CCC Board of Education – Topic Summary
Topic:	New Program: Emergency Management Professional Certificate of Completion
Date:	June 25, 2025
Presenter:	Ashley Sears, Interim Dean of Institutional Effectiveness and Planning
Division/Department:	Institutional Effectiveness and Planning
RECOMMENDATION:	Approve the new Emergency Management Professional Certificate of Completion

REASON FOR BOARD CONSIDERATION:

Board review is required for offerings that are submitted to the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU) for approval.

BACKGROUND:

The Emergency Management Professional certificate is a related one-year certificate that is fully imbedded in the Emergency Management Professional AAS. This program can work with, be a benefit to and benefit from programs under our Wildland Fire and GIS programs. From partners and advisory board members and meetings it has become clear that Emergency Management positions are in demand within local, state and federal agencies and local business of a certain size.

BUDGET IMPACT/SOURCE OF FUNDS:

Current student services can support the Emergency Management Professional Certificate of Completion. Facilities currently support our students and will continue to do so.
