Math

Mrs. Wysong, Mr. Metzger, and I met last week to plan out how we are going to review math textbook series for K-5. We are trying to narrow down our list of textbooks to a manageable amount. Our goal is to start having staff review them in the Fall, with the hope of selecting a new series by next Spring.

State Testing Results

Here are the dates for when we will get State Testing Results back. These will be preliminary, and can't be shared publicly until October.
