Good Things at PJHS

- PJHS ended the 2nd Quarter celebrating student success. Students who had outstanding attendance, behavior, and academics were treated to a movie, popcorn, and snacks.
  - 66 students reached VIP status - these students met all three qualifications
  - 89 students reached Elite status - these students met two of the three qualifications
  - 56 students reached General status - these students met one of the three qualifications
- PJHS had eight students that were invited to participate in the Young Artist Showcase 2023 Art Show. Their work is currently being displayed at the Anne Lloyd Gallery inside of the Madden Arts Center in Decatur. PJHS Students - Young Artist Showcase 2023
- 2nd Quarter Honor Roll
  - 32 students earned Exceptional Honor Roll status and 67 students earned Honor Roll status
- Winter MAP Data
  - In ELA, school-wide, we saw an average growth of 63%.
  - In math, school-wide, we saw an average growth of 72%.
  - We celebrated students who showed growth or scored at grade level on the MAP assessment. We drew 30 names for each assessment and students were able to win a variety of prizes! The students had a blast and some of them walked away with some awesome prizes!

Extra-Curricular Activities

- Boys basketball is coming to a close as 7th grade regionals are taking place this week and 8th grade regionals start next week. PJHS is hosting both 7th and 8th grade regionals this year along with the 7th grade sectional game.

- Volleyball has officially started for 6th-8th grade girls. PJHS will be hosting an 8th grade tournament next weekend.
