TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 92

District: United ISD

D (LEGAL) PERSONNEL

The D section table of contents has been revised to reflect the renaming of policy code DEA, now titled Wage and Hour Laws, and the addition of DEAB, Salaries and Wages. Three other new codes have been added in the DFF series that address reduction in force due to financial exigency (DFFA), as a result of program change (DFFB), and for continuing contracts (DFFC).

DEA (LEGAL) COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS
WAGE AND HOUR LAWS

Update 92 includes reorganization of the DEA policy series addressing compensation and benefits. Content on the Fair Labor Standards Act will remain at DEA. General content on salaries and wages has been moved to DEAB, Salaries and Wages.

The reorganization also resulted in the following changes to this policy:

- Deletion of several expired or repealed provisions, including provisions addressing salaries for the 2009–10 and 2010–11 school years.
- Deletion of provisions on the allotment of funds for support staff health-care supplements, since this one-time pay mandate, which is still in law, has been incorporated into pay practices.
- Revision of the margin note addressing breaks for employees to express breast milk to BREAKS FOR NURSING MOTHERS to better reflect the statutory provisions.
- Addition of an existing statutory provision on the PAYDAY LAW EXEMPTION for school districts. See page 5.

DEAB (LEGAL) COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS
SALARIES AND WAGES

DEAB includes several provisions moved from DEA without revision: minimum salary schedule, employees formerly on career ladder, pay increases, designation of compensation for benefits, TRS contributions and surcharges, and the earned income tax credit.

On page 4, new material has been added from a 2009 commissioner of education decision addressing a district's authority for DECREASING PAY of an educator. A reduction is permissible if the district gives formal and specific warning to the educator of the salary reduction when the educator still has the opportunity to unilaterally resign from his or her contract.

New provisions have also been added from SB 8 (First Called Session, 82nd Legislative Session) addressing salary reductions and furloughs. When a district implements WIDESPREAD SALARY REDUCTIONS for teachers based on district financial conditions, the district must also reduce the salaries of administrators or other professional employees in a proportionate amount.

Explanatory Notes

TASB Localized Policy Manual Update 92

Districts also now have the option of implementing a FURLOUGH PROGRAM in accordance with the statutory requirements and district policy. The district may reduce the number of days of service required by up to six days if the commissioner certifies that the district will receive less state and local funding for the year than was provided to the district during the 2010–11 school year. The commissioner must certify a decrease in FUNDING LEVELS by July 1 of each year. A new recommended local policy provision at DFFA provides authorization for the district to pursue a furlough. See the explanatory note for DFFA(LOCAL), below. A board's decision to implement a furlough is not subject to appeal.

For either a widespread reduction in salaries or a furlough, the district must also follow a specific process outlined in statute to implement the programs. The SALARY REDUCTION/FURLOUGH PROCESS requires the district to include the involvement of the district's professional staff in development of the program and to give district employees an opportunity to comment at a public meeting. At the PUBLIC MEETING, the district must provide information about:

- The options the district considered for managing the district's financial resources,
- How the program will limit the number of staff who will lose their jobs, and
- The district's local option of providing a residence homestead exemption.

DFF (LEGAL) TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT REDUCTION IN FORCE

This new legally referenced policy on reduction in force (RIF) includes existing commissioner of education decisions and statutory provisions, as well as new provisions from SB 8:

- The commissioner's decision in Stidham v. Anahuac Independent School District explains that the general BOARD AUTHORITY to govern the district includes making responsible choices in managing the finances and personnel of the district. Wasserman v. Nederland Independent School District, another commissioner's decision, clarifies that a district is free to change its organizational structure to increase efficiency.
- The commissioner's decision in Amerson v. Houston Independent School District outlines when an employee whose position was eliminated due to a RIF must be given CONSIDERATION FOR OPEN POSITIONS.
- Specific provisions on each type of contract describe when and under what circumstances an employee may be discharged and the board's options for the type of hearing to provide if requested by the employee.
- Repeated from CEA(LEGAL) is the requirement for a board to adopt a resolution declaring a FINANCIAL EXIGENCY. Also at this margin note is a provision explaining that the board can decide whether to use the independent hearing examiner process for terminations based on financial exigency.
- A provision from the federal WARN ACT clarifies that a school district is not subject to the Act's notice requirements for mass layoffs.

Please Note: This manual does not have policies in all codes. The coding structure is common to all TASB manuals and is designed to accommodate expansion of both (LEGAL) and (LOCAL) policy topics and administrative regulations.

MINIMUM WAGE AND OVERTIME

Unless an exemption applies, the District shall pay each of its employees not less than minimum wage for all hours worked. 29 U.S.C. 206(a)(1)

Unless an exemption applies, the District shall pay an employee not less than one and one-half times the employee's regular rate of pay for all hours worked in excess of forty in any workweek. 29 U.S.C. 207(a)(1); 29 CFR pt. 778

BREAKS FOR NONEXEMPT
EMPLOYEES

Rest periods of up to 20 minutes must be counted as hours worked. Coffee breaks or time for snacks are rest periods, not meal periods. 29 CFR 785.18

Bona fide meal periods of 30 minutes or more are not counted as hours worked if the employee is completely relieved from duty. The employee is not relieved from duty if the employee is required to perform any duties, whether active or inactive, while eating. For example, an office employee who is required to eat at his or her desk is working while eating. It is not necessary that an employee be permitted to leave the premises if the employee is otherwise completely freed from duties during the meal period. 29 CFR 785.19

NURSING MOTHERS

The District shall provide a nonexempt employee a reasonable break to express breast milk, each time the employee needs to express breast milk for her nursing child, for one year after the child's birth. The District shall provide a place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from coworkers and the public, which may be used by an employee to express breast milk.

The District is not required to compensate the employee receiving reasonable break time for any work time spent for such purpose.

A district that employs fewer than 50 employees is not subject to these requirements if the requirements would impose an undue hardship by causing the District significant difficulty or expense when considered in relation to the size, financial resources, nature, or structure of the District.

29 U.S.C. 207(r)

COMPENSATORY
TIME
ACCRUAL

Nonexempt employees may receive, in lieu of overtime compensation, compensatory time off at a rate of not less than one and one-half hours for each hour of overtime work, pursuant to an agreement or understanding arrived at between the employer and employee before the performance of the work. Such agreement or understanding may be informal, such as when an employee works overtime knowing that the employer rewards overtime with compensatory time.

	An employee may accrue not more than 240 hours of compensatory time. If the employee's overtime work included a public safety activity, an emergency response activity, or a seasonal activity, the employee may accrue not more than 480 hours of compensatory time. After the employee has reached these limits, the employee shall be paid overtime compensation for additional overtime work.
PAYMENT FOR ACCRUED TIME	Compensation paid to an employee for accrued compensatory time shall be paid at the regular rate earned by the employee at the time of payment. An employee who has accrued compensatory time off shall be paid for any unused compensatory time upon separation from employment at the rates set forth at 29 U.S.C. 207(o)(4).
USE	An employee who has requested the use of compensatory time shall be permitted to use such time within a reasonable period after making the request if the use of the compensatory time does not unduly disrupt the operations of the District. The Fair Labor Standards Act does not prohibit the District from compelling the use of accrued compensatory time. 29 U.S.C. 207(o); Christensen v. EXEMPT EMPLOYEES	The minimum wage and overtime provisions do not apply to any employee employed in a bona fide executive, administrative, or professional capacity. 29 U.S.C. 213(a)(1)
ACADEMIC ADMINISTRATORS	The term "employee employed in a bona fide administrative capacity" includes an employee: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Compensated for services on a salary or fee basis at a rate of not less than $455 per week exclusive of board, lodging, or other facilities, or on a salary basis that is at least equal to the entrance salary for teachers in the District by which employed; and2. Whose primary duty is performing administrative functions directly related to academic instruction or training in the District or department or subdivision thereof. "Performing administrative functions directly related to academic instruction or training" means work related to the academic operations and functions in a school rather than to administration along the lines of general business operations. Such academic administrative functions include operations directly in the field of education. Jobs relating to areas outside the educational field are not within the definition of academic administration.

Employees engaged in academic administrative functions include:

1. The Superintendent or other head of an elementary or secondary school system, and any assistants, responsible for administration of such matters as curriculum, quality and methods of instructing, measuring and testing the learning potential and achievement of students, establishing and maintaining academic and grading standards, and other aspects of the teaching program;
2. The principal and any vice principals responsible for the operation of an elementary or secondary school;
3. Academic counselors who perform work such as administering school testing programs, assisting students with academic problems and advising students concerning degree requirements; and
4. Other employees with similar responsibilities.

Jobs relating to building management and maintenance, jobs relating to the health of the students, and academic staff such as social workers, psychologists, lunch room managers, or dietitians do not perform academic administrative functions, although such employees may qualify for another exemption.

29 CFR 541.204

SALARY BASIS

To qualify as an exempt executive, administrative, or professional employee, the employee must be compensated on a salary basis, unless the employee is a teacher. Subject to the exceptions listed in the rule, an employee must receive the full salary for any week in which the employee performs any work, without regard to the number of days or hours worked. A district that makes improper deductions from salary shall lose the exemption if the facts demonstrate that the District did not intend to pay exempt employees on a salary basis. 29 CFR 541.600, .602(a), .603

PARTIAL-DAY
DEDUCTIONS

A District employee who otherwise meets the salary basis requirements shall not be disqualified from exemption on the basis that the employee is paid according to a pay system established by statute, ordinance, or regulation, or by a policy or practice established pursuant to principles of public accountability, under which the employee accrues personal leave and sick leave and which requires the employee's pay to be reduced or the employee to be placed on leave without pay for absences for personal reasons or because of illness or injury of less than one workday when accrued leave is not used by an employee because:

1. Permission for its use has not been sought or has been sought and denied;
2. Accrued leave has been exhausted; or
3. The employee chooses to use leave without pay.

Deductions from the pay of a District employee for absences due to a budget-required furlough shall not disqualify the employee from being paid on a salary basis except in the workweek in which the furlough occurs and for which the employee's pay is accordingly reduced.

29 CFR 541.710

SAFE HARBOR POLICY

If the District has a clearly communicated policy that prohibits improper pay deductions and includes a complaint mechanism, reimburses employees for any improper deductions, and makes a good faith commitment to comply in the future, the District will not lose the deduction unless the District willfully violates the policy by continuing to make improper deductions after receiving employee complaints.

The best evidence of a clearly communicated policy is a written policy that was distributed to employees before the improper pay deductions by, for example, providing a copy of the policy to employees upon hire, publishing the policy in an employee handbook, or publishing the policy on the District's intranet.

29 CFR 541.603(d)

TEACHERS

The term "employee employed in a bona fide professional capacity" includes any employee with a primary duty of teaching, tutoring, instructing, or lecturing in the activity of imparting knowledge and who is employed and engaged in this activity as a teacher in an elementary or secondary school system by which the employee is employed. The salary basis requirements do not apply to teaching professionals.

Exempt teachers include:

1. Regular academic teachers;
2. Teachers of kindergarten or nursery school pupils;
3. Teachers of gifted or disabled children;
4. Teachers of skilled and semi-skilled trades and occupations;
5. Teachers engaged in automobile driving instruction;
6. Home economics teachers; and

7. Vocal or instrumental music instructors.

Those faculty members who are engaged as teachers but also spend a considerable amount of their time in extracurricular activities such as coaching athletic teams or acting as moderators or advisors in such areas as drama, speech, debate, or journalism are engaged in teaching. Such activities are a recognized part of the schools' responsibility in contributing to the educational development of the student.

The possession of an elementary or secondary teacher's certificate provides a clear means of identifying the individuals contemplated as being within the scope of the exemption for teaching professionals. Teachers who possess a teaching certificate qualify for the exemption regardless of the terminology (e.g., permanent, conditional, standard, provisional, temporary, emergency, or unlimited) used by the state to refer to different kinds of certificates. However, a teacher who is not certified may be considered for exemption, provided that such individual is employed as a teacher by the employing school or school system.

On a monthly basis, the District shall:

1. Certify to TRS the total amount of salary paid during the first 90 days of employment of a new member and the total amount of employer payments under this section for the payroll periods; and
2. Retain information, as determined by TRS, sufficient to allow administration of this section, including information for each employee showing the applicable salary as well as aggregate compensation for the first 90 days of employment for new employees.

The District must remit the amount required under this section to TRS at the same time the District remits the member's contribution. In computing the amount required to be remitted, the District shall include compensation paid to an employee for the entire pay period that contains the 90th calendar day of new employment.

If more than one employer reports the retiree to TRS during a month, the amount of the required payment shall be prorated among employers.

SALARIES

Notwithstanding Education Code 21.402 (minimum salary schedule), the Board may reduce the salary of an employee who is furloughed in proportion to the number of days by which service is reduced. Any reduction in the amount of the annual salary must be equally distributed over the course of the employee's current contract with the District.

FURLOUGH DAYS

A furlough program must subject all contract personnel to the same number of furlough days. An educator may not be furloughed on a day that is included in the number of days of instruction required under Education Code 25.081 [see EB]. Implementation of a fur-

The Board may not implement a furlough program under Education Code 21.4021 or reduce salaries until the District has complied with the requirements below.

EMPLOYEE
INVOLVEMENT

The District must use a process to develop a furlough program or other salary reduction proposal, as applicable, that:

1. Includes the involvement of the District's professional staff; and
2. Provides District employees with the opportunity to express opinions regarding the furlough program or salary reduction proposal, as applicable, at the public meeting described below.

PUBLIC MEETING

The Board must hold a public meeting at which the Board and District administration present:

1. Information regarding the options considered for managing the District's available resources, including consideration of a tax rate increase and use of the District's available fund balance;
2. An explanation of how the District intends, through implementation of a furlough program or salary reductions, as applicable, to limit the number of District employees who will be discharged or whose contracts will not be renewed. Any explanation of a furlough program must state the specific number of furlough days proposed to be required; and
3. Information regarding the local option residence homestead exemption.

The public and District employees must be provided with an opportunity to comment at the public meeting.
