

Proclaiming Friday, November 21, 2025

Vickie Wright Day

WHEREAS, Vickie Wright has been named the 2026 Texas Teacher of the Year, a prestigious honor that recognizes her extraordinary dedication, innovation, and impact as an educator in the state of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wright is a compassionate, creative, and accomplished National Board-Certified educator with 14 years of experience across multiple grade levels, holding a Bachelor of Arts in Education and a Master of Education in Reading from Benedictine University, as well as an Education Specialist certificate in Educational Leadership from Concordia University Chicago; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wright exemplifies the spirit of lifelong learning, continuously pursuing professional growth through formal education and ongoing development, and inspiring others to do the same; and

WHEREAS, in her roles as a 5th Grade English Language Arts teacher, Grade Level Instructional Coach, and Team Lead at McWhirter Elementary School in Webster, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Wright supports more than 50 educators annually through the rigorous National Board Certification process, offering guidance in differentiated instruction, professional learning communities, and student-centered learning.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Clear Creek Independent School District Board of Trustees does hereby proclaim Friday, November 21, 2025, as Vickie Wright Day in honor of her remarkable achievements, unwavering dedication, and lasting contributions to education. And on this day, CCISD will honor Ms. Wright with a community parade at 1:45 p.m. where the public is encouraged to attend McWhirter Elementary.

Jonathan Cottrell, President, CCISD Board of Trustees

Karen Engle, Ed.D., Superintendent, Clear Creek ISD