Robert Miller,

I Nathan Stone will be resigning from Track coach effective immediately. With 18 credits and finals at the end of the month, and other events with doctors' appointments from my current health condition. My work-related trips, I' am not sure that I can fully dedicate my time for practice every day after school. I know that the pole vault pit and poles have been ordered and I was looking forward with more focusing on working with these individual athletes.

So, with that being said I will volunteer my time Tuesdays and Thursdays to work with pole vaulters when the equipment arrives. If I need to attend a track meet to coach them to pole vault, I will dedicate my time there as well.

Thanks,
Nathan Stone
