Background Information:

As part of the Texas COVID Learning Acceleration Supports (TCLAS) grant awards, Manor ISD was provided funding to hire two positions. The Additional Days School Year (ADSY) Program Manager was awarded as part of Decision Point 8: Strong Summer Program. This position is funded for the next three years and ends at the end of summer 2024. The Program Manager will be responsible for working alongside Manor ISD's Technical Assistance Partner, FourPoint Education, to design and implement, develop academic and enrichment curriculum, and organize operations for the successful implementation of our summer programming.

The Resilient Schools Support Program (RSSP) Data Fellow was awarded as part of Decision Point 1: Strategic Planning Support. The position is funded for the next three years and ends at the end of the 2023-2024 school year. The Data Fellow will be responsible for building, maintaining, and reporting out through our district's data dashboard. The data reported will be aligned to our TCLAS work.

Fiscal Implications:

- Additional Days School Year (ADSY) Program Manager-Manor ISD was awarded $187,500 over the next three years at no cost to the district.
- Resilient Schools Support Program (RSSP) Data Fellow-Manor ISD was awarded $312,500 over the next three years at no cost to the district.
