Bottom of Form

Background Information:

The TCOLE Annual Racial Profiling Report is a mandatory report required by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE) under Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Article 2.134. It ensures transparency and accountability in policing by requiring law enforcement agencies to report demographic data on traffic stops and interactions with the public. The purpose is to identify and address potential racial or ethnic profiling practices.

Fiscal Implications:

There will be no fiscal implications for this 2024-2025 budget year.

Administrative Recommendation:

The Chief of Police recommends the Board review the presented documentation for the 2024 Annual Racial Profiling Report.
