Purpose: To examine student achievement and school improvement efforts through a lens of continuous improvement, shared accountability, and data-informed decision-making while providing updates on key learning and innovation focused district priorities and KPI initiatives.

Objectives:

1. Examine end-of-year student achievement data across math, literacy, and social-emotional-behavioral (SEB) indicators.
2. Highlight celebrations, challenges, and key strategies connected to School Improvement Plans (SIPs).
3. Provide updates on district Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) and implementation progress.

Agenda:

1. Welcome & Norms (5 minutes)
2. SIP Updates & Data Walk (45 minutes)
3. KPI Updates (75 min)
    a. KPI: By the end of the 2025-2026 school year, Huntley 158 will demonstrate a differentiated professional learning plan focused on student engagement within the Portrait of a Learning Environment, informed by UDL principles to ensure instructional practices support the success of all students.
    b. KPI: By the end of the 2025-2026 school year, school leadership teams will demonstrate increased alignment in instructional leadership as measured by establishing and piloting walkthrough “look fors” connected to high-quality instructional practices.
    c. KPI: By the end of the 2025-2026 school year, Huntley 158 will design a multiyear framework connected to the Portrait of a Learner to provide all students with a pathway that ensures readiness for post-secondary education and/or training, employment, and/or life skills in an ever-evolving global society.
4. Questions and Wrap Up (15 min)
