3rd year of implementation

A joyful Kelly Lane
tradition

Celebrate “National Children’s Book Week” in November and “Get Caught Reading” in May!

Volunteers receive a letter and 2 labels

For the love of reading

To begin the celebration, Mrs. Bava reads to the students. Then the children share a snack and juice. Lastly, there is a countdown to unwrap their new books! Squealing ensues!

Promoting literacy from the start

By giving kindergarteners their own new books, we are laying the foundation for a love of reading that will last a lifetime.

Community Involvement

Community members have the opportunity to directly contribute to the development of our youngest learners by purchasing books that enrich our students' lives.

Thank you notes

In the fall, kindergarten students may copy their teacher's words or sound out a short sentence.

In the spring, the budding readers and writers are able to write sentences of appreciation to their adult Book Buddy.
