Re: Item to add to March 6th Board Meeting Agenda

I respectfully would like to request the following item to be added to the March 6th Board Meeting Agenda. Our students Fernanda Gonzalez and Edwin Olvera have reached a nationally recognized distinction as National Hispanic Merit Scholars.

College Board's mission to help students take advantage of the opportunities they have earned, each year the National Hispanic Recognition Program (NHRP) recognizes about 5,000 academically outstanding high school students from the more than 400,000 Hispanic and Latino juniors who take the PSAT/NMSQT®.

Thank you for allowing us to recognize our students and their families.

National Hispanic Recognition Program

In keeping with the College Board's mission to help students take advantage of the opportunities they have earned, each year the National Hispanic Recognition Program (NHRP) recognizes about 5,000 academically outstanding high school students from the more than 400,000 Hispanic and Latino juniors who take the PSAT/NMSQT®.

From Eagle Pass High School:

Fernanda Gonzalez and Edwin Olvera have achieved this nationally recognized distinction.
