Regular Agenda

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

In compliance with the Texas Education Code Title II, Subchapter D, Section 11.1511, the District Performance Goals and Objectives are hereby presented to the Board. Each school year the Board of Trustees is required to review the performance goals and objectives for the district, and campuses that are contained within the district. The Board of Trustees shall annually approve district and campus performance objectives and ensure that all performance objectives are mutually supportive and consistent with state goals and objectives. The Administration recommends that the Board approves the submission of the performance goals and objectives presented for the district and each individual campus.
