

DHS/LAW ENFORCEMENT PROTOCOL FOR INVESTIGATION OF A CHILD

JHFE/KN-AR (2)

Any investigation of abuse of a child will be directed by the Oregon Department of Human Services or law enforcement officials as required by law. When an administrator is notified that the Department of Human Services or law enforcement would like to interview a student at school, the administrator must request that the investigating official provide the information below. Failure to meet one of the five criteria may result in the administrator’s refusal to allow the student interview on district property.

- 1. Do you have parental consent?

If “YES”, retrieve the child; If “NO”, ask if we can contact the parent for consent. If they say “NO”, go to #2

Parent or guardian’s name: _____ Date of consent: _____

- 2. Do you have a court order or warrant allowing the contact? – Attach copy

If “YES”, retrieve the child; If “NO”, go to #3

- 3. Ask the caseworker/law enforcement officer if they have exigent circumstances. (An exigent circumstance is a situation that requires law enforcement to act swiftly to prevent danger to the life or serious damage to the property, or to forestall a suspect’s escape, or the destruction of evidence.)

If “YES”, retrieve the child; If “NO”, and DHS is without law enforcement - DHS needs to have law enforcement present.

- 4. This interview is not considered a “seizure” pursuant to state and federal law.

If law enforcement is present ask them if they are directing you to retrieve the child without contacting the parents for consent.

If “YES”, retrieve the child; If “NO” then we contact the parents and obtain consent, or decline to allow the interview at school.
