(LOCAL) Policy Comparison Packet

Each marked-up (LOCAL) policy in this collection reflects an automated comparison of the updated policy with its precursor, as found in the TASB Policy Service records.

The comparison is generated by an automated process that shows changes as follows.

- Deletions are shown in a red strike-through font: deleted text.
- Additions are shown in a blue, bold font: new text.
- Blocks of text that have been moved without alteration are shown in green, with double underline and double strike-through formatting to distinguish the text's destination from its origin: moved text becomes moved text.
- Revision bars appear in the right margin, as above.

While the annotation software competently identifies simple changes, large or complicated changes—as in an extensive rewrite—may be more difficult to follow.

For further assistance in understanding changes, please refer to the explanatory notes in your Localized Policy Manual update packet or contact your policy consultant.

DATING VIOLENCE	Dating violence occurs when a personone partner in a current or past dating relationship, either past or current, intentionally uses physical, sexual, verbal, or emotional abuse to harm, threaten, in- timidate, or control the other person in the relationship. Dating violence also occurs when a person commits these acts against a person in a marriage or dating relationship with the individual who is or was once in a marriage or dating relation- ship with the person committing the offensepartner.
EXAMPLES	Examples of dating violence against a student may include physi- cal or sexual assaults, name-calling, put-downs, threats to hurt the student or the student's family members or members of the stu- dent's household, destroying property belonging to the student, threats to commit suicide or homicide if the student ends the rela- tionship, attempts to isolate the student from friends and family, stalking, or encouraging others to engage in these behaviors.
	For purposes of this policy, dating violence is considered prohibited harassment if the conduct is so severe, persistent, or pervasive that the conduct:
	<ol> <li>Affects a student's ability to participate in or benefit from an educational program or activity, or creates an intimidating, threatening, hostile, or offensive educational environment;</li> </ol>
	<ol> <li>Has the purpose or effect of substantially or unreasonably in- terfering with the student's academic performance; or</li> </ol>
	<ol> <li>Otherwise adversely affects the student's educational oppor- tunities.</li> </ol>
EXAMPLES	Examples of dating violence against a student may include physical or sexual assaults; name-calling; put-downs; or threats directed at the student, the student's family members, or members of the student's household. Additional examples may include destroying property belonging to the student, threatening to commit suicide or homicide if the student ends the relationship, attempting to isolate the student from friends and family, stalking, threatening a student's spouse or current dating partner, or encouraging others to engage in these be- haviors.
RETALIATION	The District prohibits retaliation against a student alleged to have experienced discrimination or harassment, including dating vi- olence, or another student who, in good faith, makes a report, serves as a witness, or otherwise participates in an investigation.
