A. School Grades

Superintendent Anthony Godfrey introduced Ben Jameson, Director of Evaluation, Research & Accountability, and expressed appreciation for his work with accountability data, progress, and compliance.

Mr. Jameson presented information on District assessment performance, reviewing the State's School Accountability System and summarizing performance data on accountability assessments using the following objectives:

- District versus State comparison
- District versus large Wasatch Front LEA comparison

He explained accountability assessments at the elementary and middle school level include RISE and Acadience Reading and the high school level assessments include Utah Aspire Plus, WIDA Access, and ACT. Mr. Jameson noted the COVID-19 pandemic impacted achievement scores for all assessments statewide, and math and science scores were impacted the most. Elementary and middle school summative scores are starting to rebound, while 9th and 10th grade scores are still declining.

Mr. Jameson said academic language acquisition and proficiency levels for English Language Learners has declined statewide. Although reading proficiency and growth are areas of concern, grade level reading data signals a small rebound. Mr. Jameson attributes this to District efforts in implementing the Walk-to-Read program. Dr. Godfrey concurred, saying kindergarten scores improved significantly last year and he is hopeful to see greater effects of this program as more teacher training is offered. Ms. George and Ms. Richards expressed appreciation for the Walk-to-Read program, noting positive comments from JPAC and School Community Council members.

Mr. Van Komen joined the meeting in progress at 4:50 p.m.

Mr. Barnett asked about top factors of low student success rates. Mr. Jameson suggested a lack of support for students with second language needs, high absenteeism, and students' emotional wellness needs.

B. Review of Proposed Revisions to Administrative Policy DP318A Resignations – Administrators

Dr. June LeMaster, Administrator of Human Resources, said Policy DP318A was revised to align with the language used for Policy DP318 Resignations-Licensed regarding how to officially submit a resignation and explaining the early incentive resignation timeline.

Board members agreed to move forward and vote on these changes during the General Session.

C. Review of Amendment #2 to the Master Development Agreement for the Olympia Development in Herriman

Bryce Dunford said this revision is to reduce the amount of time the Board spends on approving amendments that don't pertain directly to Jordan District. It allows the superintendent, or his designee, to review all future amendments to the Master Development Agreement and discern which amendments are necessary for Board approval. He said one other change was made to specify what was included in the finance charge.

Mr. Dunford commended Scott Thomas on his discernment regarding property issues and Board members agreed to a vote on this agenda item during the general session.

Bryce Dunford highlighted the book's definition of a 21st century student and the importance of identifying the "readiness gap" in students.

Brian Barnett said the definition of student success should not only focus on preparing students for future jobs, but also preparing them to succeed in life. He suggested life skills should be included in the development of the Portrait of a Graduate.

Lisa Dean enjoyed a keynote speaker who mentioned three questions used in exit interviews that could be helpful to ask all employees:

Mr. Larsen added that in this class it was discussed how TSSA and Trust Lands funds restrictions are contributing to this problem.

Brian Barnett attended a class that discussed “Teen Centers” in high schools where they said there were over 15,000 students identifying as homeless in Utah. He questioned the role of public education in providing services for them and suggested this be a topic for Board discussion at a later date.

Dr. Godfrey and President Miller highlighted the “Dignity Index” class and the opportunity to connect with Board members and administration from other districts. Ms. Miller also enjoyed First Lady Abby Cox’s class on Unified Sports.

E. Board and Superintendent Reports and Comments

Government Relations Committee Chair Niki George gave a reminder of the legislative breakfast January 11, 2023 at Bingham High School and she reviewed the agenda and speaking assignments. Dr. Anderson noted there will be new legislators attending due to recent redistricting.

Bryce Dunford, Facilities Committee chair, reported that Scott Thomas, director of Facility Services, and Paul Van Komen, Board legal counsel, are working on a purchase sale agreement with the Wood Ranch development for purchasing elementary school property.

President Miller thanked all who attended the USBA conference and gave a reminder for USBA Day on the Hill on February 6, 2023 where there will be opportunity to interact with state legislators. She encouraged Board members to schedule time with their legislators that day and noted the JATC welding program will be displaying items in the rotunda. Ms. Miller added that the legislative session begins January 17, 2023.

President Miller said the Joint Legislative Committee (JLC) will be meeting weekly, beginning January 20, 2023 and will be receiving weekly updates on bills. She invited Board members to contact her or any member of the JLC if they have input on these bills.

Ms. Miller shared information about a letter the Board received from South Jordan City regarding an annexation petition for an area west of Bacchus Highway. President Miller also said new Board member committee assignments will be made soon. She requested Board members share any suggestions with the Executive Committee by the end of the week.

Superintendent Godfrey announced the District Health and Wellness Day will be February 10, 2023. He said emails will be sent to parents with resources to support the virtual learning day and there will be sponsor-supported activities for employees. Last year the Board provided all employees with a Swig drink and a meal and Dr. Godfrey asked if they would like to do the same this year. Board members agreed and Dr. Godfrey expressed appreciation, stating that everyone associated with the District will benefit.

A. Welcome and Introductions

President Miller invited Board members and legislators to introduce themselves. She expressed appreciation to the Bingham High administration for hosting the meeting, the Pro Start Team for providing breakfast, and the Madrigals and their choir director, Ryan North, for their performance.

B. Board of Education Legislative Priorities for the 2023 Legislative Session

Niki George, Government Relations chair, introduced Dr. Godfrey who she said has done an amazing job and received national recognition for his "Supercast" podcast.

Dr. Godfrey reported the Supercast has received over one million "hits" online, with episodes on bullying, safety, reunification, as well as some highlighting student accomplishments and exceptional teachers. He introduced two individuals that were recently featured on the podcast: student Claire Burnham and teacher Frankie Walton.

C. Bingham High Student Stories

Claire Burnham and her former sixth grade teacher, Ms. Walton, took turns recounting their shared educational experience. As a former sixth grade teacher, Ms. Walton inspired Claire and developed her passion for storytelling. Claire participated and competed in the State Renaissance Fair for four years and submitted an entry into the Timpanogos Storytelling Festival. She was one of ten youth storytellers in the nation selected to perform.

Ms. Burnham developed a math website named “Alex” that students use to build a solid foundation for math. Claire said Ms. Walton taught students how to navigate middle school, use time management skills, and be responsible for their own learning. She expressed gratitude for Ms. Walton and her efforts to inspire students.

Ms. Walton said she was very proud of Claire and her accomplishments. She thanked legislators for funding that allowed her to create the math website and for their support of teachers.

D. Discussion with Legislators

Niki George, Board First Vice President, gave a brief overview of Jordan’s legislative priorities, which focus on supporting students and teachers by:

- Recruiting and retaining education support professionals
- Employing high quality instructional leaders
- Providing a safe working and learning environment
- Offering competitive compensation to all employees
- Empowering LEAs with the flexibility to address the issues unique to each LEA

President Miller discussed the accountability measures for the Weighted Pupil Unit (WPU) increase. She noted 70 percent goes toward classroom instruction, 29 percent to school support services and only .7 percent is used for District administration. She highlighted the consistent increase in teacher pay each year and noted starting teacher wages are competitive with surrounding districts.

Board member Marilyn Richards discussed school safety and wellness. She shared a handout that identifies a variety of active security measures the District maintains as well as ways the District supports the health and wellness of students and employees.

E. Comments by Jordan School District Area Legislators

Legislators were invited to share comments and the following issues were discussed:

Senator McCay asked how the District is handling parental concerns regarding literacy. Dr. Godfrey said Jordan worked hard to develop a policy that is aligned with the state. He explained the policy addresses assigned reading and that books must be vetted by a District-level committee that includes parents. He also noted there is a procedure for appealing books and for parents to restrict what a child is allowed to check out. Senator McCay suggested the District website be more transparent about the policy and what books have been challenged.

Representative Dunnigan asked about increases in salaries for education support professionals and teachers. President Miller said the Board is trying to allow for a salary increase each year. Dr. Godfrey said the Board has approved lifting the limit on how much a teacher can make and that teachers can receive additional pay for additional assignments. Dr. Anderson and Dr. Godfrey both explained that annual leave days and maternity/paternity leave have benefitted employees as well.

Representative Teuscher asked about discipline issues and learning gaps related to the past Covid pandemic and about current attendance issues. Dr. Godfrey reported that the Board allowed for the hiring of additional staff to support teachers, including more social workers, counselors, and an assistant principal in all elementary schools. He said student attendance is a concern and Ms. George said she feels exposure to special programs encourages students to come to school. Dr. Anderson agreed, saying the “best attendance policy is engagement and connection.”

Representative Pulsipher asked about teacher grants and Ms. Miller confirmed there are teacher grants available through the Jordan Education Foundation and that each application gets funded.

Representative Strong said he is concerned with “politicizing classrooms” and asked what training is available for teachers. Board members said they worked hard to develop a philosophy of instruction policy which includes a statement that teachers should remain politically neutral, but discussion is encouraged. Dr. Godfrey said this policy was presented in open houses and community feedback was received and incorporated into the policy.

E. Upcoming Dates

Ms. George thanked all who attended and participated. The following upcoming events were included on the agenda:

- JSD Board and Legislator Lunch and Meeting on February 16, 2023 from 11:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.
- JSD SBO Capitol Visit on February 23, 2023 from 10:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m.
