Drones/UAV

Take STEM learning to new heights with cutting-edge, programmable drones and much more in this semester long Tech-Ed Class. The allure of UAVs (Unmanned Aerial Vehicles) attracts a diverse group of students to explore programming, electromechanical systems, and aerodynamics. Student's design, build, and program drones for aerial search and rescues, GPS-guided crop dusting, autonomous deliveries to remote locations, and other compelling industry-related challenges.

Students 9-12 are able to partake in this course

Mission

Granton Area School District believes that we will provide a high-quality education through a strong partnership with community and parents to instill a lifelong love of learning and success in our student’s future.

Strategic Objective

Educational Quality

Staff and Enrollment Retention

Co-curricular,
Student Activities and Youth Development

Promoting/ Marketing
Granton
Better School Spirit
Parental Involvement

Facilities and Finances

Our Goals

To fundamentally advance the way that we deliver education.

Build a reputation as a school of choice for students and staff who desire excellence in a community environment.

Increase participation in sports, clubs and activities among students and children of all ages.

Granton Area School District has pride in uniqueness, strength in community and excellence in education.

Commit to providing a well-rounded financial approach to supporting the facilities and the school community.

To provide skills needed for students to succeed in school and beyond.

Shine the light on Granton by sharing and promoting our pride and increase the visibility of our school.

Our Priorities - School Improvement Initiative

1. Identify an instructional model to best serve the Granton community and student body. (Year 1 - School year 2021-2022)

1. Survey families who open enroll in and open enroll out to identify reasons they enter or exit the district.

Conduct exit interviews with all employees that leave the district.

1. Survey students and parents to determine their interest in sports, clubs and activities and identify possible barriers to participation. Implement more camps and ways to start getting students involved.

1. Increase school spirit by making apparel more available. Use one bulldog logo. Create a tagline or hashtag that is unified across the district and everyone recognizes that it is Granton’s.

1. Create a survey for staff members - what cost efficiencies do they see?

Create a long range fiscal plan for large purchases such as parking lot updates, roof repair, bus purchases, etc.

Educational Quality	Staff and Enrollment Retention	Co-curricular, Student Activities and Youth Development	Promoting/ Marketing Granton Better School Spirit Parental Involvement	Facilities and Finances
Our Priorities - School Improvement Initiative
2. Review and implement best practices in classroom management to address discipline concerns. (Year 1 - School year 2021-2022).	2. Promote community events to encourage everyone to be involved and participate with the school.	2. Survey staff and community to see if they have suggestions and are interested in coaching/ leading additional groups or activities. Engage more staff and community members to help build participation in programs.	2. Student/Teacher category - Bring back and broaden PAWS activities. School store in the building for kids to purchase pens, pencils, apparel, etc. Revamping pep rallies and homecoming events.	2. Year 1 - Lower Parking lot, lighting, projects for other action teams, plan for roof repairs.  Consider facility upgrades with ESSER II and ESSER III federal funds.
3. Implement and evaluate pilot program(s). (Year 2 - School year 2022-2023).	3. Performance teams' idea: mix different levels of performance level staff members into small groups for mentoring/ ideas/ guidance/ suggestions.	3. Expand school age daycare/after school options.	3. Parents category - Build up PTO. Larger media presence to reach parents such as radio spots, TRG, Press, Tik Tok, Facebook.	3. Year 2 -Start roof repairs, replace a bus or entertain lease agreement, budget plan for regular repairs
4. Implement and/or discontinue pilot program(s). (Year 3 - School year 2023-2024).	4. Set up Bulldog "W-I-N" (What I Need) meetings. The meetings will include 4k-12 teachers and support staff. There will be an email prior to the meeting for attendees to submit concerns/comments. Identify the issues on a white board with no discussion initially, regarding "What are we currently doing that is working?" and "What are we not doing that we should be?"	4. Recognize accomplishments of individuals and groups more often. Bring back the trophy case that was taken down when the pool remodel was done.  Focus not just on sports but all clubs/activities. Want to try to bring back some opportunities that have not been done recently and also any new opportunities that there is interest in.	4. Public category - Bulldog Spirit everywhere - Posters, signs, etc. Invite the public to school events such as concerts, art shows, FFA, games, etc. Post flyers at local businesses to advertise what's happening at the school. Create senior citizen "pen pals" - pairing kids with seniors and have them write letters & invitations for them to come watch a game or concert. Craft days where seniors can work with kids.	4. Year 3 and beyond - Bus garage, Air quality/air conditioning.
5.	5. Evaluate open enrollment in and out. Look at options for increasing daycare enrollment. Story hour in the library to bring in community people. Host a career fair for students to learn about different careers.	5. Different avenues may be explored based on the results of the survey. Long range goal would be to try and get increased participation and get most sports back to Granton.	5. Opening a school store in the space next to the village office. A place for Granton apparel and merchandise to be sold.	5. Continue ongoing analysis and investment to provide financial support of other action team items.
