- Online registration has begun; parents updated information was submitted, which will facilitate the registration process.

PAEC Early Childhood

The Early Childhood extended school year (ESY) program had small numbers this summer. However, it was for a great reason. We had more than half the students exit our program due to either aging out and going to kindergarten or returning to their home district for their last year of preschool. We had 12 students that registered for the ESY program attended for the three weeks. The students met new friends and teachers. They had fun reviewing their letters, numbers 1-10 and basic colors. The classroom themes focused on summer topics such as water animals and summer fun activities. All the students received the related services of social work, speech, occupational, and physical therapy.

We look forward to seeing all of our students back in August along with many new students that will be turning 3 years of age over the summer. We anticipate opening in the new school year with 19 students but there are 5 additional students that may be starting in September.

We tentatively have enough staff for 4 classrooms but we are still looking for two certified teachers. Those two positions are currently being filled by permanent substitute teachers that are in school and working towards becoming certified teachers.

We are always looking for new opportunities for the students to help them expand their interests and find job placement.

PAEC Center School

ESY 2025 had 77 students enrolled at PAEC Center. The students engaged in classroom activities to solidify educational strategies presented throughout the year.

During the ESY theme of Amusement Parks, the students worked on various projects and activities which were displayed throughout the school.

There were also some special events that occurred during the ESY session.

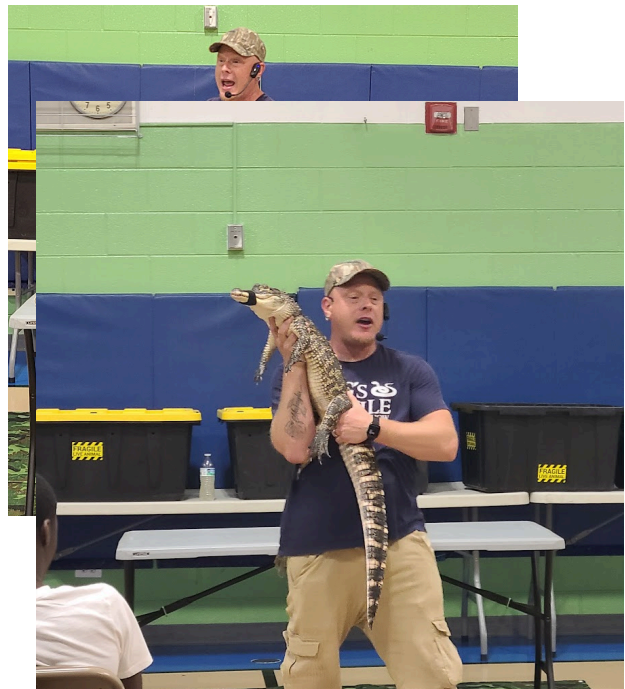

Our very own Ms. Craig played with his band and entertained the students.

We had a fun water day! There was a dunk tank present which staff AND students participated in either volunteering to get dunked or doing the dunking! There were many different water activities which helped the students cool off during the heatwave we experienced.

Finally, we had a reptile person come and show the students many different reptiles such as snakes, turtles, hissing cockroaches, and a bearded dragon. Staff were just as mesmerized as the students. It was a fun, informative presentation.

ESY proved to be a success!
