Expressed appreciation for Ms. Powell attending a Head-Start meeting on her behalf . Enjoyed Soup with the Supt where our Superintendent takes time to interact with each student that has been recognized by their Principal and highlights how each one is leading out in their schools.

Student Body Officer Reports:

Woods Cross High School Student-Body Officers

Mr. Jarrett Colman & Miss Macie Green

The Woods Cross High School motto is “Everybody is Somebody”. The main goal is for everyone to feel loved, welcomed and happy. Woods Cross High has won a couple of State Championships and Macie expressed appreciation for those that attended the games in support of their friends and fellow students . There has been an increase in the attendance of Theater performances, due to more announcements and notifications. Thankful to teachers, faculty and administration, who make sure students know they are cared about. Jarrett spoke about “Wild Cat Wishes” at Woods Cross which is like Sub for Santa.

Superintendent Report:

Dr. Dan Linford, Superintendent

Woods Cross High School motto of ‘Everybody is Somebody’ is a tradition that has been around for a long time and is very special.

Dr. Linford spoke about “focusing on durable skills” and defined what that means in our regular coursework at schools as well as in CTE. We want to teach our students skills that transcend AI.
