C. Prioritize of DPAC Topics of Interest from the 2022-2023 School Year

The cell phone concern from the last meeting regarding dead zones is still an issue, so this year, the district is spending money on school radios for better communication with staff and administrators.

Topics that the committee would like to talk about for the 2023-2024 School year:

- How schools can educate parents on Empower.
- Conversation around rigor and how schools are challenging high achieving students.
- Parent engagement at various academic levels and what that might look like.
- Educate parents on acronyms and how the schools are rated.

C. Progressive Discipline Plan

Mr. Brown asked members to review a district-level progressive discipline plan packet with the changes the state has made. Members broke into groups to discuss changes. There was some concern about Levels 1-4 in Secondary regarding inappropriate touching/contact and Inappropriate language. Some members felt those should be at all levels.
