the validity of their respective electronic signature, or claim that it is not legally binding.

In the event Licensee is currently utilizing a network installed by a third party, Licensee agrees to provide an authorized technical support representative on-site to provide any necessary assistance during the installation process.

2.2 Licensee’s Obligations. Licensee acknowledges that meeting any dates agreed to by the parties are contingent upon timely completion of activities by Licensee as contemplated by the parties under this Agreement including, without limitation, those activities designated to Licensee in Section 2.1 above (a “Licensee Obligation”). Licensee will immediately advise Skyward in writing as soon as it becomes aware of any developments that may delay completion of a scheduled Deliverable including, without limitation, Licensee’s failure or inability to perform a Licensee Obligation. Any dates agreed to by the parties will be equitably adjusted by the parties (but in no event less than a day- for-day adjustment) in writing in the event of: (a) any delay caused by Licensee’s failure or inability to perform a Licensee Obligation; (b) any delay due to Licensee’s request for changes; (c) any delay due to a third party’s act, failure to act or delay in performing any obligation whatsoever; or (d) any other delay incurred as a result of Licensee’s action(s) or omission(s). No such delay will relieve or suspend Licensee’s obligation to pay Skyward under Section 3 below and, in addition to such payment obligations, Licensee will pay for any and all costs and expenses incurred by Skyward relating to re-staffing as a result of any delay caused by Licensee.

3.0 Fees and Payment. Licensee shall pay all fees due Skyward in association with the Professional Services provided by Skyward to Licensee hereunder. Provided however, if the Professional Services are not commenced within one hundred eighty (180) days, then the applicable fees shall be adjusted to Skyward’s then current rates and fees for such services. Licensee shall further reimburse Skyward for all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Skyward in its performance of the Services under this Agreement in accordance with Skyward’s then current business expense policy. Unless otherwise stated, Licensee shall make all payments under this Agreement within thirty (30) days after the date of invoice. Interest on all past due amounts will be charged at the maximum rate permitted by law.

4.0 Licensee Data.

4.1 Confidentiality of All Data. All personally identifiable information and data relating to Licensee’s students and/or employees used by Licensee in conjunction with the Skyward Products shall at all times be treated as confidential by Skyward and will not be copied, used or disclosed by Skyward for any purpose. Skyward recognizes that personally identifiable information is protected against disclosure by federal and state statutes and regulations and Skyward agrees to comply with said restrictions.

4.2 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. The parties expect and anticipate that Skyward may receive education records from Licensee only as an incident of the Professional Services that Skyward provides to Licensee. In the event Licensee provides Personally Identifiable Information (“PII”) (including but not limited to personally identifiable student information as defined by applicable state and federal law) to Skyward, they shall be deemed a “school official determined to have a legitimate educational interest” under 34 CFR 99.31(a)(1), as provided by Licensee’s policies and procedures. Skyward acknowledges that PII is the confidential information of Licensee and shall not use it for any purpose, commercial or otherwise, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. Skyward agrees to abide by the requirements of applicable federal and state law pertaining to the disclosure of PII, and agrees to take all reasonable measures to protect against the unauthorized disclosure of any PII. Except for use and disclosure to their employees and personnel to the extent necessary to fulfill its obligations under the terms of any Statement of Work, Skyward shall not use or further disclose PII. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Skyward agrees to promptly return to Licensee any and all PII in Skyward’s possession.

4.3 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act. In the event that Licensee is converting its data and information management systems, then the parties represent and acknowledge that such conversion process may necessarily involve the incidental receipt of data by Skyward that constitutes personal health information, as that term is defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (“HIPAA”). In addition to the terms and conditions contained herein, Skyward and Licensee may enter into a HIPAA Business Associate Agreement providing for the protection of such personal health information as required by HIPAA.

4.4 Indemnification. Skyward shall, at its sole cost and expense, defend and hold harmless Licensee from and against any and all claims, actions, and liabilities brought by any third party against Licensee as a result of the release of PII or other confidential information of Licensee to the extent directly caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Skyward or its employees. Provided however, to qualify for such defense, Licensee must give Skyward prompt written notice of such claim and allow Skyward to control or institute all defenses to a such claim, including settlement of all such claims, in litigation or otherwise.

4.5 Open Database Connection. If requested by Licensee and agreed to by Skyward, Skyward may establish an open database connection (“ODBC”) between Skyward’s database and the database of Licensee. In the event such an ODBC is established by Skyward, Licensee will be permitted to insert its data into the Skyward database subject to the following terms and conditions: (a) Licensee will be the sole and exclusive owner of all data inserted into the Skyward database, (b) Licensee agrees to hold Skyward harmless from any liability relating to Licensee’s insertion of data into the Skyward database, including but not limited to the corruption of such database, (c) Licensee shall compensate Skyward to repair any problems relating to the corruption of the Skyward database arising from or related to the insertion of the Licensee’s data, (d) Licensee agrees to log all data inserts by date, time, database, table and field and to create a backup of the database prior to inserting any data, and (e) Licensee shall not allow any third party vendors, suppliers, or other individuals or entities associated with Licensee access to the ODBC without the prior written consent of Skyward and Skyward may, in its sole discretion, require that any such third party execute a confidentiality and nondisclosure agreement in the form and substance required by Skyward. The Licensee further agrees that Skyward will not be liable for any claim or action whatsoever or damages, regardless of type, resulting from the Licensee’s failure to properly save or back up all data and information inputted by Licensee through the ODBC.

5.0 Proprietary Rights.

5.1 Rights of Skyward. Subject to Licensee’s rights described below, Skyward shall own all rights, title and interest in and to any software programs or tools, utilities, technology, processes, inventions, devices, methodologies, specifications, documentation, techniques and materials of any kind used or generated by Skyward in connection with performing the Professional Services, including all intellectual property rights therein. Nothing contained herein will be construed so as to restrict or limit Skyward’s right to perform similar services for any other party or to assign any employees or subcontractors to perform similar services for any other party, provided that Skyward complies with its confidentiality obligations hereunder. Skyward shall have a royalty-free, worldwide, transferable, sublicensable, irrevocable, perpetual license to use, copy, modify, or distribute, including by incorporating into any product or service owned by Skyward, any suggestions, enhancement requests, recommendations or other feedback provided by Licensee and any of its employees, agents or users, relating to any product or service owned or provided by Skyward.

5.2 Rights of Licensee. Subject to these Standard Terms and Conditions, Skyward grants Licensee a limited, non-transferrable, non-sublicensable, nonexclusive right (exclusive of any rights to use the Skyward Products) to use and reproduce the Deliverables solely for Licensee’s internal use in conjunction with Licensee’s use of the Skyward Products as authorized by Skyward in writing and solely for so long as Licensee is authorized to use said Skyward Products.

5.3 Use Restrictions. Licensee shall not itself, or through any affiliate, agent, or third party: (a) decompile, disassemble, reverse engineer, or otherwise attempt to (i) derive source code or underlying ideas, algorithms, structure or organization from the Deliverables or (ii) defeat, avoid, bypass, remove, deactivate or otherwise circumvent any software protection mechanisms in the Deliverables, including without limitation any such mechanism used to restrict or control the functionality of the Deliverables (except that the foregoing provision shall not apply to the extent that such activities may not be prohibited under applicable law); (b) sell, lease, license, sublicense, distribute or otherwise provide to any third party or any other person the Deliverables, in whole or in part; (c) modify or create derivative works of the Deliverables; (d) use or reproduce the Deliverables, except as specifically permitted under this Agreement; or (e) use the Deliverables to provide processing services to any third party or otherwise use the Deliverables on a service bureau basis. Licensee shall promptly notify Skyward of any unauthorized use, disclosure, reproduction, or distribution of the Deliverables, which comes to Licensee’s attention, or which Licensee reasonably suspects. Licensee is solely responsible for obtaining all equipment, and the compatibility thereof with the Deliverables, and for paying all fees including, without limitation, all taxes and any related costs or fees, necessary to use the Deliverables.

5.4 Licensee Data. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, Licensee grants Skyward and its contractors and agents a limited, non-transferable, fully-paid, royalty-free, non-sublicensable, nonexclusive right during the term of this Agreement to use, reproduce, modify, prepare derivative works of, perform, display, transmit, make, have made and import any data provided by Licensee to Skyward or its contractors or agents in connection with the performance of the Professional Services under this Agreement as necessary or useful to perform the Professional Services. Except as expressly set forth herein, Licensee retains all right, title and interest in and to its data.

6.0 Limited Warranty and Limitation of Liability.

6.1 Limited Warranty. With respect to each Deliverable, Skyward warrants to Licensee that, for a period of thirty (30) calendar days after the date of delivery of such Deliverable to Licensee, such Deliverable will substantially conform to any applicable functional specifications for such Deliverable that are described in the applicable Statement of Work or any Change Order thereto. If any Deliverable does not perform as expressly warranted in this section, Licensee will notify Skyward in writing and Skyward will, at its sole option and expense: (a) replace or modify such Deliverable with a Deliverable that performs as expressly warranted in this section; or (b) if Skyward determines that the foregoing is not commercially reasonable, accept return of such Deliverable (if applicable) and refund to Licensee the fees paid by Licensee associated with such Deliverable under this Agreement. The foregoing limited warranty does not cover repair or replacement of or refunds for any Deliverable if the nonconformity to such limited warranty is caused, in whole or in part, by: (i) alteration, modification or correction other than by Skyward; (ii) software, hardware or interfacing not provided or specified in the applicable Statement of Work by Skyward; (iii) abuse, misuse or improper installation; or (iv) a change to Licensee's computing environment that would affect the specific Deliverable. EXCEPT AS SPECIFIED IN THIS LIMITED WARRANTY, ALL EXPRESS OR IMPLIED CONDITIONS, REPRESENTATIONS, AND WARRANTIES INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, ARE HEREBY EXCLUDED TO THE EXTENT ALLOWED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

6.2 Limitation of Liability. The liability of Skyward to Licensee for any claim whatsoever related to any Professional Services and/or Deliverable, including any cause of action arising in contract, tort, or strict liability, shall not exceed the total amount of all payments made by Licensee to Skyward with respect to such Professional Service and/or Deliverable. IN NO EVENT WILL SKYWARD BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST REVENUE, PROFIT, OR DATA, OR FOR SPECIAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES HOWEVER CAUSED AND REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE A DELIVERABLE EVEN IF SKYWARD HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

RECITALS

A. Skyward has developed certain proprietary computer software, as updated and revised from time to time (the “Skyward Software”). The Skyward Software, together with any additional products provided by Skyward in association therewith, shall be collectively referred to as the “Skyward Products.”

B. Skyward and Licensee have entered into that certain Skyward Software License Agreement (the “License Agreement”) whereby Skyward granted Licensee a limited license to access and use certain Skyward Products more particularly described therein, subject to and conditioned upon Licensee entering into this Agreement to provide for the terms and conditions of Licensee’s access and use of the Skyward Products through Skyward’s authorized third party host.

C. Host is an application service provider who is in the business of providing services for server and application hosting, management, and operations and Skyward has granted Host a license to host the Skyward Products.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1.0 Hosting Services.

1.1 Description of Hosting Services. Host shall provide Licensee with remote access to a digital information processing, transmission and storage system on one or more servers located at Host’s facilities that will enable Licensee to access the Skyward Products over the Internet. Subject to Licensee’s compliance with the License Agreement and this Agreement, Host will support the Skyward Products through implementation of Skyward-provided or authorized modifications, patches, updates, upgrades and new releases or versions of the Skyward Products. Host will use commercially reasonable efforts to back up the information on its servers and to store the information in a reasonably secure environment and shall also use commercially reasonable efforts to provide redundant systems designed to decrease the risk or magnitude of a loss of data. The services to be provided by Host to Licensee, as described in this Section 1.1, shall be collectively referred to as the “Hosting Services.”

1.2 Use of Hosting Services. Licensee may access and use the Hosting Services only to the extent of authorizations acquired by Licensee from Skyward or Host. Licensee is responsible for use of the Hosting Services by any party who accesses the Hosting Services with Licensee’s account credentials. Licensee acknowledges and agrees that its use of the Hosted Services is subject to Licensee’s compliance with the terms and conditions of the License Agreement, this Agreement, and any prohibited use policies of Host. Licensee may not use the Hosting Services to providing hosting or time-sharing services to any third party or to provide any third party with access to the Skyward Products.

1.3 Obligations of Licensee. Licensee is solely responsible for information, data, and content of Licensee placed on Host’s servers by Licensee. Unless caused by their negligence or willful misconduct, Skyward and Host shall not be liable to Licensee for loss of its information, data, and content placed on Host’s servers as a result of the Hosting Services, but Host shall, in the event of a loss, use its commercially reasonable efforts to attempt to recover or reconstruct any such information that has been lost. Licensee warrants and represents that information, data, and content placed on Host’s servers as a result of the Hosting Services: (a) is not offensive, defamatory, or obscene; (b) is not racially, ethnically or otherwise objectionable; (c) does not promote discrimination based on sex, race, religion, nationality, disability, sexual orientation or age; and (d) does not violate any other applicable law. Host reserves the right to delete any material installed or inputted on Host’s server or to disconnect a server which contains material which Host believes in good faith breaches any of these warranties. A breach of any of the foregoing warranties by Licensee shall constitute an event of default under the terms of this Agreement and may result in the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.0 below.

2.0 Fees and Payment. Licensee shall pay the Annual Fees (as defined in the License Agreement) described in the Proposal (as defined in the License Agreement), and other recurring fees and amounts due in association with the Hosting Services (collectively the “Fees”), during the term of this Agreement. Licensee shall make payment of the Fees when due as provided in the Proposal or within thirty (30) from the date of invoice. Interest on all past due amounts will be charged at the maximum rate permitted by law. If any authority imposes a duty, tax, levy or fee (excluding those based on Host’s net income) upon the Hosting Services, then Licensee agrees to pay the amount specified.

3.0 Reservation of Title.

3.1 Host Property. All computer systems, operating software, network equipment, and any hardware, software, documentation, information, business practices, or operating methods provided by Host as part of the Hosting Services shall remain the property of Host. Host will retain title to all rights in all intellectual property provided by Host under the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to, any know-how, customizations, practices, and other technologies related to the Hosting Services.

3.2 Skyward Property. Licensee and Host each acknowledge and agree that the Skyward Products, including but not limited to, the specific design and structure of individual programs, input formats, object code and source code, algorithms, frameworks, all constitute trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information, and copyrighted material of Skyward. Licensee and Host further acknowledge and agree that this Agreement does not affect any transfer of title in the Skyward Products and that the Skyward Products shall remain the sole and exclusive property of Skyward or Skyward's licensor.

4.0 Licensee Data.

4.1 Confidentiality of All Data. All personally identifiable information and data relating to Licensee's students and/or employees used by Licensee in conjunction with the Skyward Products shall at all times be treated as confidential by Host and will not be copied, used or disclosed by Host for any purpose. Host recognizes that personally identifiable information is protected against disclosure by federal and state statutes and regulations and Host agrees to comply with said restrictions.

4.2 Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. The parties expect and anticipate that Host may receive education records from Licensee only as an incident of the Hosting Services. In the event Licensee provides Personally Identifiable Information ("PII") (including but not limited to personally identifiable student information as defined by applicable state and federal law) to Host, they shall be deemed a "school official determined to have a legitimate educational interest" under 34 CFR 99.31(a)(1), as provided by Licensee's policies and procedures. Host acknowledges that PII is the confidential information of Licensee and shall not use it for any purpose, commercial or otherwise, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. Host agrees to abide by the requirements of applicable federal and state law pertaining to the disclosure of PII, and agrees to take all reasonable measures to protect against the unauthorized disclosure of any PII. Except for use and disclosure to their employees and personnel to the extent necessary to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, Host shall not use or further disclose PII. Upon the expiration or termination of this Agreement, Host agrees to promptly return to Licensee any and all PII in Host's possession.

4.3 Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act. The parties acknowledge that Host may receive data that constitutes personal health information, as that term is defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"). In addition to the terms and conditions contained herein, Host and Licensee may enter into a HIPAA Business Associate Agreement providing for the protection of such personal health information as required by HIPAA.

4.4 Indemnification. Host shall, at its sole cost and expense, defend and hold harmless Licensee and Skyward from and against any and all claims, actions, and liabilities brought by any third party against Licensee or Skyward as a result of the release of PII or other confidential information of Licensee or Skyward to the extent directly caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Host or its employees. Provided however, to qualify for such defense, Licensee and Skyward must give Host prompt written notice of such claim and allow Host to control or institute all defenses to a such claim, including settlement of all such claims, in litigation or otherwise.

4.5 Open Database Connection. If requested by Licensee and agreed to by Skyward, Skyward may utilize the Hosting Services to establish an open database connection ("ODBC") between Skyward's database and the database of Licensee. In the event such an ODBC is established by Skyward, Licensee will be permitted to insert its data into the Skyward database subject to the following terms and conditions: (a) Licensee will be the sole and exclusive owner of all data inserted into the Skyward database, (b) Licensee agrees to hold Skyward harmless from any liability relating to Licensee's insertion of data into the Skyward database, including but not limited to the corruption of such database, (c) Licensee shall compensate Skyward to repair any problems relating to the corruption of the Skyward database arising from or related to the insertion of the Licensee's data, (d) Licensee agrees to log all data inserts by date, time, database, table and field and to create a backup of the database prior to inserting any data, and (e) Licensee shall not allow any third party vendors, suppliers, or other individuals or entities associated with Licensee access to the ODBC without the prior written consent of Skyward and Skyward may, in its sole discretion, require that any such third party execute a confidentiality and nondisclosure agreement in the form and substance required by Skyward. The Licensee further agrees that Skyward will not be liable for any claim or action whatsoever or damages, regardless of type, resulting from the Licensee's failure to properly save or back up all data and information inputted by Licensee through the ODBC.

5.0 Security and Limited Warranty.

5.1 Server Security. Licensee acknowledges that no security systems or procedures currently available are capable of providing complete protection from unauthorized individuals who may seek to gain access to Host's servers. Host shall use commercially reasonable efforts and processes to secure its servers from access by unauthorized individuals, test its servers for viruses at reasonable intervals and maintain back-up copies of all content. Accordingly, so long as Host uses the commercially reasonable efforts set forth above, Host shall not be liable for any damage to the Licensee arising from unauthorized access or the introduction of a bug or virus, unless caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Host. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Host shall not be liable for any damage caused by Licensee or any employee or agent of Licensee. Licensee agrees that its use of the Hosting Services will be in compliance with applicable law and will not otherwise violate the terms of any applicable license. Licensee acknowledges that Skyward is not responsible for the security of Host's servers and will not be responsible to maintain any back-up copies of the content on Host's servers. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Skyward and Host shall not be liable for any damages to Licensee caused by unauthorized individuals who gain access to the Host's servers, unless caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of Skyward or Host. Licensee assumes all risk related to the processing of transactions related to electronic commerce.

5.2 Limited Warranty. Host warrants that the Hosting Services will be available 99.5% of the time during Operational Hours (as defined herein), except for service interruptions for routine maintenance and backups. For the purposes of this Agreement, “Operational Hours” are 7 days per week, 24 hours per day and 365 days per year. Regular maintenance and service activities are scheduled outside of Normal User Hours (as defined herein). For the purposes of this Agreement, the “Normal User Hours” are Monday through Friday from 7 A.M. to 5 P.M. central standard time excluding the following ISCorp observed holidays: New Years’ Day, Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday, President’s Day, Good Friday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day. In the event there is an interruption in the Hosting Services during Normal User Hours, Host will respond in 30 minutes or less of being notified of such an interruption in the Hosting Services. Host will use its best efforts to respond to any interruptions in the Hosting Services outside of Normal User Hours. Except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, Host makes no warranties of any kind with respect to the Hosting Services or products provided under this Agreement. Except as specifically set forth in this Agreement, Host DISCLAIMS ALL WARRANTIES, EXPRESS AND IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

5.3 Licensee’s Remedies. In any instance involving performance or nonperformance of the Hosting Services or products provided hereunder, Licensee’s sole and exclusive remedy shall be: (a) in the case of Hosting Services, refund or credit, at Licensee’s election, of a pro rata portion of the price paid for such Hosting Services which were not provided, or (b) in the case of products, repair, replacement or return of the defective product to Host for refund, at the option of Host. A credit for an interruption in the Hosting Services during the Normal User Hours will be issued only for periods, calculated in 15 minute increments, in excess of the 99.5% scheduled available up-time within a calendar month. A credit for an interruption in the Hosting Services during the Operational Hours, but outside of the Normal User Hours, will be issued only for periods, calculated in one hour increments, in excess of the 99.5% scheduled available up-time within a calendar month. An interruption in the Hosting Services is deemed to have occurred only if the Hosting Services have stopped or been severely impacted that they are unusable by Customer as a result of failure of Host facilities, equipment, or personnel used to provide the Hosting Services, and only where the interruption in the Hosting Services is not the result of: (i) negligence or other conduct of Licensee, its employees or agents, including a failure or malfunction resulting from applications or services provided by Licensee; (ii) failure or malfunction of any equipment or services not provided by Host; (iii) circumstances beyond the control of Host; or (iv) interruption due to scheduled maintenance, alteration, or implementation, provided that such scheduled event is provided in writing and in advance to Licensee. All claims for a credit must be submitted to Host in writing within 60 days of the date of such interruption in the Hosting Services.

5.4 Limitation of Liability. The liability of Skyward and Host to Licensee for any claim whatsoever related to this Agreement, including any cause of action arising in contract, tort, or strict liability, shall not exceed the total amount of all payments made under this Agreement by Licensee to Host with respect to the Hosting Services during the 365 days preceding the cause of action. IN NO EVENT WILL SKYWARD OR HOST BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOST REVENUE, PROFIT, OR DATA, OR FOR SPECIAL, INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES HOWEVER CAUSED AND REGARDLESS OF THE THEORY OF LIABILITY ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE HOSTING SERVICES EVEN IF SKYWARD OR HOST HAS BEEN ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES. Skyward and Host shall not be held liable for any claims or demands brought against Licensee by any other party unless Licensee has properly notified Skyward and Host as to such damages, claims, or demands, and Licensee has taken action to minimize such damages, claims, or demands.

6.0 Term and Termination. The term of this Agreement shall run concurrent with the term of the License Agreement. In the event the License Agreement is terminated for any reason, this Agreement shall automatically terminate as of the date of such termination without further notice. In addition to the foregoing, any party may terminate this Agreement in the event another party fails to perform any material obligation under this Agreement and such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice of such failure. In the event of the termination of this Agreement for any reason, all of Licensee’s rights and privileges under this Agreement, including but not limited to Licensee’s rights to access and use the Hosting Services shall be immediately terminated.

7.0 Interpretation and Construction.

7.1 Entire Agreement. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Wisconsin, without regard to any conflict of laws provisions or rules of construction concerning the draftsmanship hereof. This Agreement contains the entire understanding and full and complete agreement of the parties, and supersedes and replaces any prior understandings and agreements among the parties, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be altered, amended or modified only in writing, signed by both of the parties hereto. Headings included in this Agreement are for convenience only and are not intended to limit or expand the rights of the parties hereto. References to Sections herein shall mean sections of the text of this Agreement, unless otherwise indicated.

7.2 Assignment. No party may, voluntarily or involuntarily, assign or otherwise transfer this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other parties. Any attempted assignment or delegation without prior written consent will be null and void. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the transfer of all or substantially all of Skyward or Host’s capital stock or assets to a third party through a sale, merger or other transaction or proceeding shall not be deemed an assignment under the terms and conditions of this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding on the parties and their respective successors, affiliates, legal representatives and permitted assigns.

7.3 Severability. If any court of competent jurisdiction determines that any provision of this Agreement is invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall have no effect on the other provisions hereof, which shall remain valid, binding and enforceable and in full force and effect, and such invalid or unenforceable provision shall be construed in a manner so as to give the maximum valid and enforceable effect of the intent of the parties expressed herein.

7.4 Waiver. No waiver of a breach of any term of this Agreement will be effective unless in writing and duly executed by the waiving party. No such waiver will constitute a waiver of any subsequent breach of the same or any other term of this Agreement. No failure on the part of a party to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any of its rights hereunder will operate as a waiver thereof, nor will any single or partial exercise by a party of any right preclude any other exercise by a party of any right preclude any other or future exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right. No course of dealing between the parties will be deemed effective to modify, amend or discharge any part of this Agreement or the rights or obligations of any party hereunder.

7.5 Force Majeure. Except for the obligation to make payments, the parties will not be liable for any failure or delay in their performance under this Agreement due to any cause beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to, acts of war, acts of God, acts of terrorism, earthquake, flood, embargo, riot, sabotage, labor shortage or dispute, governmental act, provided that the delayed party: (a) gives the other party prompt notice of such cause, and (b) uses commercially reasonable efforts to promptly correct such failure or delay in performance.

7.6 Notices. Any notice required or permitted to be given pursuant to this Agreement shall be valid only if in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given (a) when personally delivered, (b) when transmitted by fax if confirmation of receipt is printed out on the sending fax machine, or (c) three business days after being mailed by certified mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the party receiving notice at the address listed in the opening paragraph of this Agreement, unless that party otherwise notifies the parties in accordance with this Section of a change of address.

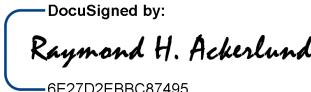

7.7 Survival. Any provisions of this Agreement, including but not limited to Section 3.0, 5.4, this Section 7.7, which by their very nature are intended to survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement will survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement and will inure to the benefit of and be binding upon the parties hereto.

7.8 Counterparts and Signatures. The undersigned warrant and represent that they have the legal authority to execute and deliver this Agreement on behalf of the parties hereto. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which when so executed will be deemed to be an original and all of which when taken together will constitute one Agreement. The parties agree that original signatures of a party transmitted by facsimile or in portable document format (pdf) or electronic signatures affixed to this Agreement shall be as valid as an original signature of such party to this Agreement. If this document is executed by electronic signature, both parties agree that their electronic signature is legally binding and shall have the same validity and meaning as a handwritten signature and neither party will contest the validity of their respective electronic signature, or claim that it is not legally binding.

The undersigned, being duly authorized representatives of the parties to this Agreement, do hereby agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Implementation and TrainingProject Management

This is going to be a significant project, and you need a professional to manage it. Skyward's project management team will facilitate the flow of information to make your implementation a success. We are heavily versed in project management best practices and apply these in conjunction with our unique industry expertise for a smooth transition.

Training

Unlike many of the one-size-fits-all training programs prevalent in our industry, Skyward delivers web and onsite sessions tailored to your best practices. We layer an initial level of consulting with your leadership team to define short- and long-term goals. We understand the comfort level of your staff is a strong indicator of long-term success, which is why these trainings are supplemented with our self-paced Professional Development Center. Skyward's training model will provide a robust plan designed to fully train your staff without the need for purchasing additional hours. By utilizing Skyward's proven methods, you are setting your team up for a successful implementation.

- ¹ Skyward's Professional Development Center (PDC) is included on this proposal. The PDC is a self-paced learning center to assist in training all staff. It includes online tutorials, simulations, and testing options. Your entire staff will have unlimited access to Skyward's on-line library and training materials for select modules.
- ² This module has not been released for distribution. Upon release, your district will receive full access to this module.
- ³ All data must be provided in an ASCII, SQL Database or Excel format. Any other format will result in additional charges based on programming estimates at then-current rate per hour. In some instances it is not possible to identify the fields required for the data migration. If this occurs, Skyward will not be responsible for manual data entry of these fields under the data migration agreement. Field and record layouts will be provided by customer, if needed.
- ⁴ Account Balancing Clarification
Skyward software requires that an account's ending balance for the quarter or year be equal to the opening balance for the next quarter or year. This is an accepted accounting principal and if your data does not meet that requirement Skyward will attempt to determine the discrepancy and if the discrepancy cannot be determined in a timely manner, Skyward will make an offsetting entry to fulfill the requirement. Skyward will clearly identify which account was adjusted and how the adjustment was accomplished. The customer may conduct further research and make a journal entry to eliminate the offsetting entry if desired.
- ⁵ This proposal includes data migrations outside of the Skyward recommended data migrations. Skyward staff will determine the timeline for delivery.
- ⁶ Third-party product licenses may be subject to an annual increase.
Skyward requires an SSL (Secure Socket Layer) certificate to run any web-based applications.
Skyward's IT Services can provide you more information including cost and installation of an SSL certificate.
- ⁷ Secure Cloud Computing (SCC) Setup Assistance
SCC Compliancy Testing.
Installation/Setup Service.

Training Footnotes

Skyward consultation and training is sold as a number of days and web hours identified on the proposal. The number of days and hours sold is an estimate of customer needs based on a combination of preliminary information gathered from the customer prior to the sale and Skyward's past training experience. It will be at the discretion of the Skyward and Customer Project Managers to use the days and web hours in a manner that best suits the customer. Any time spent by Skyward consultants for preparation, follow up, and the creation of training materials or other deliverables is also considered billable and will be deducted from this consulting time at the consulting rate. The customer can purchase additional consulting hours if more consulting time is needed.

Skyward On-Site Training Policy. A maximum of 10 people may attend each on-site day unless otherwise noted in this proposal. Should more people attend the training over the numbers stated, the customer will be charged an additional $200 for each person.

Web training allows Skyward to remotely present, discuss, and review our product directly with you. This application utilizes the Internet and is conducted live between your staff (at their own workstation) and a Skyward service representative without the need for them to travel to your location, providing you with a lower cost of training and/or implementation along with greater flexibility of your installation timeline.

Finance setup day included for verification of previously installed conversion data in preparation for live processing. This includes but is not limited to security setup, default parameter settings in the software, verification of printing capabilities, verification of conversion totals on financial reports (balance sheet, revenue and expense, payroll history totals, etc.), verification of code table setup, and random verification of data records in each module converted. Skyward will assist the customer in working through these items so that the customer can verify the accuracy of information before processing begins.

Third Party Financing Options

Skyward is committed to providing you with cost effective options to budget for your School Management System. Many of our clients have a favorable history working with Providence Capital Network (www.ProvidenceCN.com). Their roots extend back over 30 years providing lease financing to the education market. They are members of many state ASBO organizations including WASBO and IASBO and frequently present at industry conferences as recognized experts.

Lease financing is a popular method to pay for software projects by spreading the initial cost over a multi-year period and it generally does not require voter approval. It can also be very cost effective given the strong credit ratings of most school districts.

Benefits of Lease Financing

- Simple process: apply with a one page application
- Easy to budget: evenly spread the cost over 3 years or more
- Experienced: more than 100 schools have benefited
- Affordable rates: competitive pricing for monthly and annual payments

Next Step

- Call 800-680-0560 to evaluate if lease financing is best suited for you.
