

Take a Picture. It'll Last Longer!

On Thursday and Friday, TASB staff members will be snapping photos. If you would like a photo taken of you and your leadership team members at work during the conference, look for the TASB Photo Shoot staff members.

These photos and a news release will be available online after the conference.

Let everyone in your community know what serving on the school board is all about, and show them what you are doing to learn more about public education and leadership to benefit the schoolchildren in your area.

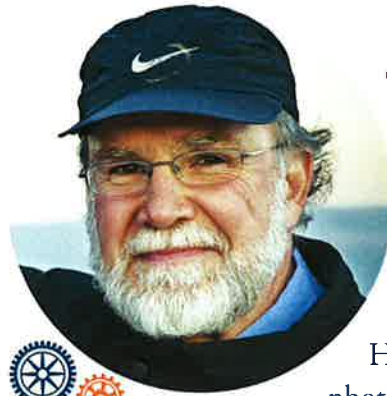

Lexington ISD Leadership Team

Lance Davis, Board Member, Bonham ISD

"SLI is a unique learning experience for board members at any tenure of service. It is a great complement to Convention because you have focused learning and networking opportunities. I choose at least one SLI event each year."

General Session Speakers

Thursday

Steve Uzzell

Photographer, speaker, best-selling author

Having started in the photography business over 40 years ago as assistant to the editor of National Geographic magazine and a member of their photographic staff, Steve Uzzell has continued his love of making images for national and international clients.
