Dear Mr. Barry,

I feel you should be aware of this Fact... to be Honest when I first saw that the new High School was built across the street from the Phoenix Pioneer Cemetery, I was very concerned. (Vandalism, headstones being turned over and broken, & other destruction) I have a Very Special Uncle buried there since 1964. NOTHING has been disturbed, vandalized, absolutely Nothing has been touched by a Student. Your Staff & the Students need to know HOW MUCH WE RELATIVES APPRECIATE THEIR RESPECT & COURTESY while walking through it. I have personally seen them walk through the cemetery & stay on the main road as they trek through it.

PLEASE THANK THEM FOR ME (Us Relatives). They Deserve the recognition.

Sincerely,

Betty Jo (Goodnight) Bowman

Naming Facilities

Insofar as possible, the Board will name a district facility after the name of the geographic section which it serves. The Board shall appoint a committee to include a representative group of parents.

In naming a facility, the committee will receive name suggestions from the community and make a recommendation to the Board based as much as possible upon the following guidelines:

1. The committee will present a list of three names to the superintendent for presentation to the Board;

2. The names should be easily identifiable with the district;

3. The name should avoid confusion with the names of other schools, facilities or institutions, street names, or other geographic features;

4. If possible, the name should be selected on a geographical basis, but most important, it should have significance for the students who will attend a proposed school; and

5. The names of people, particularly living people, should be avoided.

The Board will make the final selection from the list the committee submitted.

Names on Building Plaque

In keeping with the practice to recognize elected officials and others for their efforts and public service in providing new and/or improved facilities to the public, the Board wishes to have plaques installed on new construction projects giving the names of persons at the time of acceptance of the project bid as reflected in Board minutes. The plaques will provide the following information:

1. Name of the school or building;

2. Board approved construction date;

3. Names of the Board members listed alphabetically with the Board approved construction date;

4. Name of superintendent;

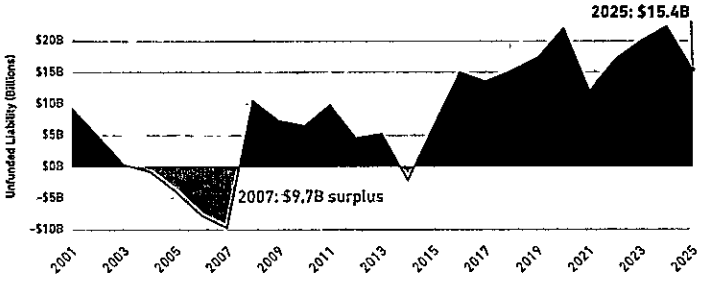

5. Others as deemed appropriate by Board.

Growth in Oregon PERS Unfunded Liabilities, 2001–2025

School District Contributions to OPERS, 2005–2025

Nominal dollars, as reported to ODE. Split between normal cost and pension debt (UAAL) payments using liability-weighted employer rate shares.

To pay for this pension debt, additional contributions into OPERS have been necessary. The second chart above shows how the growth in OPERS contributions from school districts has increased over time for pension debt as well as the growing "normal cost" of benefits (which factors in changes to demographics, and investment forecasts).

However, the contributions actually paid for each district also depend on the amount of money in their Side Accounts at OPERS, which can be used to provide "rate relief" (e.g., lower the actual annual payment required). The contributions displayed above would have been higher if not for this Side Account based "rate relief." But, as a result, these contributions do not fully capture what school districts pay for pensions because they don't include the debt service payments from school districts to pay off the pension obligation bonds used to fund the Side Accounts in the first place. In total, Side Accounts have paid more than $6.7 billion in contributions on behalf of school districts since 2005.

Are K-12 Budgets Keeping Up with Pension Costs? No.

A key driver of growing OPERS costs has been unfunded liabilities. Since 2005, roughly $7.25 billion of school districts' reported contributions has gone toward paying off their share of OPERS pension debt.

Over 100 districts have also been paying off pension obligation bonds taken out to reduce future OPERS costs. Across district and county financial statements, we estimate more than $321.49 million in bond payments were made in FY 2025 alone—not counting interest accruals, which could add millions more.

Cost increases are not inherently a problem—a state without pension debt might raise costs by increasing benefits, and longer life expectancy can raise the cost of future promised benefits. The problem for districts comes when (1) variable unfunded liability costs stress budgets, and (2) state processes to estimate education resources and costs and funding formulas don't comprehensively account for rising pension costs.

In Oregon, K-12 expenditures more than doubled from $6.8 billion (2005) to $14.6 billion (2025)—a 30% increase after inflation. Meanwhile reported OPERS contributions roughly tripled from $433 million to $1.25 billion—a 74% increase after inflation.

Even these figures understate the problem: some districts borrowed money (pension obligation bonds) and used it to reduce the direct contributions they pay OPERS, yet still must make debt service payments on those bonds.

$321.49M

Total POB Debt Payments Made by School Districts to OPERS in 2025

$7.25B

Total unfunded liability (UAAL) payments made by school districts to OPERS, 2005–2025

34.6%

The share of K-12 expenditures going to OPERS contributions has increased 34.6% from 2005 to 2025.

How Does Oregon Compare to Other States?

The majority of states (27) plus Washington D.C. provide state contributions toward school district K-12 employer obligations. Many states cover unfunded liability payments centrally, shielding district budgets from pension debt payment volatility. Oregon's arrangement places the full risk on individual districts—meaning budget pressures are absorbed locally unless the overall school finance system is accounting for changes in pension costs.

27 + D.C.

states contribute toward school district K–12 pension obligations. Oregon does not—its districts carry the full cost and risk.

Considerations for Policymakers

- Reported contribution figures alone may give an incomplete picture of actual school district pension costs because there is no centralized repository of school districts' pension debt, bond payments, amounts, and true costs.
- Pension costs have grown twice as fast as overall education spending over the past two decades.
- Districts using Pension Obligation Bonds have reduced their visible OPERS costs—but those costs have been shifted to bond debt.
- Oregon school districts bear more pension cost risk than districts in the majority of states, because they are responsible for both normal costs and unfunded liability payments.

Oregon PERS: What School Districts Really Pay for Pensions

A Policymaker's Briefing on Hidden Pension Costs in K–12 Education

Key Takeaways

Pension Costs Growing Faster than Budgets: Pension costs have grown faster than K–12 education budgets over the last two decades, and Oregon's school funding formulas may not be fully accounting for the total burden.

Hidden and Undercounted Costs: Oregon school districts are required to cover the full cost of K–12 employer pension obligations to the Public Employees' Retirement System (OPERS). The officially reported contribution figure—$1.25 billion in 2025—understates the true cost. Many districts have borrowed money through Pension Obligation Bonds (POBs) to pre-pay into OPERS. This lowers the contributions they actually pay each year—but they still make annual debt payments on those bonds. Those debt payments are not captured in the $1.25 billion figure.

Key Numbers

Adjusted for inflation, OPERS contributions from school districts increased 74% from 2005 to 2025. Over those two decades Oregon also increased K-12 spending, but the cost of OPERS has increased faster.

$1.25B

Reported school district contributions to OPERS (2025)

This is what districts report paying directly to OPERS—but it does not include debt service payments on Pension Obligation Bonds.

Real increase in school district OPERS contributions, 2005–2025

Inflation-adjusted growth in reported contributions over two decades.

27.6%

OPERS employer contribution rate as % of payroll (2025)

Up from 18.3% in 2005, averaged across all benefit tiers. Some districts use pre-paid "Side Accounts" to reduce this rate.

Pension Costs vs. Education Spending

The table below shows how pension contributions have grown relative to the overall K–12 budget.

Metric	2005 (nominal)	2005 (infl. adj.)	2025
Total K–12 expenditures	$6.80B	$11.27B	$14.58B
School district OPERS contributions	$433.91M	$719.60M	$1.25B
Increase in K–12 total spending, 2005–2025 (infl-adj)			+30%
Increase in OPERS contributions, 2005–2025 (infl-adj)			+74%

Conclusion: Pension costs have grown significantly faster (74%) than the growth rate of total education spending (30%).

Important caveat: The $1.25 billion figure above still doesn't tell the full story. Districts that issued Pension Obligation Bonds make annual debt service payments on those bonds separately—payments that are not counted in OPERS contribution totals. The true cost of pensions to Oregon school districts is higher than what's reported.

Why Are Costs Growing?

In 2007, OPERS had a $9.7 billion surplus. By 2025, it carries a $15.4 billion unfunded liability. Three factors drove this swing:

1. Investment shortfalls. When actual investment returns fall below assumptions, unfunded liabilities grow.
2. Updated actuarial assumptions. Revised estimates (e.g., people living longer) increased projected benefit costs.
3. Interest on existing debt. Unpaid pension debt compounds over time, making it harder to close the gap.

Phoenix-Talent SD 4 - Annual Questions 25-27

Grid | Filter | Arial | 10

	Ident... #	Annual Response Question	2025-26 Annual Progress Reflection
1	AR1	As you review your progress markers/overall reflection responses and reflect on plan implementation, how do you see your progress contributing to the Outcomes and Strategies in your plan and your Longitudinal Performance Growth Targets (LPGT)/Local Optional Metrics (LOM)? Discuss at least one Outcome where you have seen progress in implementation.	The district continues to make progress toward the growth targets that were established in the original LPGT plan that was created. We continue to be very pleased with the direction and outcomes of our family engagement efforts at every level. This is true both in terms of the event and activities we hold at our campuses as well as the robust and authentic two-way communication that we have implemented and are continuing to refine. As the district prepares to begin working toward the new Performance Growth Targets selected last month we feel very well positioned to show significant and sustained growth across all seven mandatory metrics of accountability as well as our district-selected local metric. One outcome in which the district has seen significant progress has been our Early Literacy outcome. Over the past year we have expanded high dosage tutoring opportunities across all three of our elementary schools. Additionally, we have been able to provide a number of professional development opportunities for our primary teaching and paraprofessional staff that has increased their expertise and capacity to provide targeted, research-based instruction to our youngest students. This has been a high growth area for the district and we look forward to continuing to offer similar opportunities to both students and staff in the coming years.
2	AR2	Where have you experienced barriers, challenges, or impediments to progress toward your Outcomes and Strategies in your plan that you could use support with? Discuss at least one Outcome where you have seen challenges or barriers to implementation.	The greatest challenge that the district continues to face regarding our Outcomes and Strategies is our progress toward Outcome A: Decrease disparities in student achievement with all subgroups making adequate growth and progress. Our students' achievement on the Smarter Balanced Math and English/Language Arts assessments have lagged the state average consistently over the past several years. Additionally, we have not seen sustained progress in closing the achievement gap between our total population and our traditionally underserved populations, especially on the 3rd grade ELA and 8th grade math measures. We are hopeful that a renewed focus on these areas required by the SB 141 accountability bill will prompt growth in these areas.

A. Regular Session Call to Order

- Chair Rebecca Weathers called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m. and then asked Supt. Barry to speak.
- Supt. Barry said that our thoughts are with our friends and colleagues in Rogue River who are dealing with the fires.
- Supt. Barry said that this was our first meeting without our beloved board member, Rick Nagel, who volunteered and served on our board for 27 years. Supt. Barry read the following:
    - For 27 years, Rick has dedicated himself to serving the students, families, staff, and community of Phoenix-Talent Schools. Since first being elected to the School Board in 1999, he brought wisdom, compassion, thoughtful leadership, and an unwavering belief that every student deserves the opportunity to succeed, not only while they are with us, but wherever life takes them.

      Rick's service was never simply about attending meetings or making decisions. It was about people. He cared deeply about our students, our staff, and this community, and he demonstrated that commitment time and time again.

      Rick was a tireless advocate for school safety. His support for safe school initiatives played an important role in establishing the school resource officer presence we have today at Phoenix High School and Talent Middle School. That is just one example of the lasting impact his leadership will continue to have on generations of Phoenix-Talent students.

      On a personal level, Rick was much more than a board member to me. He was a friend, a mentor, and someone whose counsel and support I valued tremendously. I am deeply grateful for the years I had the privilege of working alongside him and learning from him.

      Twenty-seven years of service is an extraordinary legacy. But Rick's legacy cannot be measured simply in years. You see it in the schools he helped make safer, in the colleagues he mentored, in the friendships he built, and in the community he loved.

DRAFT

Rick made Phoenix-Talent Schools a better place. We will miss his wisdom, his friendship, his familiar presence, and his steadfast commitment to our kids

On behalf of the Phoenix-Talent School District, our staff, our students, and our entire community, I extend our deepest condolences to Rick's family and friends. We are grateful that they shared him with us for so many years.

His seat at this table will be deeply missed, but the impact of his service will remain with us for many years to come.

Thank you, Rick, for 27 years of extraordinary service to Phoenix—Talent Schools and this community. We are better because you were part of us.

- Director Polly Farrimond shared on behalf of Director Nancy Castillo-McKinnis. Nancy said that she shares her gratitude for Rick for all of his years of service, and that he was quiet and committed to making our schools better.
- Director Polly Farrimond said that she spent many hours with Rick and she would miss him greatly. She worked with him on the Britt hill, and he had such a big presence and he touched so many people. He has made a huge impact on our district and in our community. Polly is very grateful that she got to know him and be his friend.
- Director Campbell said that Rick always put kids first and cared deeply for staff. He was a champion for school safety, serving 27 years on the board with grace, humility, kindness, and an incredible sense of humor. A little bit underrated. His financial expertise helped the district navigate some of its most challenging times, and I just appreciate his background and knowledge in that area. And I'm going to miss that. Even at 90 years old, this is probably what I appreciate most about him. He remained a lifelong learner, and he was always helping us learn from the past without clinging to it. And I just think that the character trait in a person to carry themselves with such humility, having all those years of wisdom and knowledge, and yet still showing up every day with the willingness to learn and with a heart like that, is something I think we all can learn from and carry forward. I'm going to miss him terribly, and I'm so honored to have known him and to have served with him. I don't know if we're going to talk about it tonight, and I kind of hope not, but someday we're going to have to fill his seat, but we'll never fill his shoes, and we're going to miss him.
- Dawn Watson spoke about how Rick was a great mentor for her. When she was first a board member, Rick told her she was going to be a great board member and that he was going to help her along the way and he did. She told stories about him being a lifelong learner.
- Rebecca Weathers said that Rick meant a lot to her, and she was happy that he made it to his 90th birthday as he really wanted that. He was a very dear friend of mine.

B. Accentuate the Positive

OHES Principal Kent Vallier shared the following:

- Kent said that early in his time with this district, Rick Nagel made him feel like he belonged here.

DRAFT

- Kent thanked Jessica Hamilin and Tiffany Britton for their help with making sure that they would start the year fully staffed and onboarding the new staff. Kent welcomed new staff Whitney Winans, who will be teaching first grade, and Davalin Ontiveros, who will be our new K-2 special education teacher. Also, with the help, support and creativity of Tiffanie Lambert, she was able to help us recruit Davalin Ontiveros.
- Kent thanked the summer maintenance staff for getting the building ready for everyone to come back to.
- Kent thanked Denise Skinner for always getting us yummy lunches, snacks and such for our AdTeam and board meetings.

TES Principal Heather Lowe shared the following:

- Things are shaping up to be a great year at TES. We are fully staffed with an incredible team and enrollment numbers are looking good for the year. As we get closer to the welcoming staff and students back to our buildings, I wanted to share a few shout-outs:
- First, many thanks to Cheryl Joseph for her work over the summer to help ensure our power school enrollment numbers are accurate so we can plan accordingly. She has been gently nudging families to complete forms, which is no small feat.
- Second, I want to extend my thanks to our HR team — Jessica Hamlin, Tiffany Britton, and Monique Strain, for all they do to support us in our hiring processes over the summer. There are a lot of processes and moving parts, and they help keep us moving in the right direction.
- Finally, I want to thank our entire AdTeam for the work they put in over the spring and summer to develop an in-service schedule that is going to be meaningful for our entire staff, bringing coherence to our strategic plan and building level goals and priorities.

PES Principal Shawna Schleif shared the following:

- Shawna said that she had the opportunity to volunteer at Britt last summer, and she got to work with Rick Nagel. Shawna is so grateful to hear all the ways that he touched everyone, and all of us are better for knowing him.
- Shawna gave a shout-out to Tiffanie Lambert and her team for all they did to make summer school such a success. There was so much happening at PES and it was so organized and wonderful. Such creative energy to make sure that kids are getting services. Tiffanie was creative with our partnership with the Boys and Girls Club and Tiffanie will talk more about that.
- Shawna gave a shout-out to Lori Delgado, who worked as our office assistant during summer school, and so she was able to keep up with our registrations. Our enrollment numbers are looking good, so we are excited about that.
- Lastly, Shawna said that we are so excited to have our new mural on our building. It was a great collaboration between the City of Phoenix and their Art Council. It is the first mural in the city of Phoenix. The artist who painted the mural commented that our town is so alive and there is so much community here.

TMS Principal Casey Olmstead shared the following:

- Casey gave a shout-out to Alyssum Barber, who is taking on some new responsibilities at the middle school this year, specifically in math. Alyssum and myself and Kalin Cross have been spending a lot of time together. We are excited about what we are building and the alignment that we are working on with the high school, but also Alyssum's specific support at the middle school, supporting teachers and being in classrooms.

- Casey gave a shout-out to Maria Lee, who will be working with the middle school this year and leading professional development. We will be tackling this throughout the year, and her support will help us be more intentional in planning and our delivery of support to staff and all students.
- Casey is so grateful to the maintenance & custodial staff for the amount of work that they do, and are doing, to get our buildings ready for students and staff.
- Casey shared that he was at a conference in June and there was a quote that shared, "Our School is Better When You Are Here" and it definitely is something that stuck with me. Thinking about every staff, student and community member that enters our buildings. Our buildings are better because they/you are there.

PHS Principal Kalin Cross shared the following:

- Kalin shared that she read a couple of books this summer and the word that kept appearing was coherence. The idea of getting really focused and moving in the same direction is what she keeps thinking about.
- Kalin gave a shout-out to anyone who had anything to do with summer school. It takes so much planning, preparation, time and commitment. We had great programs this summer and our high school students were able to gain some more credits, and we were able to get our last graduate.
- Our facilities and custodial staff have been working so hard. We are so grateful for our new sensory garden. It is so beautiful and amazing. We are blessed to have such great facilities on campus.
- Because we have such a wonderful building, it allows us to secure great candidates. We have some great new hires, and I am excited to see all the great things they will do.
- Kalin also mentioned that she is thankful for the work that Alysum Barber, Casey Olmstead and she are doing together as a secondary team to support the strategic plan.
- Kalin gave a shout-out to our new Assistant Principal and Athletic Director, Sam Osofsky. Sam has hit the ground running and is at PHS right now supporting coaches by providing them with tools to set them up for success. Kalin is excited to be working with him.

Assistant Superintendent of Teaching and Learning, Dr. Tiffanie Lambert shared the following:

- Tiffanie spoke about board member Rick Nagel and his quiet leadership and big heart. Tiffanie said she had never read one of our audits because she always wanted to hear from Rick as he was our financial guru.
- Our summer school was a magical experience and there were too many people to thank. We had Jes Marsh at PHS and Yaneth Garcia. We had Lori Delgado at the elementary school, and Charlene Patten at the district office, and others.
- We took our elementary groups out for our fun Fridays, and everywhere we took the kids, we had such great comments about the students being so well-behaved.

DRAFT

- Tiffanie spoke about our partnerships with Talent Maker City, Rogue Valley Farm 2 School, Bugs R Us, Jackson County libraries, and the Boys and Girls Club. We started a new program this summer and the Boys and Girls Club was so awesome to work with. They really went above and beyond for us. Tiffanie gave several examples of their exemplary service and how they went out of their way to help staff and students and accommodate parents' schedules.

C. Citizen Comments - None

D. Superintendent Report

- Supt. Barry commended the summer school staff and all the work that went into having a 4-week, full day, Monday-Friday summer school. Thank you to Tiffanie Lambert and her team of people who continuously show up during the month of July to help serve kids and families! And Tiffanie just explained the amazing partnerships that we have.
- Supt. Barry thanked Dawn Watson for coming to the Talent City Council meeting with him last week. The discussions were around raising the residential surcharge and then using a new formula to charge non-residential customers a trip charge. This new trip fee would change our annual fees from $200 a year to over $10,000 a year. Thankfully, the decision last week by the Talent City Council was for now, to raise the public safety surcharge from $5.66/month to $8/month for this coming year and bump it to $10.50/mo. starting July 1, 2027. No other decision was made on the non-residential transportation fee or the trip-based model for non-residential public safety surcharge, which is good for us. We were listening to discussions about the non-residential transportation fee, and it sounded like there would be an opportunity to appeal those charges. We are currently exploring our option to appeal this fee or look at how it is calculated should they move forward with it. At minimum, we feel there should be adjustments to how they calculate the number of trips to our schools.
- There have been many discussions about accountability over the last several years, and it heated up in the legislature last year with Senate Bill 141. There are a number of accountability measures that are coming into play this coming year, so we are looking at having to set Longitudinal Growth Targets. We are in the process of submitting this data based on 2024–25 data. These are due Aug 31, and we will bring this information back to the board in the fall.
- Supt. Barry said that in the board's packets, they have information on pension bonds. The district went out for a bond in 2002 and those payments are coming to an end. We have saved $6.5 million dollars over the life of that bond. Yazmin and I have been involved in pension bonds analysis work with Piper Sandler, and we will look to see if this is an option for PTS. We are preparing to decide when the right time for the process of going out for a pension bond would be.
- We have an amazing administrative team, and we did a lot of work in the spring and at our retreat in June, and we came up with a good plan for our in-service week.

E. Program Report: Strategic Plan Update

Supt. Barry gave updated information on the district's strategic plan goals, which include the four main areas below:

1. Attend School Regularly — 85% percent of students will attend 90% or more of each school year. We had a 6.3% increase in attendance from last year.

DRAFT

2. Success in English Language Arts and Mathematics —Eighth-grade math saw a 6% jump, though a dip was noted in sixth-grade math scores, which Brent attributed to staffing challenges and increased rigor.
3. On-Track by Grade 10 — Every student at the completion of 9th grade will have six or more credits. For the 25–26 school year, we should be at around 90%.
4. High School Graduation — 96% of all students will graduate on time with a regular or modified diploma within four years of starting in high school. We won't have our graduation rate until they release the state report cards in January, but as of now, it appears as though the district will come in around 90%, and PHS at 95%.

F. Consent Agenda

Director Watson moved to approve the consent agenda. Director Campbell seconded the motion. Chair Weathers asked for those in favor to say yes and all members present said yes.

F.1. Approval of Agenda
F.2. Approval of Minutes from7/23/26
F.3. Personnel Report

G. Information and Discussion

G.1. Legislative / OSBA Update

- Director Watson said that OSBA is still working on their governance restructure and they will most likely change the caucus model. Any changes will need to go to the board to vote on any new bylaws.
- Director Watson spoke about an email that Pooja Bhatt sent from One Education, and she shared a first-of-its-kind look into how Oregon approaches paying for educator pensions (PERS), one of a handful of major spending drivers for public K-12 education. COSA, OSBA, and OASBO were also engaged in this product's development. Here are a few top lines from the brief verbatim:
    - "The analysis tracks how district PERS contributions changed between 2005 and 2025, a period in which reported contributions rose 74% after inflation while total K-12 expenditures rose 30%. It documents the swing in the PERS system from a $9.7 billion surplus in 2007 to a $15.4 billion unfunded liability in 2025 and the factors behind it: investment returns below assumptions, updated actuarial assumptions, and interest compounding on existing pension debt."
    - "The brief also situates Oregon among other states. Twenty-seven states plus Washington, D.C. contribute toward K-12 school district pension obligations. Oregon does not, leaving individual districts responsible for both normal costs and their share of unfunded liability payments."
- Director Watson said that COSA, OSBA, and others will be hosting workshops for school board members, finance directors, and legislators, so when the legislative session starts, they will understand the PERS dilemma that school districts are facing.
- OSBA has just released the sample immigration policies which need to be adopted prior to September 30. Denise said they will be on the Sept. 10 agenda as info and discussion and the Sept. 24 agenda as an action item.

DRAFT

- The Legislative Policy Committee (LPC) of OSBA met early this week. They talked about topics coming up in the legislative session. We will most likely see policies coming after the legislative session on student screen time even though there are a lot of pros and cons to it, including hardbound textbooks, whereas most districts use digital curriculum. This could create a lot of expenditures for districts, which would be another unfunded mandate. Other topics included truancy and absenteeism; state-wide bargaining; and assessments.
- Director Watson spoke about an OSBA southern regional position that will be open on the board and there are different scenarios that make it very confusing. Dawn will get more information and let the board know.

G.2. Budget Committee Vacancies
The Budget Committee has two members whose terms expired on June 30, 2026. Therefore, there are two vacancies that will need to be filled either by the previous committee member(s) and/or district residents. Applications will be taken through September 7th or until the vacancies are filled.

G.3. Establish Meal Prices
A food pricing memo was presented to the board with slight price increases over last year. This will be an action item at the next meeting.

G.4. Review District Employee Handbook
Supt. Barry commended Jessica Hamlin and her HR team for updating the handbook that included many changes.

G.5. Superintendent Goals for 26-27
Supt. Barry shared his goals for 26–27 with the board. Based on prior conversations during his evaluation last spring, the board discussed having him reduce the number of his goals, so they have been streamlined. The four main goals include:

- Accelerate Student Achievement, Belonging, and Equitable Outcomes
- Strengthen Leadership Capacity and Ensure Organizational Sustainability
- Steward District Facilities and Leave a Strong Physical Legacy
- Strengthen Community Trust, Partnerships, and Long-Term Confidence in Phoenix-Talent School District.

Supt. Barry wants to be sure and have a successful transition in the next couple of years and would like to set the district up as best as possible, especially with our facilities and strengthening our teams and our leaders.

G.6. Board Policy Packet 8-13-26
There was no discussion other than there being some adjustments to our new format. These policies will be an action item at the next meeting.

G.7. Board Policy JFCEB — Personal Electronic Devices

- Director Campbell doesn't feel we need any more discussion about this policy at this time. Director Campbell asked Principal Cross how the last school year went at PHS with our current policy, and she said it went great and there was an increase in attendance. There were very few cell phone incidents.

DRAFT

- Supt. Barry is concerned that having students going off campus at lunch is a bigger risk.
- Director Campbell said that if our graduation data had dropped, if our attendance had dropped, and if our discipline and behavior incidents went up, then we would be having a different conversation.
- Director Watson shared her opinion and there were comments about checking in on all the schools at lunchtime to see how the policies are actually working. The decision was to leave the policy as it reads now.
- Supt. Barry will keep the board informed if something else changes.

G.8. Board Vacancy
Chair Weathers gave several choices that the board could make with regard to the board vacancy due to Rick Nagel's death. After some discussion, the board decided to start taking applications until the meeting on September 10th and the board can review any applications received to date and then either have interviews and make a decision to appoint someone or extend the application period. Denise will publish the notice as soon as possible.

H. Recess - None

Board Member Vacancy Application

When a Board vacancy is declared, the Board will appoint a qualified person in accordance with Board policy BBE – Vacancies on the Board. To be considered for appointment, this form must be submitted to the district office by the deadline communicated by the district. Submitted applications become public records and may be disclosable upon request.

Name: Mark Krause

Motivation and Experience

Why do you want to serve on the Board?

I have lived in Talent since 2011 and have a strong committment to our community. Both of my kids are currently students in this district. I want to help support the district, the teachers, and especially the students.

Which experiences or perspectives will help you represent and serve all students and families?

I served as president of the PTA at TES for 3 years. This role reinforced just how important it is to include everyone. Students, parents, siblings all need to feel included and that they are an important part of the school and community. I realize that school board and PTA are very different, but I think this perspective is important to both roles. Also, on a personal note my family experienced first hand the devastation of the Almeda fire. Since then I've committed myself to give back to the community.

How will you help advance the district's mission and goals?

I will put all students, teachers, staff, and my fellow board members first. I will show up for board meetings prepared and ready to contribute. I will not allow bias, favoritism, or personal concerns to affect my work on the school board.

How will you engage respectfully with individuals whose viewpoints differ from your own?

I will engage with others with empathy and regard for their own circumstances and viewpoints. I will listen and ask questions. My day job involves open inquiry, discussion, and dissent. I can commit to applying these skills to school board work.

Knowledge, Time Commitment and Governance

Availability: Board meetings, work sessions, and committee service often occur in the evenings and occasionally during the daytime. In addition, there may be out of town travel required. How will you balance Board obligations with other commitments?

I have discussed this with my family and have their support. My day job does not conflict with standing school board meeting times.

Laws applying to public entities: Briefly share any familiarity you have with Oregon public meetings and public records laws: I honestly cannot quote anything from the laws. However, I work for SOU and we are obligated to set agendas and take minutes. I am also a member of the SOU faculty union where the same applies.

Policy and Budget: What experience do you have with policy development, budgets, or strategic planning? I have experience with these items in the capacity of my faculty job at SOU, and with executive board service for the American Psychological Association.

Student-Centered Decision-Making: How will you ensure decisions reflect student outcomes, safety, and well-being? Without knowing more about school board governance process I'm not sure how to answer this in concrete terms. I can say that advocating for student outcomes, safety, and well-being are the precise reasons motivating my decision to serve on the school board.

Name: Heather Ayers-Flood

Motivation and Experience

Why do you want to serve on the Board?

As a long-time teacher and staff member at Talent Middle School and Phoenix-Talent Rising Academy, I have seen the value of our school board - and the need for representation for all those who are part of the district. I think I can bring a unique perspective to the team.

Which experiences or perspectives will help you represent and serve all students and families?

I'll refer to the previous answer here. My many years in the classroom, and attending many school board meetings, has given me a deep understanding of the requirements. In addition, I've lived in Talent since 2013 and in Phoenix at an earlier time - so I have a deep connection to the Phoenix-Talent community. I am still in touch with many of my former students and families, which is definitely a plus.

How will you help advance the district's mission and goals?

My priorities as a lifelong teaching professional are and always have been to connect with students in such a way that they feel welcome, appreciated and seen for who they are. I feel that this is the key to all other aspects of the district's mission and goals. With that connection, much of the rest - attendance, grades, participation - will follow. The other critical piece of this is engaging families; this is key to student success.

How will you engage respectfully with individuals whose viewpoints differ from your own?

I believe respectful engagement starts with listening to understand, not listening to respond. When I meet someone with a different viewpoint, I find it helpful to focus on three things: pausing my own reactions, asking relevant questions, and acknowledging their perspective before offering mine.

Knowledge, Time Commitment and Governance

Availability: Board meetings, work sessions, and committee service often occur in the evenings and occasionally during the daytime. In addition, there may be out of town travel required. How will you balance Board obligations with other commitments?

Being retired, I have a fairly flexible schedule. Most obligations I have are not so strict that I can't adjust when necessary. And travel is not an issue for me.

Laws applying to public entities: Briefly share any familiarity you have with Oregon public meetings and public records laws:

I have served on the Talent Public Arts Committe, including as a board member, for a number of years (seven or eight?) and have a deep familiarity of the nuances of public meeting law. As secretary, my direct responsibility is to the city recorder. I have a high level of understanding of records retention, quorem matters, the differences around meeting types, executive session rules, etc.

Policy and Budget: What experience do you have with policy development, budgets, or strategic planning?

I've owned a number of businesses over the years the past fifteen years, and have good understanding of the budget process. My experience as a school employee over the years has given me a good idea of how school funding works. During my time with Talent Public Arts, I have spent many hours working on our master plan, and planning and reviewing our budget.

Student-Centered Decision-Making: How will you ensure decisions reflect student outcomes, safety, and well-being?

I've been told by teachers and administrators alike that one of my super-powers is that I care deeply about each student, who they are, and what their stories are. My heart has been at the core of what I've done in my thirty-two year career as a teacher in our schools. Students have been and will always remain a number one priority for me.

Name: Adam Holtey

Motivation and Experience

Why do you want to serve on the Board?

I've been looking for ways that I can be of service to my community, and this position feels perfect. Both my children attended elementary school in Talent, and when I saw the position was open it felt right to pursue it.

Which experiences or perspectives will help you represent and serve all students and families?

I grew up in Southern Oregon and attended K-12 in Ashland. I've raised two children here and operate businesses serving this community for almost 20 years. I've also taught classes in several local schools for brief periods of time. These experiences have given me the opportunity to develop relationships with many individuals, families and organizations locally. I am committed to maintaining these relationships, and confident they've instilled in me a resolve to represent and serve the students and families in this district to the best of my ability.

How will you help advance the district's mission and goals?

My first objective would be to get familiar with the district's mission and goals, which I've begun doing by looking at the district website. I would seek a greater understanding of important terms, such as Professional Learning Communities, Multi-Tiered Levels of Support, etc., and research how these are being implemented and how successful they are in moving the district closer to its goals. I'd work on building relationships with other board members, administrators, and the community as a whole, to learn more and work together on the most effective policies.

How will you engage respectfully with individuals whose viewpoints differ from your own?

I grew up as a middle child of 5, and we're all still friends despite our differences. I've always had a natural ability and inclination to not only be respectful of, but be friends with many people whose viewpoints are different from my own. I've always believed it's important to listen to others, express my opinions respectfully, and search for areas of mutual agreement.

Knowledge, Time Commitment and Governance

Availability: Board meetings, work sessions, and committee service often occur in the evenings and occasionally during the daytime. In addition, there may be out of town travel required. How will you balance Board obligations with other commitments?

I own my own business and have flexible work hours, allowing me to organize my time so I can honor all school board obligations.

Laws applying to public entities: Briefly share any familiarity you have with Oregon public meetings and public records laws:

I understand that the school board needs to conduct business transparently and allow public access, and give proper notice of meetings. I also know as a board member I would not be allowed to meet with other members outside of scheduled meetings to discuss public business. I am also aware I can direct my questions about legalities to district staff and/or legal council.

Policy and Budget: What experience do you have with policy development, budgets, or strategic planning?

Owning and operating several businesses over the last 20-25 years has given me considerable experience in policy development, budgets and strategic planning in the organizations I've managed. I believe this experience will transfer well to a school board setting, and provide me a strong foundation for learning and applying knowledge of the district, how it operates, and how we can make it more successful.

Student-Centered Decision-Making: How will you ensure decisions reflect student outcomes, safety, and well-being?

These three topics cover a wide array of issues affecting students I would be encountering as a school board member. Regarding any issue, I would seek input from students, administrators, and the community. I would do research and examine relevant data, and work with other board members to create policies with measurable outcomes that put the students first.

OSBA Model Sample Administrative Regulation

Code: KNA-AR(1)
Revised/Reviewed:

Interactions with Immigration Enforcement

The [Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources] is designated as the "immigration liaison."

1. Staff[, contractors and volunteers] shall adhere to all district policies when interacting with federal immigration authorities and the following administrative regulations:

    a. Unless expressly authorized by the superintendent or designee, or by the immigration liaison on behalf of the superintendent or designee, staff shall not:

        (1) Provide federal immigration authorities with records or information about students, staff, or volunteers;
        (2) Confirm whether a student, staff member, or volunteer is present or make the student, staff member, or volunteer available;
        (3) Allow access to non-public areas of the district's facilities or property;
        (4) Sign documents presented by federal immigration authorities; or
        (5) Give consent to any immigration enforcement action.

    b. Staff may not interfere with lawful immigration enforcement actions or physically obstruct federal immigration authorities in any manner. However, staff should immediately report to the immigration liaison if they observe any conduct or enforcement activities by federal immigration authorities that violate state or federal law, or district policies, or that otherwise present a security threat or potential danger to students, staff, volunteers, or visitors.
    c. Staff who receive a request related to immigration enforcement must immediately notify the immigration liaison. The immigration liaison is responsible for interacting with the federal immigration authorities until the matter is concluded or the federal immigration authorities have been referred to the superintendent or designee.
    d. The immigration liaison or alternate immigration liaison should meet the federal immigration authorities at the school door or other area designated by the superintendent or designee for this purpose.
    e. The immigration liaison shall provide federal immigration authorities with a copy of this policy and explain that school staff are required to follow these steps in this policy. The immigration liaison should inform the immigration authorities that school staff must contact the office of the superintendent or designee for guidance before providing access to school facilities, records, or other information.
    f. The immigration liaison should direct another staff member to contact the superintendent or designee while the immigration liaison remains with the federal immigration authorities.
    g. The immigration liaison must document the request from federal immigration authorities to the fullest extent possible under the circumstances. At a minimum, the documentation shall include the following information, if available:

        (1) The name, badge number, and agency of the law enforcement officer making the request;
        (2) The number of officer's present;

(3) Time, date, and location of the request;
(4) The nature of the request;
(5) The source of authority for the request, including whether the request is administratively or judicially authorized;
(6) Whether the request requires an immediate response;
(7) The identification of witness's present; and
(8) How the encounter concluded.

h. The immigration liaison shall direct another staff member to transmit copies, photos, or other documentation provided by federal immigration authorities to the superintendent or designee, along with other information documented pursuant to this policy. The superintendent or designee must approve any response to a law enforcement request related to immigration enforcement as provided in Section 3 of this administrative regulation.

2. Determination of Validity of Judicial Warrant, Subpoena or Order

a. If presented with a warrant, subpoena or order by federal immigration authorities, the immigration liaison shall verify the validity of the warrant, subpoena or order by determining whether the warrant, subpoena or order is judicially authorized. An administrative warrant, subpoena, order or other legal process that has not been authorized by a judicial officer does not authorize the district to provide law enforcement with access to records or information, or facilities for purposes of immigration enforcement.

A judicially authorized warrant, subpoena or order contains the following key features:

(1) A caption, near the top of the document, identifying the court that issued the order (typically the federal district court for the District of Oregon);
(2) A signature block, near the end of the document, including the name of the person who signed the order, and identifying that individual as a judge, magistrate, clerk of court, or other person signing on behalf of a judge or magistrate, and the date of the signature; and
(3) An indication that the warrant, subpoena or order has not expired.

Examples of warrants and subpoenas are available in the Attorney General's model policies[1].

b. The immigration liaison shall notify the superintendent or designee of the warrant, subpoena or order and whether the warrant, subpoena or order appears on its face to be judicially authorized.
c. The immigration liaison should request a copy of the warrant, subpoena or order and transmit a copy of the warrant, subpoena or order for review by the superintendent or designee, or legal counsel.
d. The superintendent or designee shall make the final determination regarding the validity of any warrant, subpoena or order and whether, and to what extent, federal immigration will have access to district records or information, or facilities. If the superintendent or designee is uncertain as to the validity or scope of the warrant, subpoena or order, the superintendent or designee should immediately consult legal counsel or a statewide or regional education organization.

[1] https://www.doj.state.or.us/wp-content/uploads/2026/06/Attorney-Generals-Model-Public-School-Policies-in-Compliance-with-SB-1538.pdf

3. Approval of Response by Superintendent

a. The immigration liaison shall notify the superintendent or designee of a request related to immigration enforcement prior to responding to the request. The superintendent or designee will only honor requests from immigration enforcement officers or other agencies enforcing federal immigration laws if the request is judicially authorized. If the superintendent or designee is uncertain as to the lawfulness or scope of the request, the superintendent or designee should immediately consult legal counsel or a statewide or regional education organization prior to approving a response.

b. If the superintendent or designee determines that a response is not authorized by a judicial subpoena issued as part of a court proceeding or by another compulsory court-issued legal process, such as a warrant, the superintendent or designee shall direct the immigration liaison to decline the request.

Upon direction of the superintendent or designee, the immigration liaison shall decline the request, refer the federal immigration enforcement authorities to the superintendent or designee, and request that they leave the premises.

The immigration liaison shall ensure that the information documented pursuant to this administrative regulation is submitted to the Oregon Criminal Justice Commission as provided in ORS 181A.826.

c. If the request is accompanied by a subpoena, warrant or order that appears on its face to be judicially authorized, the superintendent or designee must review and approve the immigration liaison of district's response to the request.

The superintendent or designee shall ensure that the district's response provides no greater access to records or information, or facilities, than that required by the subpoena, warrant or order.

d. If the request involves a warrant that appears to be valid and authorizes the arrest of a particular person, the superintendent shall direct the immigration liaison to request that the arrest be conducted in a manner that is the least disruptive to the school environment and to the person's wellbeing, which may include bringing the arrestee to the federal immigration authorities.

4. [School-Sponsored Events

If federal immigration authorities appear at a school-sponsored event open to the general public (e.g., field trip, athletic event, band event), staff should document their observations, notify the immigration liaison and follow any guidance provided by the immigration liaison. When alerted to the presence of federal immigration authorities at a school-sponsored event, the immigration liaison shall notify the superintendent or designee.]

PROPOSED

5. [School Transportation/Buses

If federal immigration authorities request to board a school bus or other vehicle transportation, the driver should ask them to wait outside the bus/vehicle, close the doors, and immediately call the immigration liaison and follow any guidance provided by the immigration liaison. The immigration liaison shall notify the superintendent or designee and coordinate an approved response as outlined in this policy.]

6. [Volunteers

The district will determine which volunteers need to receive training or materials regarding this administrative regulation.]

RE: 2026-2027 SY Meal Prices

Adult Meal Prices

USDA and ODE guidelines require adult meal prices to exceed the sum of the Free Reimbursement Rate and the Entitlement Commodity Rate:

- Breakfast: $3.05 (Severe Need Breakfast rate) + $0.47 (ODE commodity rate) = $3.52 minimum
- Lunch: $4.87 (60% or more + Menu Cert Lunch & Certified Menu rate) + $0.47 (commodity rate) = $5.34 minimum

Currently, adult meals are priced at $3.50 for breakfast and $5.25 for lunch.

Recommendation: Increase prices for 2026–27 school year to $3.75 for breakfast and $5.50 for lunch.

Student Meal Prices

The District is approved for CEP (free breakfast and lunch for all students) for the 2026–27 school year; therefore, prices apply only to second meals. Last year we did not increase second meal prices and were close to having to transfer funds into the Food Service account from general funds due to the non-program revenue totals & federal calculations that are mandatory to run annually.

- 2025–26 Second Meal Prices:
  - Second Breakfast (K–12): $1.75
  - Second Lunch: K–5: $2.75 | 6–8: $3.00 | 9–12: $3.25
- Recommendation: Increase second meal prices for 2026–27.
  - Second Breakfast (K–12): $2.25
  - Second Lunch: K–5: $3.25 | 6–8: $3.50 | 9–12: $3.75

Milk: Price remains $0.75 (no change from 2025–26).

8-13-26 BOARD POLICY PACKET INFORMATION SUMMARY

As a reminder, policy updates are presented as a packet. The first reading will appear under Information and Discussion, and the full packet will return as a single action item on the next meeting agenda.

When making a motion to approve the packet, any policy revisions identified during discussion may either be incorporated into the motion or removed from the packet and brought back at a future meeting for further discussion.

The policy packet is organized with the current policy that is being deleted (if any), then a revised or proposed version first (changes shown in colored font), followed by a draft final version with the revisions incorporated. These policies will be presented as an action item at the September 10th meeting. The packet includes the following policies:

1. BBE – Vacancies on the board (Delete old, New proposed) - OSBA has updated this policy to incorporate legal requirements into a set of steps boards can follow in order to fill the vacancy.
2. BCB – Board Officers, (Optional) – Language has been updated to clarify replacement of a board officer, timing of actions, board chair duties and spokesperson delegation.
3. GBA – Equal Employment Opportunity, (Required) - Policy Summary for GBA & GBA-AR (below): Senate Bill 808 (2025) amended ORS 408.225, 408.230 and 408.235, which discusses issuing preferences to veterans and disabled veterans during a hiring or promotion process, and defined and added state servicemembers and former state servicemembers. These are servicemembers who are current servicemembers of the Oregon National Guard or former servicemembers of the Oregon National Guard, and who meet the new provisions. As a result, board policy GBA – Equal Employment Opportunity and administrative regulation GBA-AR – Veteran and State Servicemember Preference has been updated to reflect SB 808 and to account for the four different employment preferences now allowed under Oregon law effective January 1, 2026. Additionally, OAR 581-022-2405 requires districts have policies regarding equal employment opportunities and affirmative action. Language has been added to more clearly meet these requirements.
4. GBA-AR – Veteran and State Servicemember Preference, (Highly Recommended)
5. GBN/JBA – Sexual Harassment, (Required) – Policy Summary for GBN/JBA & JBA/GBN - Multiple laws address sexual harassment in Oregon schools. Oregon laws include requirements to provide notice to individuals involved in reports of sexual harassment. This update is to clarify these notice requirements.
6. JBA/GBN – Sexual Harassment, (Required) – Exact same changes as GBN/JBA (above)
7. GCBDA/GDBDA-AR(1) – Family and Medical Leave, (Highly Recommended) – Policy Summary states many changes have been made to leave laws over the last few years. This update reflects those changes
8. GCBDD/GDBDD – Sick Time, (Highly Recommended) – Policy Summary: The change from Senate Bill 1108 (2025) added another allowable use for earned sick time: to donate blood in connection with a voluntary program that is approved or accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks or the American Red Cross.

Note: Those policies with an asterisk (*), the previous policy is being deleted and the new policy is proposed.

Vacancies on the Board
(Version 2)

Vacancies on the Board will be filled through the following procedures:

1. At a Board meeting, the Board will declare the vacancy[1];

2. The Board or designee will establish an application period of at least 20 days. Applicants will be required to submit an application to the district office by the designated date. Deadlines and instructions will be posted on the district website. The Board can vote to extend or re-open the application period at any time;

3. After the application period has ended, the superintendent or designee will verify applicant eligibility. Applicants must:

   a. Be an elector of the district.[2] This requires being registered to vote within the district;
   b. Have resided in the district for a period of one year immediately preceding the appointment;
   c. Be a resident of the zone of the vacant position, if the position is zoned;
   d. Not be an employee of the district or a charter school located within the district.

4. The Board will review applicant materials in an open Board meeting;

5. The Board may select applicants to interview. Any interview will be held in an open Board meeting;

6. During an open Board meeting, the Board will vote to appoint one of the applicants. In the event that no applicant receives a majority of votes[3], the Board may re-vote or vote to re-open the application period;

[1] In accordance with ORS 332.030, the Board shall declare a vacancy upon any of the following:
1. The death or resignation of any Board member;
2. When a Board member is removed from office or the election of the Board member has been declared void by the judgment of any court;
3. When a Board member ceases to be a resident of district or zone from which nominated (see exception for board members who move out of the zone, but remain residents of the district in ORS 332.030(2) - (3);
4. When a Board member ceases to discharge the duties of office for two consecutive months unless prevented by sickness or other unavoidable cause;
5. When a Board member ceases to discharge the duties of office for four consecutive months for any reason; or
6. When a Board member is recalled.

[2] ORS 254.005(4) provides "'Elector' means an individual qualified to vote under section 2, Article II, Oregon Constitution." District staff may verify this with local elections officials.

[3] ORS 332.055 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of Board members to transact any business. Consequently four votes are necessary to appoint a board member, regardless of how many vacancies exist.

7. The newly appointed Board member(s) will take an oath of office before assuming the duties of office and will be seated immediately thereafter.

If the vacancy occurs in a zone and an eligible zone resident cannot be found, the Board shall appoint one of the eligible residents from the district to serve in accordance with ORS 332.124.

The appointee will serve until June 30 following the next election. At that election, either the remainder of the term for the position, or a full term for the position will be on the ballot.

If the offices of a majority of Board members are vacant at the same time, the directors of the Southern Oregon Education Service District shall appoint persons to fill the vacancies from qualified individuals.

FEDERAL DEFINITION AND PROCEDURES

Federal Definition

Sexual harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. An employee of the district conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the district on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct;

2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the district's education program or activity[5];

3. "Sexual assault": an offense classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

4. "Dating violence": violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship;

5. "Domestic ~~V~~violence": felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction; or

6. "Stalking": engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person fear for the person's own safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

This definition only applies to sex discrimination occurring against a person who is a subject of this policy in the United States. A district's treatment of a complainant or a respondent in response to a formal complaint of sexual harassment may constitute discrimination on the basis of sex under Title IX.

Federal Procedures

The district will adopt and publish grievance procedures that provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of the student and employee complaints alleging any action that would be prohibited by this policy. See GBN/JBA-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure.

Reporting

Any person may report sexual harassment. This report may be made in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail, or by any other means that results in the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator receiving the person's verbal or written report. The report can be made at any time.

Jessica Hamlin, Assistant Superintendent, is designated as the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator and can be contacted at 541-535-1517. The Title IX ~~C~~coordinator will coordinate the district's efforts to comply with its responsibilities related to this AR~~policy~~ . The district prominently will display the contact information for the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator on the district website and in each handbook

[5] "Education program or activity" includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the recipient exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs." (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a))

Response

The district will promptly respond to information, allegations or reports of sexual harassment when there is actual knowledge of such harassment, even if a formal complaint has not been filed.[6] The district shall treat complainants and respondents equitably by providing supportive measures[7] to the complainant and by following a grievance procedure[8] prior to imposing any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that are not supportive measures against a respondent. The Title IX ~~C~~coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of supportive measures.

The Title IX ~~C~~coordinator must promptly contact the complainant to discuss the availability of supportive measures, consider the complainant's wishes, with respect to supportive measures, inform the complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, and explain to the complainant the process for filing a formal complaint.[9]

If after an individualized safety and risk analysis, it is determined that there is an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any person, an emergency removal of the respondent can take place.[10] The district must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal. A non-student employee may also be placed on non-disciplinary administrative leave pending the grievance process.

Notice

The district shall provide notice to all applicants for admission and employment, students, parents or legal guardians, employees, and all unions or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the district of the following:

1. The name or title, office address, electronic mail address, and telephone number of the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator(s);

2. That the district does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the education program or activity that it operates, as required by Title IX. This includes admissions and employment; and

[6] (Title 34 C.F.R. §106.44(a)) Response cannot be deliberately indifferent. A recipient is deliberately indifferent only if its response to sexual harassment is clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.

[7] (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)) Supportive measures means non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no formal complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the recipient's education program or activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the district's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment.[7] The district must maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the complainant or respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the recipient to provide supportive measures. (Title 34 C.F.R. § 99.30(a))

[8] This grievance procedure must meet the requirements of Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.45 (included in accompanying administrative regulation, see GBN/JBA-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure).

[9] The Title IX coordinator may also discuss that the Title IX coordinator has the ability to file a formal complaint.

[10] The district may still have obligations under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or the American with Disabilities Act (ADA). (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(c))

3. The grievance procedure and process, how to file a formal complaint of sex discrimination or sexual harassment, and how the district will respond.

Inquiries about the application to Title IX and its requirements may be referred to the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator or the Assistant Secretary[11], or both

No Retaliation

Neither the district or any person may retaliate[12] against an individual for reporting, testifying, providing evidence, being a complainant, otherwise participating or refusing to participate in any investigation or process in accordance with this procedure. The district must keep confidential the identity of parties and participating persons, except as disclosure is allowed under Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), as required by law, or to carry out the proceedings herein. Complaints of retaliation may be filed using these procedures.

Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding does not constitute retaliation.

Publication

This policy shall be made available to students, parents of students and staff members. This policy and contact information for the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator shall be prominently published in the student handbook and on the district website. This policy shall also be made available at each school office and at the district office. The district shall post this policy on a sign in all grade 6 through 12 schools, on a sign that is at least 8.5 inches by 11 inches in size. A copy of the policy will be made available to any person upon request.

General Procedures

When information, a report or complaint regarding sexual harassment is received by the district, the district will review such information, report or complaint to determine which law applies and will follow the appropriate procedures. When the alleged conduct could meet both of the definitions in ORS Chapter 342 and Title IX, both complaint procedures should be processed simultaneously (see GBN/JBA-AR(1) - Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure and GBN/JBA-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure). The district will promptly respond to information, allegations or reports of sexual harassment when there is actual knowledge of such harassment, even if a formal complaint has not been filed.[6] The district shall treat complainants and respondents equitably by providing supportive measures[7] to the complainant and by following a grievance procedure[8] prior to imposing any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that are not supportive measures against a respondent. The Title IX coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of supportive measures.

[6] (Title 34 C.F.R. §106.44(a)) Response cannot be deliberately indifferent. A recipient is deliberately indifferent only if its response to sexual harassment is clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.

[7] (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)) Supportive measures means non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no formal complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the recipient's education program or activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the district's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment.[7] The district must maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the complainant or respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the recipient to provide supportive measures. (Title 34 C.F.R. § 99.30(a))

[8] This grievance procedure must meet the requirements of Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.45 (included in accompanying administrative regulation, see GBN/JBA-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure).

[9] The Title IX coordinator may also discuss that the Title IX coordinator has the ability to file a formal complaint.

[10] The district may still have obligations under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or the American with Disabilities Act (ADA). (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(c))

2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the district's education program or activity[5];

3. "Sexual assault": an offense classified as a forcible or nonforcible sex offense under the uniform crime reporting system of the Federal Bureau of Investigation;

4. "Dating violence": violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim and where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship;

5. "Domestic ~~V~~violence": felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction; or

6. "Stalking": engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person fear for the person's own safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

This definition only applies to sex discrimination occurring against a person who is a subject of this policy in the United States. A district's treatment of a complainant or a respondent in response to a formal complaint of sexual harassment may constitute discrimination on the basis of sex under Title IX.

Federal Procedures

The district will adopt and publish grievance procedures that provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of the student and employee complaints alleging any action that would be prohibited by this policy. See JBA/GBN-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure.

Reporting

Any person may report sexual harassment. This report may be made in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail, or by any other means that results in the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator receiving the person's verbal or written report. The report can be made at any time.

Jessica Hamlin, Assistant Superintendent, is designated as the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator and can be contacted at 541-535-1517. The Title IX ~~C~~coordinator will coordinate the district's efforts to comply with its responsibilities related to this policy . The district prominently will display the contact information for the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator on the district website and in each handbook

[5] "Education program or activity" includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the recipient exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs." (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a))

The district will promptly respond to information, allegations or reports of sexual harassment when there is actual knowledge of such harassment, even if a formal complaint has not been filed.[6] The district shall treat complainants and respondents equitably by providing supportive measures[7] to the complainant and by following a grievance procedure[8] prior to imposing any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that are not supportive measures against a respondent. The Title IX ~~C~~coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of supportive measures.

The Title IX ~~C~~coordinator must promptly contact the complainant to discuss the availability of supportive measures, consider the complainant's wishes, with respect to supportive measures, inform the complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, and explain to the complainant the process for filing a formal complaint.[9]

If after an individualized safety and risk analysis, it is determined that there is an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any person, an emergency removal of the respondent can take place.[10] The district must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal. A non-student employee may also be placed on non-disciplinary administrative leave pending the grievance process.

Notice

The district shall provide notice to all applicants for admission and employment, students, parents or legal guardians, employees, and all unions or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the district of the following:

1. The name or title, office address, electronic mail address, and telephone number of the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator(s);

2. That the district does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the education program or activity that it operates, as required by Title IX. This includes admissions and employment; and

3. The grievance procedure and process, how to file a formal complaint of sex discrimination or sexual harassment, and how the district will respond.

[6] (Title 34 C.F.R. §106.44(a)) Response cannot be deliberately indifferent. A recipient is deliberately indifferent only if its response to sexual harassment is clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.

[7] (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)) Supportive measures means non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no formal complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the recipient's education program or activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the district's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment.[7] The district must maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the complainant or respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the recipient to provide supportive measures. (Title 34 C.F.R. § 99.30(a))

[8] This grievance procedure must meet the requirements of Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.45 (included in accompanying administrative regulation, see JBA/GBN-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure).

[9] The Title IX coordinator may also discuss that the Title IX coordinator has the ability to file a formal complaint.

[10] The district may still have obligations under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or the American with Disabilities Act (ADA). (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(c))

Inquiries about the application to Title IX and its requirements may be referred to the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator or the Assistant Secretary[11], or both

No Retaliation

Neither the district or any person may retaliate[12] against an individual for reporting, testifying, providing evidence, being a complainant, otherwise participating or refusing to participate in any investigation or process in accordance with this procedure. The district must keep confidential the identity of parties and participating persons, except as disclosure is allowed under Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), as required by law, or to carry out the proceedings herein. Complaints of retaliation may be filed using these procedures.

Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding does not constitute retaliation.

Publication

This policy shall be made available to students, parents of students and staff members. This policy and contact information for the Title IX ~~C~~coordinator shall be prominently published in the student handbook and on the district website. This policy shall also be made available at each school office and at the district office. The district shall post this policy on a sign in all grade 6 through 12 schools, on a sign that is at least 8.5 inches by 11 inches in size. "Domestic violence": felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction receiving grant monies, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction; or

6. "Stalking": engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person fear for the person's own safety or the safety of others, or suffer substantial emotional distress.

This definition only applies to sex discrimination occurring against a person who is a subject of this policy in the United States. A district's treatment of a complainant or a respondent in response to a formal complaint of sexual harassment may constitute discrimination on the basis of sex under Title IX.

Federal Procedures

The district will adopt and publish grievance procedures that provide for the prompt and equitable resolution of the student and employee complaints alleging any action that would be prohibited by this policy. See JBA/GBN-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure.

Reporting

Any person may report sexual harassment. This report may be made in person, by mail, by telephone, or by electronic mail, or by any other means that results in the Title IX coordinator receiving the person's verbal or written report. The report can be made at any time.

Jessica Hamlin, Assistant Superintendent, is designated as the Title IX coordinator and can be contacted at 541-535-1517. The Title IX coordinator will coordinate the district's efforts to comply with its responsibilities related to this policy . The district prominently will display the contact information for the Title IX coordinator on the district website and in each handbook

[5] "Education program or activity" includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the recipient exercised substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs." (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a))

Response

The district will promptly respond to information, allegations or reports of sexual harassment when there is actual knowledge of such harassment, even if a formal complaint has not been filed.[6] The district shall treat complainants and respondents equitably by providing supportive measures[7] to the complainant and by following a grievance procedure[8] prior to imposing any disciplinary sanctions or other actions that are not supportive measures against a respondent. The Title IX coordinator is responsible for coordinating the effective implementation of supportive measures.

The Title IX coordinator must promptly contact the complainant to discuss the availability of supportive measures, consider the complainant's wishes, with respect to supportive measures, inform the complainant of the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, and explain to the complainant the process for filing a formal complaint.[9]

If after an individualized safety and risk analysis, it is determined that there is an immediate threat to the physical health or safety of any person, an emergency removal of the respondent can take place.[10] The district must provide the respondent with notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision immediately following the removal. A non-student employee may also be placed on non-disciplinary administrative leave pending the grievance process.

Notice

The district shall provide notice to all applicants for admission and employment, students, parents or legal guardians, employees, and all unions or professional organizations holding collective bargaining or professional agreements with the district of the following:

1. The name or title, office address, electronic mail address, and telephone number of the Title IX coordinator(s);

2. That the district does not discriminate on the basis of sex in the education program or activity that it operates, as required by Title IX. This includes admissions and employment; and

[6] (Title 34 C.F.R. §106.44(a)) Response cannot be deliberately indifferent. A recipient is deliberately indifferent only if its response to sexual harassment is clearly unreasonable in light of the known circumstances.

[7] (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(a)) Supportive measures means non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no formal complaint has been filed. Such measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the recipient's education program or activity without unreasonably burdening the other party, including measures designed to protect the safety of all parties or the district's educational environment, or deter sexual harassment.[7] The district must maintain as confidential any supportive measures provided to the complainant or respondent, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the recipient to provide supportive measures. (Title 34 C.F.R. § 99.30(a))

[8] This grievance procedure must meet the requirements of Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.45 (included in accompanying administrative regulation, see JBA/GBN-AR(2) - Federal Law (Title IX) Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure).

[9] The Title IX coordinator may also discuss that the Title IX coordinator has the ability to file a formal complaint.

[10] The district may still have obligations under Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or the American with Disabilities Act (ADA). (Title 34 C.F.R. § 106.44(c))

3. The grievance procedure and process, how to file a formal complaint of sex discrimination or sexual harassment, and how the district will respond.

Inquiries about the application to Title IX and its requirements may be referred to the Title IX coordinator or the Assistant Secretary[11], or both

No Retaliation

Neither the district or any person may retaliate[12] against an individual for reporting, testifying, providing evidence, being a complainant, otherwise participating or refusing to participate in any investigation or process in accordance with this procedure. The district must keep confidential the identity of parties and participating persons, except as disclosure is allowed under Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), as required by law, or to carry out the proceedings herein. Complaints of retaliation may be filed using these procedures.

Charging an individual with a code of conduct violation for making a materially false statement in bad faith in the course of a grievance proceeding does not constitute retaliation.

Publication

This policy shall be made available to students, parents of students and staff members. This policy and contact information for the Title IX coordinator shall be prominently published in the student handbook and on the district website. This policy shall also be made available at each school office and at the district office. The district shall post this policy on a sign in all grade 6 through 12 schools, on a sign that is at least 8.5 inches by 11 inches in size. A copy of the policy will be made available to any person upon request.

Family and Medical Leave

Employee Eligibility

FMLA benefits are available to employees who have been employed by the district for at least 12 months, have worked at least 1,250 hours during the past 12-month period and work at a worksite that employs 50 district employees within 75 miles of the worksite.

An employee who has previously qualified for and has taken some portion of FMLA leave may request additional FMLA leave within the same leave year. ~~In such instances, the employee may not need to requalify as an eligible employee.~~

Generally, in order for an employee to be eligible for the benefits under OFLA, the employee must work an average of 25 hours or more per week during the 180 calendar days[1] immediately prior to the first day of the start of the requested leave.[2] In determining if an employee has been employed for the preceding 180 calendar days under OFLA, the district must consider days, paid or unpaid, an employee is maintained on payroll.[3]

In determining average workweek, under FMLA and OFLA, the employer must count the actual hours worked using the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) guidelines. An employee is eligible to take leave for any purposes of OFLA during a period of time covered by a public health emergency except:

1. An employee who has worked for the district for fewer than 30 days immediately before the date on which the family leave would commence; or

2. An employee who has worked for the district for an average of fewer than 25 hours per week in the 30 days immediately before the date on which the family leave would commence.

An employee of the district who has separated~~is eligible to take leave for purposes of OFLA if the employee:~~

~~1. Separates from employment with the district, irrespective of any reason:~~

[1] ~~Thirty days during a declared public health emergency.~~

[2] The requirements of OFLA do not apply to any employer offering eligible employees a nondiscriminatory cafeteria plan, as defined by section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, which provides as one of its options, employee leave at least as generous as the leave required by OFLA.

[3] ~~The requirements of OFLA do not apply to any employer offering eligible employees a nondiscriminatory cafeteria plan, as defined by section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, which provides as one of its options employee leave at least as generous as the leave required by OFLA.~~

~~a. Is eligible to take leave OFLA at the time the employee separates;~~ and is
~~b. Is~~ reemployed ~~by the district~~ within 180 days~~, of separation from employment;~~ or experiences

~~2. Is eligible to take OFLA leave:~~

~~a. At the beginning of~~ a temporary cessation of schedule~~scheduled~~ hours may be eligible for OFLA in accordance with ORS 659A.156~~of 180 days or less; and~~
~~b.~~a. ~~Returns to work at the end of the temporary cessation of scheduled hours of 180 days or less~~.

Any OFLA leave taken by the employee within any one-year period continues to count against the length of time of OFLA leave the employee is entitled. The amount of time that an employee is deemed to have worked for the district prior to a break in service due to a separation from employment or a temporary cessation of scheduled hours shall be restored to the employee when the employee is reemployed by the district within 180 days of separation from employment or when the employee returns to work at the end of the temporary cessation of scheduled hours of 180 days or less.

When an employee requests OFLA leave, or when the district acquires knowledge that an employee's leave may be for a purpose that constitutes OFLA leave, the district will notify the employee of the employee's eligibility to take OFLA leave within five business days, absent extenuating circumstances. Whether an employee is an "eligible employee" as defined in OAR 839-009-0210 is determined, a notice must be provided, at the commencement of the first instance of each purpose for leave listed in OAR 839-009-0240 during the OFLA leave year. If an employee is an "eligible employee" as defined in OAR 839-009-0210 for the purpose listed in OAR 839-009-0240, the employee's eligibility for that purpose does not change during the applicable 12-month period. In addition:

1. An employee taking, in any order, some or all of 12 weeks of OFLA pregnancy disability leave and some or all of 12 weeks of OFLA leave for any other purpose, need not requalify each time the employee takes OFLA leave within the same leave year;

~~2. An employee who has taken 2 weeks of OFLA child placement leave need not requalify for up to an additional 12 weeks of leave within the same leave year when used for the purposes of OFLA sick child leave;~~

~~3.~~2. An employee unable to work because of a disabling compensable injury[4] need not requalify under OAR 839-009-0210 in order to use OFLA leave following a period the employee is off work due to the compensable injury.

~~In determining if an employee has been employed for the preceding 180 calendar days under OFLA, the district must consider days, paid or unpaid, an employee is maintained on payroll.~~

Leave under the Oregon Military Family Leave Act (OMFLA) applies to employees who work an average of at least 20 hours per week. There is no minimum number of days worked when determining employee eligibility for OMFLA.

~~In determining average workweek, under FMLA and OFLA, the employer must count the actual hours worked using the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) guidelines.~~

b. An emergency declared under ORS 401.165 if related to a public health emergency as defined in ORS 433.442.

Leave Period

For the purposes of calculating an employee's leave period for FMLA, the district will use the 12-month period measured forward from the date the employee's leave begins.

For the purposes of calculating an employee's leave period for OFLA, the district will use a period of 52 consecutive weeks beginning on the Sunday immediately preceding the date on which family leave commences. ~~The methods for calculating the leave period for FMLA or OFLA leave entitlement shall be used for all employees.~~

The leave period for the purposes of Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA shall be dependent on the start of any such leave regardless of the district's designated leave period described above.

Leave Duration

For the purposes of FMLA, an eligible employee is generally entitled to a total of 12 weeks of qualified leave during the district's designated leave period (12-month period)[16]. Spouses who work for the district and are eligible for FMLA leave may be limited to a combined total of 12 weeks of FMLA leave during the district's designated leave period when the purpose of the leave is for:

1. Birth of a child or to care for a child after birth;

1. Placement of an adopted child or child in foster care, the care for an adopted child or child in foster care after placement; or

Care of the employee's parent with a serious medical condition. Except in specific and unique instances, all qualified leave under FMLA counts toward an employee's leave entitlement within the designated leave period.

For the purposes of OFLA, an eligible employee is generally entitled to a total of up to 12 weeks of OFLA leave, for sick child leave and bereavement leave, during the designated leave period. An eligible employee is entitled to a total of two weeks of bereavement leave upon the death of each family member of the employee within a leave year, except that the eligible employee may not take more than four weeks of bereavement leave within a leave year.

An employee may also be entitled to take a total of 12 weeks of OFLA pregnancy disability leave within the same leave year.

Under OFLA, the employee may use all or part of the 12 weeks of sick child or bereavement leave and all or part of the 12 weeks of pregnancy disability leave in any order.

[16] An eligible employee taking Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA is entitled to up to 26 weeks of leave in the 12-month period beginning with the first day of such leave and regardless of any FMLA leave taken previously during the district's leave period. However, once the 12-month period begins for the purposes of Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA, any subsequent FMLA qualified leave, regardless of reason for such leave, will count toward the employee's 26-week entitlement under Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA.

Unlike FMLA, OFLA does not combine the leave entitlement when two or more family members work for the district. Under OFLA, family members who work for the district may be restricted from taking concurrent OFLA qualified leave.[17]

For the purposes of OMFLA, an eligible employee is entitled to 14 days of leave per call or order to active duty or notification of a leave from deployment. When an employee also meets the eligibility requirements of OFLA, the duration of the OMFLA leave counts toward that employee's leave entitlement during the designated leave period.

Qualified leave under FMLA and OFLA for an eligible employee will run concurrently during the designated leave period if for the same qualifying reason. Qualified leave under FMLA will run concurrently with other qualified leave covered under Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) and/or available sick leave under ORS 653.601 - 653.661 for eligible employees. Qualified leave under OFLA may also run concurrently with leave taken under the sick time~~leave~~ law in ORS 653.601 - 653.661 if for the same qualifying reason, but not concurrent with PFMLI.

For the purpose of tracking the number of leave hours an eligible employee is entitled and/or has used during each week of the employee's leave, leave entitlement is calculated by multiplying the number of hours the eligible employee normally works per week by 12[18]. If an employee's schedule varies from week-to-week, a weekly average of the hours worked over the 12 months worked prior to the beginning of the leave period shall be used for calculating the employee's normal workweek[19]. If an employee takes intermittent or reduced work schedule leave, only the actual number of hours of leave taken may be counted toward the 12 weeks of leave to which the employee is entitled.

Holidays which occur within the week taken as FMLA may be counted against FMLA entitlement.[20] However, for leave taken in increments of less than one week, holidays in which employees generally are not expected to report do not count against the employees FMLA leave entitlement.

Under OFLA, days in which the district is not in operation, are not counted toward intermittent or reduced work schedule OFLA leave.

Intermittent Leave

With the exception of parental leave under FMLA which must be taken in one continuous block of time, a eligible employee is permitted under FMLA or OFLA to take intermittent leave for any qualifying reason.

Intermittent leave is taken in separate periods of time (i.e., hours, days, weeks, etc.), rather than in one continuous period of time, and/or requiring an altered or reduced work schedule. For OFLA this includes

[17] Exceptions to the ability to require family members to take OFLA qualified leave at different times are when one employee needs to care for a child for a purpose described in ORS 659A.159 (1)(a) while another employee is taking pregnancy disability leave or, one or more of the employees is taking bereavement leave.

[18] For example, an employee normally employed to work 30 hours per week is entitled to 12 times 30 hours, or a total of 360 hours of leave.

[19] For example, an employee working an average of 25 hours per week is entitled to 12 times 25 hours, or a total of 300 hours of leave.

[20] See 29 CFR § 825.200(h).

but is not limited to sick child leave taken requiring an altered or reduced work schedule because the intermittent or recurring closure of a child's school or child care provider due to a statewide public health emergency declared by a public health official.

When an exempt employee is eligible for both OFLA and FMLA leave, and the employee takes intermittent leave in blocks of less than one day, if done in accordance with 29 CFR § 825.206, the district may reduce the employee's salary for the part-day absence without the loss of the employee's exempt status in accordance with OAR 839-020-0004(32).

When an exempt employee is eligible for OFLA leave but~~is~~ not ~~covered by~~ FMLA leave, and the employee takes intermittent leave in blocks of less than one day, the district will jeopardize the employee's exempt status if the district reduces the employee's salary for the part-day absence.

An employee's FMLA and/or OFLA intermittent leave time is determined by calculating the difference between the employee's normal work schedule and the number of hours the employee actually works during the leave period. The result of such calculation is credited against the eligible employee's leave entitlement.

Alternate Work Assignment

Under FMLA, the district may transfer an employee taking intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule that is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment to an alternate position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates an employee's recovery from a serious health condition, a serious health condition of a spouse, parent, ~~son,~~ or child~~daughter~~, or a serious injury of illness of a covered servicemember. However, the district may not transfer the employee to an alternative position in order to discourage the employee from taking leave or otherwise work a hardship on the employee.

Under FMLA, when an employee who is taking leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule and has been transferred to an alternative position no longer needs to continue on leave and is able to return to full-time work, the employee will be placed in the same or equivalent job as the job they left when the leave commenced. An employee may not be required to take more leave than necessary to address the circumstance that precipitated the need for leave.

Under OFLA, the district may transfer an employee on intermittent OFLA leave or reduced work schedule into an alternate position with the same or different duties to accommodate leave, provided:

1. The employee accepts the position voluntarily and without coercion;

2. The transfer is temporary, lasts no longer than necessary to accommodate the leave and has equivalent pay and benefits;

3. The transfer is compliant with any applicable collective bargaining agreement, as well as with state and federal law;

4. The transfer to an alternate position is used only when there is no other reasonable option available that would allow the employee to use intermittent leave or reduced work schedule; and

5. The transfer is not used to discourage the employee from taking leave or to create a hardship for the employee.

Under OFLA, an employee transferred to an alternate position for the purpose of a reduced work schedule must be returned to the employee's former position when the employee notifies the employer that the employee is ready to return to the former position at the end of the alternate duty leave.

The district may transfer an eligible employee to an alternate position that accommodates OFLA pregnancy disability leave provided:

1. The employee accepts the transfer position voluntarily and without coercion;

2. The transfer is temporary, lasts no longer than necessary and has equivalent pay and benefits;

3. The transfer is compliant with any applicable collective bargaining agreements, as well as with state and federal law;

4. The transfer is not used to discourage the employee from taking OFLA leave or to create a hardship for the employee.

Under OFLA, if an eligible employee is transferred to an alternative position and as a result the employee works fewer hours than the employee worked in the original position, the employee's OFLA leave time is determined by calculating the difference between the number of hours the employee worked in the original position and the number of hours the employee actually works in the alternative position.

An employee is not on OFLA leave if the employee has been transferred – as provided for in OAR 839-009-0245 (5) – to an alternate position for the purpose of alternate work duties that the employee is able to perform within the limitations of the employee's pregnancy disability, but not requiring a reduced workweek. An employee working in an alternate position retains the right to return to the employee's original position at any time during the employee's OFLA leave. This does not impair the right of an employee to a reasonable accommodation or the application of any other state or federal law.

Special Rules for School Employees

For the purposes of FMLA, "instructional employee" means those whose principal function is to teach and instruct students in a class, a small group or an individual setting. Athletic coaches, driving instructors and special education assistants, such as signers~~interpreters~~[21] for the hearing impaired, are included in this definition. This definition does not include teacher assistants or aides who do not have as their principal job actual teaching or instructing, auxiliary personnel such as counselors, psychologists, curriculum specialists, cafeteria workers, maintenance workers or bus drivers.

FMLA leave that is taken for a period that ends with the school year and begins with the next semester is considered consecutive rather than intermittent. The period during the summer vacation when the employee would not have been required to report for duty is not counted against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. In any such situation, the eligible instructional employee will receive any benefits during the break period that employees would normally receive if they had been working at the end of the school year.

1. Foreseeable Intermittent Leave Exceeding 20 Percent of Working Days

~~[21] 29 CFR 825.600(c) uses "signers."~~

When the qualified leave is foreseeable, will encompass more than 20 percent of the eligible instructional employee's regular work schedule during the leave period, and the purpose of such leave is to care for a family member with a serious medical condition, for a covered servicemember or for the employee's own serious medical condition, the district may require the eligible instructional employee to choose either to:

a. Take leave for a period or periods of a particular duration, not greater than the duration of the planned treatment; or
b. Temporarily transfer to an available alternate position for which the employee is qualified, which has equivalent pay and benefits, and which better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the employee's regular position.

If an instructional employee does not give required notice of foreseeable FMLA leave to be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule, the district may require the employee to take leave of a particular duration, or to transfer temporarily to an alternative position. Alternatively, the district may require the employee to delay the taking of leave until the notice provision is met.

2. Limitation on Leave Near the End of the Term[22]

When an eligible instructional employee requests leave near the end of the term, the district may require the following:

a. When the qualified leave begins more than five weeks before the end of the term, the district may require the employee to continue taking leave until the end of the term if:

(1) The leave will last at least three weeks; and
(2) The employee would return to work during the three-week period before the end of the term.

b. When the qualified leave begins during a five-week period before the end of the term and the purpose of such leave is parental leave, for the serious health condition of a family member or to care for a covered servicemember, the eligible instructional employee may be required by the district to remain on leave until the end of the term if:

(1) The leave will last more than two weeks; and
(2) The employee would return to work during the two-week period before the end of the term.

c. When the qualified leave begins within three weeks of the end of the term and the purpose of such leave is parental leave, for the serious health condition of a family member or to care for a covered servicemember, the eligible instructional employee may be required to remain on leave until the end of the term if the length of the leave will last more than five working days.

[22] "Academic term" means the school semester, which typically ends near the end of the calendar year and the end of spring each school year. In no case may a school have more than two academic terms or semesters each year for purposes of FMLA. 29 CFR § 825.602(b)

If the district requires an eligible instructional employee to remain on leave until the end of the term as described above, additional leave required by the district until the end of the school term shall not count against the eligible instructional employee's leave entitlement.

For the purposes of OFLA leave, if an employee[23] begins a period of bereavement leave during the three-week period before the end of the term and the duration of the leave is greater than five working days, the district may require the employee continue on family leave until the end of the term.

Paid/Unpaid Leave

FMLA and OFLA do not require the district to pay an eligible employee who is on a qualified leave. Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) leave taken via Paid Leave Oregon or an equivalent plan will run concurrently with FMLA and leave available under ORS 653.601 - 653.661 when taken for the same purpose. An employee may elect to use any available accrued paid leave including personal, sick or vacation leave during the leave period to the extent that the total combined amount of accrued paid leave and benefits received from PFMLI does not exceed an amount equal to the employee's full wage replacement during the period of leave. The district will notify the eligible employee when the requested leave has been designated as FMLA or OFLA leave and ask the employee about the use of available accrued paid leave.

Eligible employees taking OMFLA leave are entitled to use available accrued paid time off during the OMFLA leave period.

Benefits and Insurance

When an eligible employee returns to work following a FMLA-, OFLA - or OMFLA-qualified leave, the employee must be reinstated to the same position the employee held when the leave commenced, or to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment.

During an OFLA qualified leave an eligible employee does not accrue seniority or other benefits that would have accrued while the employee was working, unless the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, other agreement or other district policy provide otherwise.[24] The eligible employee is also subject to layoff to the same extent similarly situated employees not taking OFLA leave are subject unless the terms of an applicable collective bargaining agreement, other agreement or the district's policies provide otherwise.

For the purposes of FMLA and OFLA, the district will continue to pay the employer portion of the eligible employee's group health insurance contribution (if applicable) during the qualified leave period. The eligible employee is required to pay the employee portion of any such group health insurance contribution as a condition of continued coverage.

For the purposes of FMLA qualified leave, the district's obligation to maintain the employee's group health insurance coverage will cease if the employee's contribution is remitted more than 30 calendar days late. The district will provide written notice that the premium payment is more than 30 calendar days late. Such notice will be provided within 15 calendar days before coverage is to cease.

[23] Applies only to an employee who is employed principally in an instructional capacity by the district.

[24] See also ORS 342.934(4)(d) in reduction force situations.

For the purposes of OMFLA, the eligible employee is entitled to a continuation of benefits.

Fitness-for-Duty Verification

For purposes of FMLA, prior to the reinstatement of an employee following a leave which was the result of the employee's own serious health condition, the district may require the employee to obtain and present a Fitness-for-Duty Certification. If the district is going to require a Fitness-for-Duty Certification upon return to work, the district must notify the employee of such requirement when the leave is designated as FMLA leave and that failure to provide the certification may result in a delay or denial of reinstatement. Any costs associated with obtaining the certification shall be borne by the employee.

Application

For purposes of FMLA, an eligible employee requesting FMLA leave shall provide at least 30 days' notice prior to the leave date if the leave is foreseeable. The notice shall be written and include the anticipated start date, duration and reasons for the requested leave. When appropriate, the eligible employee must make a reasonable effort to schedule treatment, including intermittent leave and reduced leave, so as not to unduly disrupt the operation of the district. ~~An eligible employee able to give advance notice of the need to take FMLA leave must follow the district's known, reasonable and customary procedures for requesting any kind of leave.~~

For purposes of OFLA, an eligible employee shall provide at least 30 days' written notice of the need for foreseeable leave before starting family leave. An employee may commence family leave without prior notice in the event of: an unexpected illness, injury or condition of a child of the employee that requires home care; the death of a family member; the closure of the school or child care provider of the employee's child due to a public health emergency unless the declaration of the emergency was issued by the Governor at least 30 days before commencement of the leave; or an illness, injury or condition related to the employee's own pregnancy or childbirth that disables the employee from performing any available job duties offered by the district. If an employee commences leave without prior notice as allowed above, the employee must give oral notice[25] to the employer within 24 hours of the commencement of the leave and must provide the written notice within three days after returning to work. Failure of an employee to provide the required notice for leave may result in the district deducting up to three weeks from the employee's unused OFLA leave in that one-year leave period. The employee may be subject to disciplinary action for not following the district's notice procedures.

The district may request additional information[26] to determine the requested leave qualifies as FMLA or OFLA leave as provided by law. The district may designate the employee as provisionally on FMLA or OFLA leave until sufficient information is received to properly make a determination. An eligible employee able to give advance notice of the need to take leave must follow the district's known, reasonable and customary procedures for requesting any kind of leave.

[25] Oral notice may be given by any other person on behalf of the employee taking the leave.

[26] See OAR 839-009-0260 for OFLA and 29 CFR § 825.305 et. al. for FMLA. ~~Except in cases to verify OFLA bereavement leave unless the district requires the use of an attestation form for purposes of determining affinity.~~

For the purposes of FMLA, if advance notice is not possible, an employee eligible for FMLA leave must provide notice as soon as practicable. "As soon as practicable," for the purpose of FMLA leave, means as soon as both possible and practical, taking into account all of the facts and circumstances in the individual case. In most situations, as soon as practicable will be within one business day of an employee becoming aware of the need. Failure of an employee to provide the required notice for FMLA leave may result in the district delaying the employee's leave up to 30 days after the notice is ultimately given.[27]

For the purposes of OFLA, if an eligible employee is taking leave in an unforeseeable situation, an employee must give oral or written notice[28] within 24 hours before or after commencement of the leave. In all cases, proper documentation must be submitted no later than three working days following the employee's return to work.

For purposes of OMFLA, an employee must provide the district with notice of the intention to take leave within five business days of receiving official notice of an impending call or order to active duty or of a leave from deployment.

Verification

Under FMLA, the district may require an eligible employee to provide medical certification, when appropriate[29], to support the stated reason for such leave. In most cases, the district will provide written notification to an employee of this requirement within five working days of the employee's request for leave. The employee is required to submit such medical certification no later than 15 calendar days after receipt of the district's notification that medical certification is required, unless not practicable. Any additional certifications, including second and third opinions, will be in accordance with applicable law.

Under OFLA, the district may require an eligible employee to provide medical verification, when appropriate[30], to support the stated reason for qualifying OFLA leave. The district will provide written notification to an employee of this requirement and state the consequences for failure to provide the requested medical verification. If the employee gives advance written notice of foreseeable leave, the district may require the employee to provide medical verification for OFLA leave before the leave starts. If the employee begins unforeseeable OFLA leave without prior notice, the employee is required to submit such medical verification within 15 calendar days after receipt of the district's request for medical verification. The employee may be subject to disciplinary action for not providing the requested medical verification.

For the purposes of OFLA qualified leave, costs associated with obtaining the medical verification shall be borne by the district~~,~~ or be paid as otherwise allowed by law. The district will not delay the use of qualifying OFLA leave when medical verification is not received before the commencement of unforeseeable leave. The district may not require an employee to obtain a second opinion.

[27] See 29 CFR § 825.304.

[28] Notice may be given by any other person on behalf of the employee taking the leave.

[29] Medical verification is not allowed in every situation. Review current laws and guidance for more information.

[30] Medical verification is not allowed in every situation. Review current laws and guidance for more information. (OAR 839-009-0260)

Under OFLA, the district may request verification for the need for leave to care for a child who requires home care due to the closure of the child's school or child care provider as a result of a public health emergency. A request for verification may include a request for:

1. The name of the child requiring home care;

2. The name of the school or child care provider that is subject to the closure;

3. A statement from the employee that no other family member of the child is willing and able to care for the child; and

4. A statement that special circumstances exist that require the employee to provide home care for the child during the day, if the child is older than 14 years of age.

Posted Notice

The district will post the Bureau of Labor and Industries Family Leave notice in each building or worksite in an area that is accessible to and regularly frequented by employees.[31] The district will also post a notice explaining the provisions of FMLA and providing information concerning the procedures for filing complaints.[32]

Record Keeping

The district will maintain all records as required by federal and state laws including dates leave is taken by employees, identified separately from other leave; hours/days of leave; copies of general and specific notices to employees, including Board policy(ies) and regulations; premium payments of employee health benefits while on leave and records of any disputes with employees regarding granting of leave.

Medical documentation will be maintained separately from personnel files as confidential medical records.

Federal vs. State Law

Both federal and state law contain provisions for family and medical leave. Federal regulations state an employer must comply with all leave laws; that the federal law does not supersede any provision of state law that provides greater family or medical leave rights than those established pursuant to federal law; and if leave qualifies for FMLA and OFLA leave, the leave used counts against the employee's entitlement under both laws. State law requires that FMLA and ~~OFLA or other~~ state leave entitlements run concurrently when for the same purpose.

Family and Medical Leave

Employee Eligibility

FMLA benefits are available to employees who have been employed by the district for at least 12 months, have worked at least 1,250 hours during the past 12-month period and work at a worksite that employs 50 district employees within 75 miles of the worksite.

An employee who has previously qualified for and has taken some portion of FMLA leave may request additional FMLA leave within the same leave year.

Generally, in order for an employee to be eligible for the benefits under OFLA, the employee must work an average of 25 hours or more per week during the 180 calendar days immediately prior to the first day of the start of the requested leave.[1] In determining if an employee has been employed for the preceding 180 calendar days under OFLA, the district must consider days, paid or unpaid, an employee is maintained on payroll.

In determining average workweek, under FMLA and OFLA, the employer must count the actual hours worked using the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) guidelines. An employee is eligible to take leave for any purposes of OFLA during a period of time covered by a public health emergency except:

1. An employee who has worked for the district for fewer than 30 days immediately before the date on which the family leave would commence; or

2. An employee who has worked for the district for an average of fewer than 25 hours per week in the 30 days immediately before the date on which the family leave would commence.

    a. An employee of the district who has separated and is reemployed within 180 days, or experiences a temporary cessation of schedule hours may be eligible for OFLA in accordance with ORS 659A.156.

Any OFLA leave taken by the employee within any one-year period continues to count against the length of time of OFLA leave the employee is entitled. The amount of time that an employee is deemed to have worked for the district prior to a break in service due to a separation from employment or a temporary cessation of scheduled hours shall be restored to the employee when the employee is reemployed by the district within 180 days of separation from employment or when the employee returns to work at the end of the temporary cessation of scheduled hours of 180 days or less.

[1] The requirements of OFLA do not apply to any employer offering eligible employees a nondiscriminatory cafeteria plan, as defined by section 125 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, which provides as one of its options, employee leave at least as generous as the leave required by OFLA.

When an employee requests OFLA leave, or when the district acquires knowledge that an employee's leave may be for a purpose that constitutes OFLA leave, the district will notify the employee of the employee's eligibility to take OFLA leave within five business days, absent extenuating circumstances. Whether an employee is an "eligible employee" as defined in OAR 839-009-0210 is determined, a notice must be provided, at the commencement of the first instance of each purpose for leave listed in OAR 839-009-0240 during the OFLA leave year. If an employee is an "eligible employee" as defined in OAR 839-009-0210 for the purpose listed in OAR 839-009-0240, the employee's eligibility for that purpose does not change during the applicable 12-month period. In addition:

1. An employee taking, in any order, some or all of 12 weeks of OFLA pregnancy disability leave and some or all of 12 weeks of OFLA leave for any other purpose, need not requalify each time the employee takes OFLA leave within the same leave year;

2. An employee unable to work because of a disabling compensable injury[2] need not requalify under OAR 839-009-0210 in order to use OFLA leave following a period the employee is off work due to the compensable injury.

Leave under the Oregon Military Family Leave Act (OMFLA) applies to employees who work an average of at least 20 hours per week. There is no minimum number of days worked when determining employee eligibility for OMFLA.

Qualifying Reason

Eligible employees may access FMLA leave entitlements for the following reasons:

1. Serious health condition of the employee or the employee's covered family member. "Serious health condition" means an illness, injury, impairment or physical or mental condition that involves inpatient care[3] or continuing treatment by a health care provider[4].

2. Parental leave[5] (separate from eligible leave as a result of a child's serious health condition):

    a. Bonding with and caring for the employee's newborn child (within 12 months following birth);
    b. Bonding with and caring for a newly adopted child or newly placed child in foster care under the age of 18 (within 12 months of placement);
    c. Caring for a newly adopted child or newly placed child in foster care 18 years of age or older who is incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability (within 12 months of placement);
    d. Time to effectuate the legal process required for placement of a child in foster care or the adoption of a child.

[2] As defined in ORS 656.005.

[3] "Inpatient care" means an overnight stay in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical facility, including any period of incapacity or any subsequent treatment in connection with such inpatient care. See 29 CFR § 825.114.

[4] "Continuing treatment" includes incapacity and treatment, pregnancy or prenatal care, chronic conditions, permanent or long-term conditions, conditions requiring multiple treatments, and absences attributable to incapacity. See 29 CFR § 815.115.

[5] Parental leave must be taken in one continuous block of time within 12 months of the triggering event.

3. Military caregiver leave: leave for the care for a covered servicemember if the eligible employee is the spouse, child or next-of-kin of the servicemember with a serious injury or illness;

4. Qualifying exigency leave: leave arising out of deployment to a foreign country of the employee's spouse, child or parent who is a military member on active duty or call to covered active duty status.

Eligible employees may access OFLA leave entitlements for the following reasons:

1. Pregnancy disability leave: leave taken by an employee for their own disability related to pregnancy, including pregnancy termination or childbirth, whether the disability occurs before, during or after the birth of the child or for prenatal care, including fertility or infertility treatment.

2. Sick child leave: leave taken to care for an employee's child who is suffering from an illness, injury, or condition that requires home care; or leave taken to care for an employee's child whose school or child care provider has been closed[6] in conjunction with a statewide public health emergency declared by a public health official.[7]

4. Bereavement leave: leave taken to deal with the death of a covered family member and includes leave taken to attend the funeral or alternative to a funeral of the family member, to make arrangements necessitated by the death of the family member, or to grieve the death of the family member.[8] When such leave is used for a family member who is related by affinity, the district requires an attestation form signed and submitted by the employee.

5. Eligible employees may also access OMFLA for the purpose of spending time with a spouse or domestic partner who is in the military and has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty, or who has been deployed during a period of military conflict.

b. An emergency declared under ORS 401.165 if related to a public health emergency as defined in ORS 433.442.

Leave Period

For the purposes of calculating an employee's leave period for FMLA, the district will use the 12-month period measured forward from the date the employee's leave begins.

For the purposes of calculating an employee's leave period for OFLA, the district will use a period of 52 consecutive weeks beginning on the Sunday immediately preceding the date on which family leave commences.

The leave period for the purposes of Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA shall be dependent on the start of any such leave regardless of the district's designated leave period described above.

Leave Duration

For the purposes of FMLA, an eligible employee is generally entitled to a total of 12 weeks of qualified leave during the district's designated leave period (12-month period)[13]. Spouses who work for the district and are eligible for FMLA leave may be limited to a combined total of 12 weeks of FMLA leave during the district's designated leave period when the purpose of the leave is for:

1. Birth of a child or to care for a child after birth;

1. Placement of an adopted child or child in foster care, the care for an adopted child or child in foster care after placement; or

Care of the employee's parent with a serious medical condition. Except in specific and unique instances, all qualified leave under FMLA counts toward an employee's leave entitlement within the designated leave period.

For the purposes of OFLA, an eligible employee is generally entitled to a total of up to 12 weeks of OFLA leave, for sick child leave and bereavement leave, during the designated leave period. An eligible employee is entitled to a total of two weeks of bereavement leave upon the death of each family member of the employee within a leave year, except that the eligible employee may not take more than four weeks of bereavement leave within a leave year.

An employee may also be entitled to take a total of 12 weeks of OFLA pregnancy disability leave within the same leave year.

[13] An eligible employee taking Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA is entitled to up to 26 weeks of leave in the 12-month period beginning with the first day of such leave and regardless of any FMLA leave taken previously during the district's leave period. However, once the 12-month period begins for the purposes of Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA, any subsequent FMLA qualified leave, regardless of reason for such leave, will count toward the employee's 26-week entitlement under Military Caregiver Leave under FMLA.

Under OFLA, the employee may use all or part of the 12 weeks of sick child or bereavement leave and all or part of the 12 weeks of pregnancy disability leave in any order.

Unlike FMLA, OFLA does not combine the leave entitlement when two or more family members work for the district. Under OFLA, family members who work for the district may be restricted from taking concurrent OFLA qualified leave.[14]

For the purposes of OMFLA, an eligible employee is entitled to 14 days of leave per call or order to active duty or notification of a leave from deployment. When an employee also meets the eligibility requirements of OFLA, the duration of the OMFLA leave counts toward that employee's leave entitlement during the designated leave period.

Qualified leave under FMLA and OFLA for an eligible employee will run concurrently during the designated leave period if for the same qualifying reason. Qualified leave under FMLA will run concurrently with other qualified leave covered under Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) and/or available sick leave under ORS 653.601 - 653.661 for eligible employees. Qualified leave under OFLA may also run concurrently with leave taken under the sick time law in ORS 653.601 - 653.661 if for the same qualifying reason, but not concurrent with PFMLI.

For the purpose of tracking the number of leave hours an eligible employee is entitled and/or has used during each week of the employee's leave, leave entitlement is calculated by multiplying the number of hours the eligible employee normally works per week by 12[15]. If an employee's schedule varies from week-to-week, a weekly average of the hours worked over the 12 months worked prior to the beginning of the leave period shall be used for calculating the employee's normal workweek[16]. If an employee takes intermittent or reduced work schedule leave, only the actual number of hours of leave taken may be counted toward the 12 weeks of leave to which the employee is entitled.

Holidays which occur within the week taken as FMLA may be counted against FMLA entitlement.[17] However, for leave taken in increments of less than one week, holidays in which employees generally are not expected to report do not count against the employees FMLA leave entitlement.

Under OFLA, days in which the district is not in operation, are not counted toward intermittent or reduced work schedule OFLA leave.

Intermittent Leave

With the exception of parental leave under FMLA which must be taken in one continuous block of time, a eligible employee is permitted under FMLA or OFLA to take intermittent leave for any qualifying reason.

---

[14] Exceptions to the ability to require family members to take OFLA qualified leave at different times are when one employee needs to care for a child for a purpose described in ORS 659A.159 (1)(a) while another employee is taking pregnancy disability leave or, one or more of the employees is taking bereavement leave.

[15] For example, an employee normally employed to work 30 hours per week is entitled to 12 times 30 hours, or a total of 360 hours of leave.

[16] For example, an employee working an average of 25 hours per week is entitled to 12 times 25 hours, or a total of 300 hours of leave.

[17] See 29 CFR § 825.200(h).

Intermittent leave is taken in separate periods of time (i.e., hours, days, weeks, etc.), rather than in one continuous period of time, and/or requiring an altered or reduced work schedule. For OFLA this includes but is not limited to sick child leave taken requiring an altered or reduced work schedule because the intermittent or recurring closure of a child's school or child care provider due to a statewide public health emergency declared by a public health official.

When an exempt employee is eligible for both OFLA and FMLA leave, and the employee takes intermittent leave in blocks of less than one day, if done in accordance with 29 CFR § 825.206, the district may reduce the employee's salary for the part-day absence without the loss of the employee's exempt status in accordance with OAR 839-020-0004(32).

When an exempt employee is eligible for OFLA leave but not FMLA leave, and the employee takes intermittent leave in blocks of less than one day, the district will jeopardize the employee's exempt status if the district reduces the employee's salary for the part-day absence.

An employee's FMLA and/or OFLA intermittent leave time is determined by calculating the difference between the employee's normal work schedule and the number of hours the employee actually works during the leave period. The result of such calculation is credited against the eligible employee's leave entitlement.

Alternate Work Assignment

Under FMLA, the district may transfer an employee taking intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule that is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment to an alternate position for which the employee is qualified and which better accommodates an employee's recovery from a serious health condition, a serious health condition of a spouse, parent, or child, or a serious injury of illness of a covered servicemember. However, the district may not transfer the employee to an alternative position in order to discourage the employee from taking leave or otherwise work a hardship on the employee.

Under FMLA, when an employee who is taking leave intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule and has been transferred to an alternative position no longer needs to continue on leave and is able to return to full-time work, the employee will be placed in the same or equivalent job as the job they left when the leave commenced. An employee may not be required to take more leave than necessary to address the circumstance that precipitated the need for leave.

Under OFLA, the district may transfer an employee on intermittent OFLA leave or reduced work schedule into an alternate position with the same or different duties to accommodate leave, provided:

1. The employee accepts the position voluntarily and without coercion;

2. The transfer is temporary, lasts no longer than necessary to accommodate the leave and has equivalent pay and benefits;

3. The transfer is compliant with any applicable collective bargaining agreement, as well as with state and federal law;

4. The transfer to an alternate position is used only when there is no other reasonable option available that would allow the employee to use intermittent leave or reduced work schedule; and

5. The transfer is not used to discourage the employee from taking leave or to create a hardship for the employee.

Under OFLA, an employee transferred to an alternate position for the purpose of a reduced work schedule must be returned to the employee's former position when the employee notifies the employer that the employee is ready to return to the former position at the end of the alternate duty leave.

The district may transfer an eligible employee to an alternate position that accommodates OFLA pregnancy disability leave provided:

1. The employee accepts the transfer position voluntarily and without coercion;

2. The transfer is temporary, lasts no longer than necessary and has equivalent pay and benefits;

3. The transfer is compliant with any applicable collective bargaining agreements, as well as with state and federal law;

4. The transfer is not used to discourage the employee from taking OFLA leave or to create a hardship for the employee.

Under OFLA, if an eligible employee is transferred to an alternative position and as a result the employee works fewer hours than the employee worked in the original position, the employee's OFLA leave time is determined by calculating the difference between the number of hours the employee worked in the original position and the number of hours the employee actually works in the alternative position.

An employee is not on OFLA leave if the employee has been transferred – as provided for in OAR 839-009-0245 (5) – to an alternate position for the purpose of alternate work duties that the employee is able to perform within the limitations of the employee's pregnancy disability, but not requiring a reduced workweek. An employee working in an alternate position retains the right to return to the employee's original position at any time during the employee's OFLA leave. This does not impair the right of an employee to a reasonable accommodation or the application of any other state or federal law.

Special Rules for School Employees

For the purposes of FMLA, "instructional employee" means those whose principal function is to teach and instruct students in a class, a small group or an individual setting. Athletic coaches, driving instructors and special education assistants, such as signers for the hearing impaired, are included in this definition. This definition does not include teacher assistants or aides who do not have as their principal job actual teaching or instructing, auxiliary personnel such as counselors, psychologists, curriculum specialists, cafeteria workers, maintenance workers or bus drivers.

FMLA leave that is taken for a period that ends with the school year and begins with the next semester is considered consecutive rather than intermittent. The period during the summer vacation when the employee would not have been required to report for duty is not counted against the employee's FMLA leave entitlement. In any such situation, the eligible instructional employee will receive any benefits during the break period that employees would normally receive if they had been working at the end of the school year.

1. Foreseeable Intermittent Leave Exceeding 20 Percent of Working Days

When the qualified leave is foreseeable, will encompass more than 20 percent of the eligible instructional employee's regular work schedule during the leave period, and the purpose of such leave is to care for a family member with a serious medical condition, for a covered servicemember or for the employee's own serious medical condition, the district may require the eligible instructional employee to choose either to:

a. Take leave for a period or periods of a particular duration, not greater than the duration of the planned treatment; or
b. Temporarily transfer to an available alternate position for which the employee is qualified, which has equivalent pay and benefits, and which better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the employee's regular position.

If an instructional employee does not give required notice of foreseeable FMLA leave to be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule, the district may require the employee to take leave of a particular duration, or to transfer temporarily to an alternative position. Alternatively, the district may require the employee to delay the taking of leave until the notice provision is met.

2. Limitation on Leave Near the End of the Term[18]

When an eligible instructional employee requests leave near the end of the term, the district may require the following:

a. When the qualified leave begins more than five weeks before the end of the term, the district may require the employee to continue taking leave until the end of the term if:

(1) The leave will last at least three weeks; and
(2) The employee would return to work during the three-week period before the end of the term.

b. When the qualified leave begins during a five-week period before the end of the term and the purpose of such leave is parental leave, for the serious health condition of a family member or to care for a covered servicemember, the eligible instructional employee may be required by the district to remain on leave until the end of the term if:

(1) The leave will last more than two weeks; and
(2) The employee would return to work during the two-week period before the end of the term.

c. When the qualified leave begins within three weeks of the end of the term and the purpose of such leave is parental leave, for the serious health condition of a family member or to care for a covered servicemember, the eligible instructional employee may be required to remain on leave until the end of the term if the length of the leave will last more than five working days.

[18] "Academic term" means the school semester, which typically ends near the end of the calendar year and the end of spring each school year. In no case may a school have more than two academic terms or semesters each year for purposes of FMLA. 29 CFR § 825.602(b)

DRAFT

If the district requires an eligible instructional employee to remain on leave until the end of the term as described above, additional leave required by the district until the end of the school term shall not count against the eligible instructional employee's leave entitlement.

For the purposes of OFLA leave, if an employee[19] begins a period of bereavement leave during the three-week period before the end of the term and the duration of the leave is greater than five working days, the district may require the employee continue on family leave until the end of the term.

Paid/Unpaid Leave

FMLA and OFLA do not require the district to pay an eligible employee who is on a qualified leave. Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) leave taken via Paid Leave Oregon or an equivalent plan will run concurrently with FMLA and leave available under ORS 653.601 - 653.661 when taken for the same purpose. An employee may elect to use any available accrued paid leave including personal, sick or vacation leave during the leave period to the extent that the total combined amount of accrued paid leave and benefits received from PFMLI does not exceed an amount equal to the employee's full wage replacement during the period of leave. The district will notify the eligible employee when the requested leave has been designated as FMLA or OFLA leave and ask the employee about the use of available accrued paid leave.

Eligible employees taking OMFLA leave are entitled to use available accrued paid time off during the OMFLA leave period.

Benefits and Insurance

When an eligible employee returns to work following a FMLA-, OFLA - or OMFLA-qualified leave, the employee must be reinstated to the same position the employee held when the leave commenced, or to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment.

During an OFLA qualified leave an eligible employee does not accrue seniority or other benefits that would have accrued while the employee was working, unless the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, other agreement or other district policy provide otherwise.[20] The eligible employee is also subject to layoff to the same extent similarly situated employees not taking OFLA leave are subject unless the terms of an applicable collective bargaining agreement, other agreement or the district's policies provide otherwise.

For the purposes of FMLA and OFLA, the district will continue to pay the employer portion of the eligible employee's group health insurance contribution (if applicable) during the qualified leave period. The eligible employee is required to pay the employee portion of any such group health insurance contribution as a condition of continued coverage.

For the purposes of FMLA qualified leave, the district's obligation to maintain the employee's group health insurance coverage will cease if the employee's contribution is remitted more than 30 calendar days late. The district will provide written notice that the premium payment is more than 30 calendar days late. Such notice will be provided within 15 calendar days before coverage is to cease.

[19] Applies only to an employee who is employed principally in an instructional capacity by the district.

[20] See also ORS 342.934(4)(d) in reduction force situations.

For the purposes of OMFLA, the eligible employee is entitled to a continuation of benefits.

Fitness-for-Duty Verification

For purposes of FMLA, prior to the reinstatement of an employee following a leave which was the result of the employee's own serious health condition, the district may require the employee to obtain and present a Fitness-for-Duty Certification. If the district is going to require a Fitness-for-Duty Certification upon return to work, the district must notify the employee of such requirement when the leave is designated as FMLA leave and that failure to provide the certification may result in a delay or denial of reinstatement. Any costs associated with obtaining the certification shall be borne by the employee.

Application

For purposes of FMLA, an eligible employee requesting FMLA leave shall provide at least 30 days' notice prior to the leave date if the leave is foreseeable. The notice shall be written and include the anticipated start date, duration and reasons for the requested leave. When appropriate, the eligible employee must make a reasonable effort to schedule treatment, including intermittent leave and reduced leave, so as not to unduly disrupt the operation of the district.

For purposes of OFLA, an eligible employee shall provide at least 30 days' written notice of the need for foreseeable leave before starting family leave. An employee may commence family leave without prior notice in the event of: an unexpected illness, injury or condition of a child of the employee that requires home care; the death of a family member; the closure of the school or child care provider of the employee's child due to a public health emergency unless the declaration of the emergency was issued by the Governor at least 30 days before commencement of the leave; or an illness, injury or condition related to the employee's own pregnancy or childbirth that disables the employee from performing any available job duties offered by the district. If an employee commences leave without prior notice as allowed above, the employee must give oral notice[21] to the employer within 24 hours of the commencement of the leave and must provide the written notice within three days after returning to work. Failure of an employee to provide the required notice for leave may result in the district deducting up to three weeks from the employee's unused OFLA leave in that one-year leave period. The employee may be subject to disciplinary action for not following the district's notice procedures.

The district may request additional information[22] to determine the requested leave qualifies as FMLA or OFLA leave as provided by law. The district may designate the employee as provisionally on FMLA or OFLA leave until sufficient information is received to properly make a determination. An eligible employee able to give advance notice of the need to take leave must follow the district's known, reasonable and customary procedures for requesting any kind of leave.

For the purposes of FMLA, if advance notice is not possible, an employee eligible for FMLA leave must provide notice as soon as practicable. "As soon as practicable," for the purpose of FMLA leave, means as soon as both possible and practical, taking into account all of the facts and circumstances in the individual case. In most situations, as soon as practicable will be within one business day of an employee becoming aware of the need. Failure of an employee to provide the required notice for FMLA leave may result in the district delaying the employee's leave up to 30 days after the notice is ultimately given.[23]

[21] Oral notice may be given by any other person on behalf of the employee taking the leave.

[22] See OAR 839-009-0260 for OFLA and 29 CFR § 825.305 et. al. for FMLA.

For the purposes of OFLA, if an eligible employee is taking leave in an unforeseeable situation, an employee must give oral or written notice[24] within 24 hours before or after commencement of the leave. In all cases, proper documentation must be submitted no later than three working days following the employee's return to work.

For purposes of OMFLA, an employee must provide the district with notice of the intention to take leave within five business days of receiving official notice of an impending call or order to active duty or of a leave from deployment.

Verification

Under FMLA, the district may require an eligible employee to provide medical certification, when appropriate[25], to support the stated reason for such leave. In most cases, the district will provide written notification to an employee of this requirement within five working days of the employee's request for leave. The employee is required to submit such medical certification no later than 15 calendar days after receipt of the district's notification that medical certification is required, unless not practicable. Any additional certifications, including second and third opinions, will be in accordance with applicable law.

Under OFLA, the district may require an eligible employee to provide medical verification, when appropriate[26], to support the stated reason for qualifying OFLA leave. The district will provide written notification to an employee of this requirement and state the consequences for failure to provide the requested medical verification. If the employee gives advance written notice of foreseeable leave, the district may require the employee to provide medical verification for OFLA leave before the leave starts. If the employee begins unforeseeable OFLA leave without prior notice, the employee is required to submit such medical verification within 15 calendar days after receipt of the district's request for medical verification. The employee may be subject to disciplinary action for not providing the requested medical verification.

For the purposes of OFLA qualified leave, costs associated with obtaining the medical verification shall be borne by the district or be paid as otherwise allowed by law. The district will not delay the use of qualifying OFLA leave when medical verification is not received before the commencement of unforeseeable leave. The district may not require an employee to obtain a second opinion.

Under OFLA, the district may request verification for the need for leave to care for a child who requires home care due to the closure of the child's school or child care provider as a result of a public health emergency. A request for verification may include a request for:

[23] See 29 CFR § 825.304.

[24] Notice may be given by any other person on behalf of the employee taking the leave.

[25] Medical verification is not allowed in every situation. Review current laws and guidance for more information.

[26] Medical verification is not allowed in every situation. Review current laws and guidance for more information. (OAR 839-009-0260)

1. The name of the child requiring home care;

2. The name of the school or child care provider that is subject to the closure;

3. A statement from the employee that no other family member of the child is willing and able to care for the child; and

4. A statement that special circumstances exist that require the employee to provide home care for the child during the day, if the child is older than 14 years of age.

Posted Notice

The district will post the Bureau of Labor and Industries Family Leave notice in each building or worksite in an area that is accessible to and regularly frequented by employees.[27] The district will also post a notice explaining the provisions of FMLA and providing information concerning the procedures for filing complaints.[28]

Record Keeping

The district will maintain all records as required by federal and state laws including dates leave is taken by employees, identified separately from other leave; hours/days of leave; copies of general and specific notices to employees, including Board policy(ies) and regulations; premium payments of employee health benefits while on leave and records of any disputes with employees regarding granting of leave.

Medical documentation will be maintained separately from personnel files as confidential medical records.

Federal vs. State Law

Both federal and state law contain provisions for family and medical leave. Federal regulations state an employer must comply with all leave laws; that the federal law does not supersede any provision of state law that provides greater family or medical leave rights than those established pursuant to federal law; and if leave qualifies for FMLA and OFLA leave, the leave used counts against the employee's entitlement under both laws. State law requires that FMLA and state leave entitlements run concurrently when for the same purpose.

Sick Time

"Employee" means an individual who renders personal services at a fixed rate to the district if the district either pays or agrees to pay for personal services or permits the individual to perform personal services. The definition does not include volunteers, ~~or~~ independent contractors or others excluded by law.

Employees qualify to begin earning and accruing sick time on the first day of employment with the district and are eligible to use sick time beginning on the 91st calendar day of employment with the district and may use sick time as it is accrued.

The district employs 10 or more employees and therefore shall allow an eligible employee to access up to 40 hours of paid sick time per year. Paid sick time shall accrue at the rate of at least one hour of paid sick time for every 30 hours the employee works, or 1-1/3 hours for every 40 hours the employee works.

The employee may carry up to 40 hours of unused sick time from one year to the subsequent year. An employee is limited to using no more than 40 hours of sick time in a year.

Sick time shall be taken in hourly increments and may be used for the employee's or a family member's[1] mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, need for medical diagnosis, care or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, or need for preventive care, or for reasons consistent with qualifying Family and Medical Leave (FMLA), Paid Family and Medical Leave Insurance (PFMLI) or Oregon Family Leave (OFLA). Sick time earned by an employee may also be used for the following reasons:

1. In ~~in~~ the event of a public health emergency compliant with Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 653.616;

2. To donate blood in connection with a voluntary program for the donation of blood that is approved or accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks or the American Red Cross; or

3. For ~~for~~ leave to address domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault, bias, or stalking under ORS 659A.272 (safe leave).

When sick time is used to care for, or to deal with the death of, an individual related by blood or affinity whose close association with the district employee is the equivalent of a family relationship, the district requires an attestation form signed and submitted by the employee.

The use of sick time may not lead to, or result in, an adverse employment action against the employee.

The district reserves the right , after an employee uses sick time for more than three consecutive scheduled workdays, to require verification or certification in accordance with law of the need for the sick time, including a medical verification or certification[2] paid for by the district. If an employee fails to provide verification or certification or fails to provide other evidence as required by the district, the employee shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.

[1] "Family member" is defined in OAR 839-007-0000.

When the reason for sick time is consistent with FMLA, PFMLI or OFLA leave, sick time leave and qualifying FMLA, PFMLI or OFLA leave may run concurrently.

When the reason for sick time is consistent with ORS 332.507, sick time leave and leave pursuant to ORS 332.507 may run concurrently.

If the reason for sick time is a foreseeable absence, the district requires an employee to provide advance notice of the intention to use sick time 10 days prior to when the requested sick time is to begin or as soon as otherwise practicable. When an employee uses sick time for a foreseeable absence, the employee shall take reasonable effort to schedule the sick time in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the operations of the district (e.g., grading deadlines, inservice training, mandatory meetings). The district may discipline an employee if the employee fails to make a reasonable effort to schedule leave in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the operations of the district.

If the reason for sick time is unforeseeable, such as an emergency, accident or sudden illness, the employee shall notify the district consistent with the reporting time established by the district, or when circumstances prevent the employee from providing notice as required, as soon as practicable.

The district may discipline an employee for violating workplace policies and procedures if the employee fails to provide notice as required.

The district shall establish a standard process to track the eligibility for sick time of a substitute.

Phoenix-Talent SD 4 - Annual Questions 25-27

Grid | Filter | Arial | 10

	Ident... #	Annual Response Question	2025-26 Annual Progress Reflection
1	AR1	As you review your progress markers/overall reflection responses and reflect on plan implementation, how do you see your progress contributing to the Outcomes and Strategies in your plan and your Longitudinal Performance Growth Targets (LPGT)/Local Optional Metrics (LOM)? Discuss at least one Outcome where you have seen progress in implementation.	The district continues to make progress toward the growth targets that were established in the original LPGT plan that was created. We continue to be very pleased with the direction and outcomes of our family engagement efforts at every level. This is true both in terms of the event and activities we hold at our campuses as well as the robust and authentic two-way communication that we have implemented and are continuing to refine. As the district prepares to begin working toward the new Performance Growth Targets selected last month we feel very well positioned to show significant and sustained growth across all seven mandatory metrics of accountability as well as our district-selected local metric. One outcome in which the district has seen significant progress has been our Early Literacy outcome. Over the past year we have expanded high dosage tutoring opportunities across all three of our elementary schools. Additionally, we have been able to provide a number of professional development opportunities for our primary teaching and paraprofessional staff that has increased their expertise and capacity to provide targeted, research-based instruction to our youngest students. This has been a high growth area for the district and we look forward to continuing to offer similar opportunities to both students and staff in the coming years.
2	AR2	Where have you experienced barriers, challenges, or impediments to progress toward your Outcomes and Strategies in your plan that you could use support with? Discuss at least one Outcome where you have seen challenges or barriers to implementation.	The greatest challenge that the district continues to face regarding our Outcomes and Strategies is our progress toward Outcome A: Decrease disparities in student achievement with all subgroups making adequate growth and progress. Our students' achievement on the Smarter Balanced Math and English/Language Arts assessments have lagged the state average consistently over the past several years. Additionally, we have not seen sustained progress in closing the achievement gap between our total population and our traditionally underserved populations, especially on the 3rd grade ELA and 8th grade math measures. We are hopeful that a renewed focus on these areas required by the SB 141 accountability bill will prompt growth in these areas.
