Agenda Item: Terrell ISD Head-Start 2019-2020 Self-Assessment Summary Report

Summary:

Annually, the National Head Start Association (), require charters to conduct a self-assessment of the nine program areas to identify any concerns, strengths, and/or non-compliance. This requirement is in accordance with paragraphs 45CFR 1304.51 (i), 134.50(d)(1)(viii) and 1302.102 (b) (2) of the Head Start Performance Standards. The self-assessment was conducted in the Spring of the current school year.

The program wide 2019-2020 self-assessment demonstrated that the TISD Head Start Program has met all compliance requirements and program strengths were noted in several areas. It is our sincere effort to provide services to students and families. The staff and management team will continuously attempt to develop innovative approaches to strengthen the TISD Head Start program.
