Dear Browning School District #9 and Board Members,

It is with a heavy heart that I tenure my resignation. I've taught in this district for five years and have had countless wonderful experiences with our middle school students. I'd officially like to thank my principal, Ms. Julie Hayes for her excellent leadership these past years. Without her direction and educational freedoms she affords her teachers, I wouldn't have grown as a teacher as much as I have.

I will miss our students and my coworkers dearly, but for now it's time for my family to move on. I appreciate the opportunity of working in this district and wish everyone well!

Thank you,

Johanna Johnson (Hellman)
