

AWSYC Head Start 2023-2024 Monthly Compliance Reports

December 12, 2023

SUMMARY:

This item requests approval of the monthly Head Start compliance reports including the September, October and Monthly Program Information Report, Enrollment and Attendance, Meal Count/Volunteer Hours and Financials

BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

The Head Start Program has been funded by the Federal Head Start Grant. Head Start Policy requires the District Head Start Policy Council to serve as the Head Start governing body. The Policy Council meets routinely to review and discuss the information provided in this consent agenda item.

PREVIOUS BOARD ACTION:

None

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

None

FISCAL IMPLICATIONS:

Routine monitoring of these reports is a requirement of the Head Start Grant.

BENEFIT OF ACTION:

Board Consent of these compliance reports documents the Head Start Policy Council's review of the Head Start Compliance requirements.

PROCEDURAL AND REPORTING IMPLICATIONS:

The Head Start Program aims to develop parent-school-community partnerships. As parents serve on the Policy Council, they take an active role in collaborating, communicating and decision-making as it relates to their child's education. The Policy Council's review and discussion of the compliance reports demonstrates active involvement in Denton ISD's Head Start Program.
