

Capitalization Threshold

Assets with an acquisition cost of more than $10,000 and an estimated useful life in excess of one year shall be recorded as capital assets.

The Superintendent shall determine the capitalization threshold for a group of assets, the individual cost of which does not exceed the capitalization threshold above but for which the cost in the aggregate is significant.