Teacher Responses:

What was the most useful information you learned in today's workshop?

"Goalbook looks like it is going to save me a lot of time looking for resources to"

"I loved seeing how it shows the phrasing of the IEP/goals, and which standards and strategies. It helps me to be more honed in on what and how to teach my students."

"Everything, I feel like I have a lot less to do now!"

"I learned how to use the Present Level Wizard, Learning Goal Wizard, and the Strategy Wizard to create present level statements and to set goals and strategies. The extra amenities such as the resources they provide for in class instruction I find very helpful."

"Having the video beforehand helped because there is so much information. Seeing how the standards are reflected"

"How versatile the tool is"

"The social, emotional and behavioral aspect of writing goals."

"Just finding all the things that can help write better iep's"

"I liked how the strategies bank and how to link our IEP's to the standards."

"Save to library and how to share link with other teachers."

Are there any other topics which you would want us to cover in more depth?

"N/A Most in-depth learning I have in how to develop better IEP PLAAFS/GOALS. Thanks!"

"I feel this is enough to explore and use what I learned today until I do have further questions."

"Students that are below Pre-K"

"For my non verbal students pecs system"

"I would have to use the program for a while to know which topics I would need."

Do you have any questions about today's presentation?

"At the moment, not yet. I think I will need to explore and then, as things come up, then I can ask questions."

"No, it nailed everything I need to be proficient at my job as a teacher. Thank you:)"

"Can I create a rubric for a goal?"
