Cassie's Corner...

Winter Activities for Students and Families

Create a Kindness Challenge

Think of a way your household can show kindness to each other this week. How can you help each other or make the day better?

Write a Thank You Note

Think about a kind gesture someone did for you recently. Write them a thank you note to let them know how much you appreciated it.

Thankful Pictures

During the week, take pictures of things you're thankful for. Then combine them into a slideshow, collage, or other collection to revisit and add to.

Gratitude Jar

Decorate a gratitude jar. When you feel grateful, write or draw the reason on a paper and put it in the jar. Read the results each week.

Build a Tree of Thanks

Make a simple tree of thanks together, and bolster your family's gratitude practice—maybe even start a new family tradition.

Rose, Bloom, Thorn

Describe your day to a family member with one thing that fits each category: Include something positive (rose), something hopeful (bloom), and something challenging (thorn). Take turns sharing

I hope you and your families have a pleasant and restful holiday season!
