General

The Board authorizes the participation of a student representative to the Board.[1] If the Board chooses to appoint a Student Board Representative, he/she shall serve in an advisory, nonvoting role only. The Student Board Representative's term shall serve a one-year term, beginning on July 1 and ending on June 30, and he/she shall serve without compensation.

SELECTION

If the Board elects annually at its March business meeting to appoint a Student Board Representative for the coming academic year, the Collierville High School principal shall select him/her through a transparent application process. The Student Board Representative shall be a current Collierville High School student in good academic and disciplinary standing who is entering his/her junior year. In order to promote a diversity of perspectives and opinions, the Student Board Representative may not be the child or grandchild of a current Board member.

ATTENDANCE AT BOARD MEETINGS

The Student Board Representative is expected to attend Board meetings. The student will fully contribute his/her unique perspective and opinions.

The Student Board Representative shall not participate in the following:

1. Student discipline hearing appeals;
2. Teacher disciplinary matters;
3. Meetings with legal counsel; or
4. Confidential school safety plan meetings.

No part of the school system, including the facilities, the name, the staff, and the students, shall be used for advertising or promoting the interests of any commercial, political or other non-school agency or organization except that:

1. The system/school may cooperate in furthering the work of any non-profit, community-wide social service agency, provided that such cooperation does not restrict or impair the educational programs of the schools;

2. The system/school may participate in radio or television programs under acceptable commercial sponsorship when such programs are educationally beneficial;

3. Community, educational, charitable, recreational and other similar civic groups may advertise events pertinent to students' interests or involvement. Such advertisement, including the distribution of materials, shall be subject to any procedures related to time, place and manner established by the supervisor/principal;

4. The supervisor/principal shall screen all materials prior to distribution to ensure their appropriateness. The principal may prohibit materials that:

    a. would likely cause substantial disruption of the operation of the system/school;
    b. violate the rights of others;
    c. are obscene, lewd or sexually explicit; or
    d. students would reasonably believe to be sponsored or endorsed by the system/school.

5. The system/school may, upon approval of the Director of Schools, cooperate with any governmental agency in promoting activities that advance the education or other best interests of the students;

6. Political literature shall not be distributed through the school to students, nor sent home to parents, nor placed in teachers' mail boxes, lounges, or on school premises;

7. Political signs for people who are running for public office shall not be allowed on school property except those being held by poll workers on election day or those being used for educational purposes relative to the electoral process;[1] and

8. School publications may accept and publish paid advertising under procedures established by the Director of Schools.
