Feedback from Students & Vendors

I enjoyed sharing insights about electrical engineering and helping students discover the exciting opportunities in the field. It was rewarding to inspire the next generation, answer their questions, and provide guidance on potential career paths. Seeing their enthusiasm and curiosity made the experience incredibly fulfilling! -Vendor Participant-

If I work in the medical field now they could help pay for my college. -Student-

I think that what I thought was most impactful for me was being able to talk to so many different people with different career paths and the things that could come out of many different paths. -Student-

I think I found my career -Student-
